The New New Journalism Robert Boynton, 2007-12-18 Forty years after Tom Wolfe Hunter S Thompson and Gay Talese launched the New Journalism movement Robert S Boynton sits down with nineteen practitioners of what he calls the New New Journalism to discuss their methods writings and careers The New New Journalists are first and foremost brilliant reporters who immerse themselves completely in their subjects Jon Krakauer accompanies a mountaineering expedition to Everest Ted Conover works for nearly a year as a prison guard Susan Orlean follows orchid fanciers to reveal an obsessive subculture few knew existed Adrian Nicole LeBlanc spends nearly a decade reporting on a family in the South Bronx And like their muckraking early twentieth century precursors they are drawn to the most pressing issues of the day Alex Kotlowitz Leon Dash and William Finnegan to race and class Ron Rosenbaum to the problem of evil Michael Lewis to boom and bust economies Richard Ben Cramer to the nitty gritty of politics How do they do it In these interviews they reveal the techniques and inspirations behind their acclaimed works from their felt tip pens tape recorders long car rides and assumed identities to their intimate understanding of the way a truly great story unfolds Interviews with Gay Talese Jane Kramer Calvin Trillin Richard Ben Cramer Ted Conover Alex Kotlowitz Richard Preston William Langewiesche Eric Schlosser Leon Dash William Finnegan Jonathan Harr Jon Krakauer Adrian Nicole LeBlanc Michael Lewis Susan Orlean Ron Rosenbaum Lawrence Weschler Lawrence Wright Heart of Whiteness June Goodwin, Ben Schiff, 1995 When South Africa's present transitional government comes to an end apartheid will be dead But just as the demise of slavery did not solve America's race problems so the abolition of apartheid will only begin South Africa's healing process Heart of Whiteness examines the cataclysmic changes taking place among Afrikaners the white tribe of South Africa

A Complicated War William Finnegan, 1992-02-06 Among Africa's suffering is the little known war in Mozambique now in its second decade Finnegan traveled through the country in 1988 to assess the impact of a war waged by guerrillas who are armed and often directed by South Africa He tells a compelling story of rural misery caused by the war which in turn offers a fertile ground for its continuation Finnegan's narrative includes historical background and critical analysis of the Mozambique government whose policies have not created an inclusive framework for the nation Finnegan is drawn to the conclusion that Mozambique's peasants long have been denied the fruits of peace first under centuries of Portuguese colonialism and now as they are exposed to the current war that is destroying their future U.S. Relations With South Africa Y. G-m. Lulat, 2019-05-30 Relations between the United States and South Africa or the parts of the world these nations now occupy go nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions This book is a critical overview of these relations from the late seventeenth century to the present Unprecedented in its scope and s      Global Constructions of Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, Joy L. Lei, 2001-06-01 This book tells us how various global regions are dealing with three major concerns within the field of multicultural education the conceptualization and realization of difference and diversity the inclusion and exclusion of social groups within a definition of multicultural education and the effects of power on relations between and among groups identified under the multicultural education umbrella All of the chapter authors pay attention to these themes but at the same time they bring their particular interests and perspectives to the book addressing issues such as linguistic racial ethnic and religious diversity class educational inequalities teacher education conceptualizations of citizenship and questions of identity construction In addition the authors offer both historical and social contexts for their analytical discussion of the ideals and practices of multicultural education in a particular region This is not a book that tells us about multicultural education with an international twist it provides readers with different ways to think talk and do research about issues of diversity difference and the effects of power as they relate to education      The Readers' Advisory Guide to Nonfiction Neal Wyatt, 2007-05-14 Navigating what at she calls the extravagantly rich world of nonfiction renowned readers advisor RA Wyatt builds readers advisory bridges from fiction to compelling and increasingly popular nonfiction to encompass the library's entire collection She focuses on eight popular categories history true crime true adventure science memoir food cooking travel and sports Within each she explains the scope popularity style major authors and works and the subject's position in readers advisory interviews Wyatt addresses who is reading nonfiction and why while providing RAs with the tools and language to incorporate nonfiction into discussions that point readers to what to read next In easy to follow steps Wyatt Explains the hows and whys of offering fiction and nonfiction suggestions together Illustrates ways to get up to speed fast in nonfiction Shows how to lead readers to a variety of books using her read around and reading map strategies Provides tools to build nonfiction subject guides for the collection This hands on guide includes nonfiction bibliography key authors benchmark books with annotations and core collections It is destined to become the nonfiction bible for readers advisory and collection development helping librarians library workers and patrons select great reading from the entire library collection      U.S. Relations with South Africa: An Annotated Bibliography Y G-M Lulat, 1990-12-31 A comprehensive two volume annotated bibliography of books and monographs journal articles government documents documents of nongovernmental organizations and substantive magazine and newspaper articles published since the late nineteenth century Annotated entries contain a short abstract a table of contents and information on reviews Each volume contains an author and subject index and a periodical is