Brunsdon, 2020-12-31 In this book social responsive theological research converges to provide practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives on the growing human dilemma of displacement The book presents the research of practical theologians a missiologist and a religious practitioner whose work pertains first and foremost to the South African context The different fields of expertise of the contributors within the broader field of practical theology worked towards a unique compilation of themes each relevant to the issue at stake The majority of chapters are theoretically orientated except where authors refer to empirical work conducted during previous research The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives it provides It engages the critical questions of what kind of church we need and what kind of care we should provide in the face of the growing predicament of human displacement The theological and theoretical principles uncovered in the different chapters will be of use to theologians from all theological subdisciplines as well as to religious practitioners and leaders of faith communities that are challenged with the growing realities of strangers on their doorsteps and in their pews Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on International Relations United States. The Influence of Early Keswick Theology of Sanctification in the Socio-ethical Life of the East African Revival Movement Robinson Kariuki Mwangi, 2025-03-31 Sanctification is an essential part of every Christian life But how do its differing theologies shape our Christian walk and wider socio ethic contexts Grounded in the East Africa Revival Movement EARM this work seeks to answer how the Keswick theology of sanctification contributes to the socio ethical understanding of walking in the light and consequently influences the mission of the Anglican Church in the Mount Kenya region Dr Robinson Kariuki Mwangi uses careful exegetical analysis to understand the biblical roots of revival and calls us to action in showing what our faith stands for integrating practical theology with pastoral practice Scholars of theology and lived Christianity will find the observations in this work informative for further study Global Mission Rose Dowsett, 2011-06-27 Global Mission is divided into two sections the first Reflections and Foundations comprises nine essays of a more general nature the second Contextualization at Work contains twenty one essays of a more specific nature most of them case studies from a particular location and people group The thirty three contributors come from five continents and a host of contexts Some are veterans some quite young but every one of them is passionate about God's mission and about building bridges for the gospel in a way that is absolutely faithful to Scripture but also sensitive to specific contexts North and South East and West demonstrate precious unity in Christ in our common calling Contextualization is complex and none of the authors claim to have got everything right But their essays are thoughtful and written out of love for God and love for his world They tell the stories of trial and error of struggles and triumphs as each seeks to present Christ in terms that make sense and can be understood It is following the process quite as much as specific conclusions which make this book valuable and transferable to many other parts of the global church The essays also give us a peep into many different societies and the birthing of faith in the grace of the Holy Spirit Thus we give thanks to God for all that he is wonderfully doing around his world and stimulate our prayers for those who work cross culturally especially in pioneer situations Not all contributors agree on every point especially when it comes to the difficulties of mission in the Muslim world and increasingly amongst Hindus There has been no attempt to standardize different approaches letting a robust conversation develop Each chapter ends with some suggested study questions useful for personal reflection or group or class discussion. The book is deliberately accessible to lay people but stimulating to career missionaries and academics We pray that it may serve the purposes of God for his glory This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance Crossing Cultures Stephen M. Davis, 2019-07-11 Cross cultural ministry is extremely challenging and must be entered into with eyes wide open The aim of this book is to help better prepare cross cultural workers to accomplish the task to which God has called them to help churches become more proactive in recruiting potential candidates and providing ministry opportunities for assessment and development of their gifts and to help mission agencies more thoroughly evaluate candidates in light of needed competencies Defense Issues , Forum for Peace Olivier Urbain, 2014-06-02 Every year since 1983 the Buddhist leader and thinker Daisaku Ikeda has issued a peace proposal that presents solutions to a variety of global problems While the proposals themselves are both wide ranging and specific covering topics as diverse as counter terrorism relations the prohibition of child soldiers denuclearization of the Arctic and strategies to prevent global warming the common denominator at their center is the role and effectiveness of the United Nations in addressing structural challenges and inequality This substantial volume brings together for the first time in one place excerpts from the most topical and important of Ikeda s peace proposals Themes like human security the empowerment of women nuclear disarmament and the centrality of dialogue are throughout informed by an unshakeable belief in the potential and promise of the UN s world mission as well as by Ikeda s own experience of the cruelty of war and his articulation of Buddhism as a practical route to peace The book makes a timely and vital contribution to ethics peace studies and international relations Missiology ,1987 An international review The Soviet Union and the Third World Library of Congress.
