Modern Carmelite nuns and contemplative identities Brian Heffernan, 2024-05-21 Discalced Carmelite convents are among the most influential wellsprings of female spirituality in the Catholic tradition as the names of Teresa of Avila Therese of Lisieux and Edith Stein attest Behind these great Carmelites stood communities of women who developed discourses on their relationship with God and their identity as a spiritual elite in the church and society This book looks at these discourses as formulated by Carmelites in the Netherlands from their arrival there in 1872 up to the recent past providing an in depth case study of the spiritualities of modern women contemplatives The female religious life was a transnational phenomenon and the book draws on sources and scholarship in English Dutch French and German to provide insights on gendered spirituality memory and the post conciliar renewal of the religious life

Word and Spirit at Play

Jean-Jacques Suurmond, 1995 The Spirituality of a quarter of all Christians can be characterized as charismatic Pentecostalism itself is one of the most rapidly growing religious movements in America and abroad Despite these facts little serious effort has been made to develop a systematic Pentecostal theology until now Word and Spirit at Play is the first work to outline a theology that does full justice to the Pentecostal experience of God's Word and Spirit Dutch scholar Jean Jacques Suurmond who is himself a Pentecostal draws on two decades of work in Pentecostalism to demonstrate in a simple yet scholarly way how a charismatic approach shapes the lives of Christians and the church Suurmond describes the history and characteristics of present day Pentecostalism discusses the significance of Spirit baptism to the Pentecostal life reflects seriously on the gifts of grace including tongues and celebrates the role of play in Pentecostal worship This book will be invaluable both to theologians who have long wanted a scholarly synthesis of charismatic theology and to laypeople especially Pentecostals wanting to deepen their faith and other believers searching for a spirituality that opens up new sources of Christian community JEAN JACQUES SUURMOND is a Reformed minister in Vlaardingen the Netherlands

European Pentecostalism William Kay, Anne Dyer, 2011-09-23 An interconnected account of the progress of the Pentecostal and charismatic movements in Europe has long been needed but has never before been attempted because of the diversity of languages spoken across the continent This book provides historical theological and sociological perspectives on European Pentecostalism

Being in Christ Hans Burger, 2009-01-01 Being in Christ is a central theme in the message of the gospel It is central for understanding the relation of Christian believers and the church with Jesus Christ their Lord It determines the identity of a Christian It is helpful for understanding the presence of Christ and his salvation in the present It can be developed as an element of a theological ontology Finally it is a theme with a great integrating power In this book the theme being in Christ is analyzed in different perspectives The attention is focused on the reality of being in Christ its ontological implications First two representatives of the Reformed tradition are investigated the English Puritan John Owen and the Dutch Neo Calvinist Herman Bavinck Second a reconstruction of the Pauline and Johannine perspectives on being in Christ is provided Third the theme is examined in the work of the English ethicist Oliver O Donovan and the German Swiss theologian Ingolf U Dalferth In the final chapter the author gives his own systematic theological proposal of a concept of being in Christ

This Earthly Life Matters Arnold A. van Ruler, 2023-06-06 Arnold A van Ruler was one of the most original Dutch Reformed theologians of the twentieth century Through the term re creation Dutch herschepping he offers a radical affirmation of God s sustained loyalty to that which is material bodily and earthly God s work of salvation and of consummation is necessary but then for the sake of creation The path that he followed was diametrically opposed to that of Karl Barth and is also distinct from that of Jurgen Moltmann who was influenced by Van Ruler As an early exponent of Christian ecotheology Van Ruler s oeuvre provides exceptionally rich resources for contemporary debates This volume offers an English translation of selected essays by Van Ruler on the themes of God creation providence humanity sin this earthly life and animal protection It includes some famous essays for example on God and chaos the sunny side of sin joy as the fundamental Christian attitude to life and this earthly life The selection is based on volume 3 of the Dutch scholarly edition of Van Ruler s Collected Works published in 11 volumes Few of Van Ruler s texts are available in English so this volume provides a welcome addition

Charismatic Christianity as a Global Culture Karla O. Poewe, 1994 In this important work leading scholars in the fields of religion and anthropology discuss the thought patterns and religious traditions of charismatics throughout the world By examining believers throughout the Americas Africa Asia and Europe the contributors provide a comprehensive overview of a charismatic tapestry that appears to transcend national ethnic racial and class boundaries

The Sixties and Beyond Nancy Christie, Michael Gauvreau, 2013-01-01 In the decades following the Second World War North America and Western Europe experienced widespread secularization and dechristianization many scholars have pinpointed the 1960s as a pivotally important period in this decline The Sixties and Beyond examines the scope and significance of dechristianization in the western world between 1945 and 2000 A thematically wide ranging and interdisciplinary collection The Sixties and Beyond uses a framework that compares the social and cultural experiences of North America and Western Europe during this period. The internationally based contributors examine the dynamic place of Christianity in both private lives and public discourses and practices by assessing issues such as gender relations, family life, religious education, the changing relationship of church and state, and the internal dynamics of religious organizations. The Sixties and Beyond is an excellent contribution to the burgeoning scholarship on the 1960s as well as to the history of Christianity in the western world. Christianity in

Suriname Franklin Steven Jabini, 2012-11-14. The Republic of Suriname, located in northern South America, has a rich and diverse history going back several centuries. This has seen the introduction of Christianity and the establishment and creation of many church denominations. To date, major theological works have failed to provide correct, balanced, and informative dialogue on the history of Christianity and its developments in Suriname. In response to the lack of information available to the academic world, this publication aims to provide a survey of the history, a summary of the works of theologians, and a guide to reliable sources about Christianity in Suriname. Through overviewing the history of the major denominations in Suriname and focusing on some major issues surrounding Christianity, the author delivers a unique, single volume for both the general reader and a starting point for further research. Old Catholic Theology Peter-Ben Smit, 2019-10-29.

Old Catholic Theology is the theology that is characteristic of the Old Catholic Churches of the Union of Utrecht. Old Catholic Theology: An Introduction, authored by Peter Ben Smit, an acknowledged expert in the field, outlines the main characteristics of and influences on Old Catholic theology, as well as the extant ecumenical relationships of the Old Catholic Churches. In doing so, it covers what may be called mainstream Old Catholic theology while also discussing the diversity within the Old Catholic tradition. Particular attention is given to the Old Catholic approach to theology in general and to ecclesiology, sacramental theology, and ecumenical theology in particular. Further foci include the version of communio theology, the appertaining sacramental understanding of the church, the inherent connection between theology and liturgical spirituality, the distinct branch of communal hermeneutics, and the understanding of the appeal to the early Church that Old Catholic theologians developed in the course of the 20th century. Spirit and Healing in Africa Deborah van den Bosch-Heij, 2012-01-01.

There is a great need for healing in Africa. This need is in itself no different elsewhere in the world, but it is greatly determined by the involvement of religious communities and traditions. Faith communities and religious institutions play a major role in assisting African believers to find health, healing, and completeness in everyday life. New Religious Movements Marcus Lefébure, 1983. Christelijke dogmatiek C. van der Kooi, G. van den Brink, 2024-05-06. intellectuele en spirituele vreugde voor iedereen die nadenkt over geloofsvragen. Dit boek biedt een eigentijdse geloofsverantwoording van twee theologen die de christelijke geloofstraditie levend willen houden. Kernachtig en met overtuiging beschrijven ze voor nieuwe generaties studenten en theologen de christelijke leer in gesprek met de traditie, de kerk, en de eigen tijd. Ze richten zich daarbij ook op anderen die geïnteresseerd zijn in de inhoud van het christelijk geloof.
