

Cold War: Superpowers Face Off

Chapter 33, Section 1

Allies Become Enemies

- Tension has been building between the U.S. & S.U. for years
 - U.S. upset about S.U. nonaggression pact in 1939 with Germany
 - Stalin blamed Allies for not invading German-occupied Europe before 1944
- Yalta Conference: A Post War Plan (Feb 1945)
 - U.S., Britain, S.U. —who were the leaders at this conference?
 - Germany in four zones
 - S.U. to join war with Japan
 - Stalin promised Eastern Europe to have free elections
- Created United Nations
- After WWII the U.S. and S.U. had very different goals in Europe

Eastern Europe's Iron Curtain

- As the Nazis were pushed back across Europe, the Soviets wanted to create a buffer zone to prevent any further invasion of the S.U.
- Soviets installed or secured Communist governments in Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Poland, and Yugoslavia
- By July of 1945 Stalin refused to allow free elections in Eastern Europe and declared that communism and capitalism could not exist in the same world
- An "Iron Curtain" now divided Europe in between East and West
 - Germany is in two sections—Soviet controlled eastern Germany with half of Berlin under a communist government, renamed German Democratic Republic
 - Western zones became the Federal Republic of Germany in 1949
- "From Stettin in the Baltic to Trieste in the Adriatic, an iron curtain has descended across the continent."

-Winston Churchill, "Iron Curtain" speech March 5, 1946

United States Tries to Contain Soviets

- President Truman adopted a policy of containment designed to block Soviet influence and stop the expansion of communism
- Containment includes forming alliances and helping weak countries resist Soviet advances
- Utilizing the policy of containment, President Truman asked Congress for foreign aid for Turkey and Greece, his support for countries that rejected communism was called the Truman Doctrine (despite opponents over $400 million was authorized)
- While Europe was rebuilding with help of the American Marshall Plan, the Soviet union wanted to keep Germany weak and divided
- In response to the U.S., Britain, and France uniting their occupation zones to form one nation, the Soviet Union blockaded their access to West Berlin
- Berlin is located deep in East Germany, the Soviets cut off highways, water, and rail traffic—the city faced starvation
- The Soviets believed the Allies would surrender Berlin or give up their ideas of uniting West Germany, however the American and British officials chose another option
