

"Lurking Creatures"

Last week, Lynne and Barbara were busy at work in their comfy, air conditioned office. It was an ordinary day until suddenly, a giant bat swooped into the room! The black, fanged monster was diving from one corner to the next, its wings flapping dangerously close to Barbara's desk. For a moment, Lynne stood completely still, frightened that the bat would attack if she moved another inch. When they realized that this terrible creature might plunge down from the ceiling, Barbara yelled "Help! Somebody help! Get this bat out of here!" With that, Peggy ran into the office with a giant broom. Courageously, she swatted back and forth at the bat until finally, she made contact. The bat fell from the air in a dizzying twist, right onto Lynne's desk! All three ladies hovered over the injured beast, waiting to see any signs of life. There were none. The bat was unconscious, but surely wouldn't stay that way for long. Quickly, Lynne grabbed a dustpan and scooped the bat up. She tossed it near a tree out back in the hopes that this creature would find its way back home. At night, when the moon is high and the sky is black, the winged evil can be seen lurking nearby, just waiting for another chance to come inside.
