Evelyn Alsultany, 2012-08-20 After 9 11 there was an increase in both the incidence of hate crimes and government policies that targeted Arabs and Muslims and the proliferation of sympathetic portrayals of Arabs and Muslims in the U S media Arabs and Muslims in the Media examines this paradox and investigates the increase of sympathetic images of the enemy during the War on Terror Evelyn Alsultany explains that a new standard in racial and cultural representations emerged out of the multicultural movement of the 1990s that involves balancing a negative representation with a positive one what she refers to as simplified complex representations This has meant that if the storyline of a TV drama or film represents an Arab or Muslim as a terrorist then the storyline also includes a positive representation of an Arab Muslim Arab American or Muslim American to offset the potential stereotype Analyzing how TV dramas such as The Practice 24 Law and Order NYPD Blue and Sleeper Cell news reporting and non profit advertising have represented Arabs Muslims Arab Americans and Muslim Americans during the War on Terror this book demonstrates how more diverse representations do not in themselves solve the problem of racial stereotyping and how even seemingly positive images can produce meanings that can justify exclusion and inequality      Evidence-Based Healthcare Chaplaincy

Stevenson,2010-05-24 In Performance Cognitive Theory and Devotional Culture Jill Stevenson uses cognitive theory to explore the layperson s physical encounter with live religious performances and to argue that laypeople s interactions with other devotional media such as books and art objects may also have functioned like performance events By revealing the remarkable resonance between cognitive science and medieval visual theories Stevenson demonstrates how understanding medieval culture can enrich the study of performance generally She concludes by applying her theories of medieval performance culture to contemporary religious forms including creationist museums Hell Houses and megachurches Emergency Planning and Preparedness United States.