included in Volume Two Topics covered include US Foreign Policy Southern Africa in US South African Relations Nuclear Technology and Other Sectors of Trade and Economic Relations Education Scientific and Cultural Exchanges African Americans and South Africa Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Comparative Studies This two volume work is part of a larger project that included publication of a nearly 700 page book titled United States Relations with South Africa A Critical Overview from the Colonial Period to the Present which is a critical overview of relations between the United States and South Africa going nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions and it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geopolitical location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large Decolonizing the Map James R. Akerman,2017-06-16 Almost universally newly independent states seek to affirm their independence and identity by making the production of new maps and atlases a top priority For formerly colonized peoples however this process neither begins nor ends with independence and it is rarely straightforward Mapping their own land is fraught with a fresh set of issues how to define and administer their territories develop their national identity establish their role in the community of nations and more The contributors to Decolonizing the Map explore this complicated relationship between mapping and decolonization while engaging with recent theoretical debates about the nature of decolonization itself These essays originally delivered as the 2010 Kenneth Nebenzahl Jr Lectures in the History of Cartography at the Newberry Library encompass more than two centuries and three continents Latin America Africa and Asia Ranging from the late eighteenth century through the mid twentieth contributors study topics from mapping and national identity in late colonial Mexico to the enduring complications created by the partition of British India and the racialized organization of space in apartheid and post apartheid South Africa A vital contribution to studies of both colonization and cartography Decolonizing the Map is the first book to systematically and comprehensively examine the engagement of mapping in the long and clearly unfinished parallel processes of decolonization and nation building in the modern world Teacher and Comrade Alan Wieder,2014-01-21 Teacher and Comrade explores South African resistance in the twentieth century before and during apartheid through the life of Richard Dudley a teacher politico who spent thirty nine years in the classroom and his entire life fighting for democracy Dudley has given his life to teaching and politics and touched and influenced many people who continue to work for democracy in South Africa and abroad Whether it was students comrades or opposition life was always teaching and relational for Dudley He challenged power throughout the apartheid era and his foundational beliefs in anti imperialism and nonracialism compel him to continue to talk teach and speak to power Through Dudley s story Teacher and Comrade provides a rare portrait of both Cape Town and South Africa as well as the struggle against racism and apartheid South Africa Myra Immell,2014-03-07 The writings in this volume examine the Apartheid era in South Africa Charts and graphs are provided to summarize important statistical information and timelines are included to help the reader trace the sequence of events Maps provide key geographic details Background information and first person accounts of the events are provided to give the reader a more rounded knowledge of the events Narratives includes the story of a South African reflecting on his childhood a political prisoner serving time on Robben Island and an imprisoned ANC leader who learns about Soweto and the new activists      Nelson Mandela: "No Easy Walk to Freedom" Barry Denenberg, 2013-12-27 From his humble beginnings in rural South Africa to his tragic death at age 95 in 2013 Nelson Mandela's life is a tale of inspiration and courage The most up to date biography of Nelson Mandela This powerful biography provides an in depth look at Nelson Mandela who grew up in a rural village in South Africa under racist apartheid rule a regime he ultimately helped overthrow Denenberg explores the history of South Africa and its often violent struggle for civil rights while tracing Mandela's role in that history Lawyer leader of the African National Congress political prisoner who spent 26 years in jail president no one else has had such enormous influence on his fellow South Africans Even beyond South Africa Nelson Mandela influenced freedom fighters everywhere This latest biography traces Mandela's complete life story      Amy Biehl's Last Home Steven D. Gish, 2018-06-13 In 1993 white American Fulbright scholar Amy Biehl was killed in a racially motivated attack near Cape Town after spending months working to promote democracy and women's rights in South Africa The ironic circumstances of her death generated enormous international publicity and yielded one of South Africa's most heralded stories of postapartheid reconciliation Amy's parents not only established a humanitarian foundation to serve the black township where she was killed but supported amnesty for her killers and hired two of the young men to work for the Amy Biehl Foundation The Biehls were hailed as heroes by Nelson Mandela Desmond Tutu and many others in South Africa and the United States but their path toward healing was neither quick nor easy Granted unrestricted access to the Biehl family's papers Steven Gish brings Amy and the Foundation to life in ways that have eluded previous authors He is the first to place Biehl's story in its full historical context while also presenting a gripping portrait of this remarkable young woman and the aftermath of her death across two continents      South Africa Shaun Johnson, 1989 This study of contemporary South Africa focuses thematically on the major political contestants interest groups and power brokers in that country The book attempts to provide an introduction to aspects of contemporary South African politics and an insight into its many forms of resistance      State , 1988      Africa Special Report , 1992
