Journal of Character Education Jacques S. Benninga, Marvin W Berkowitz, 2020-08-01 The Journal of Character Education is the only professional journal in education devoted to character education It is designed to cover the field from the latest research to applied best practices We include original research reports editorials and conceptual articles by the best minds in our field reviews of the latest books and other relevant strategies and manuscripts by educators that describe best practices in teaching and learning related to character education The Journal of Character Education has for over a decade been the sole scholarly journal focused on research theory measurement and practice of character education This issue includes a Voices section highlighting the 2017 Character.org Sandy Award recipient along with four peer reviewed articles and a book review

Character Education in America's Blue Ribbon Schools Madonna Murphy, 2002-07-09 Character Education in America's Blue Ribbon Schools is based upon descriptive documentary and qualitative research conducted on the award winning school applications in the United States Department of Education's Elementary School Recognition Program i.e. the Blue Ribbon Schools The purpose of the program is to focus national attention on schools that are doing an exceptional job with all of their students Areas studied are developing a solid foundation of basic skills and knowledge of subject matter and fostering the development of character values and ethical judgment The first edition of this book reported on the first decade of this program from 1985 to 1994 The second edition adds the schools that have won the award from 1996-2001 Included are the Blue Ribbon schools that applied for Special Honors in Character Education and five that actually won that recognition in 1998-1999 This edition finds character education much stronger in American schools in recent years and is full of many promising practices It is a practical book that will guide school administrators teachers parents board members and concerned citizens interested in starting or strengthening the character education focus of their school

A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools William H. Jeynes, 2009-11-24 This book offers an examination of the related topics of school prayer and character education in the United States advocating for their return to public schools According to William Jeynes the lack of both school prayer and consistent moral instruction in our schools has had devastating consequences both for our education system and for the nation as a whole In A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools Jeynes makes a compelling case for restoring moral instruction and nonspecific religious moments to the classroom as a way of restoring a much needed moral grounding in American society in general A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools traces the history of character education in the public schools including coverage of leading advocates of their inclusion from Thomas Jefferson to DeWitt Clinton to Horace Mann Jeynes then offers a broad survey of the country since the Supreme Court decisions of 1962 and 1963 asserting that most of America's greatest problems are moral in nature and could be addressed by making moral instruction and a focus on the spiritual a part of our young citizens' school lives
