Linda Green, Robin Mitchell, 2003-09-01 Aimed at non specialist primary teachers this book offers support for the two attainment targets of the national curriculum in art investigating and making and knowledge and understanding It uses examples and materials to explore various areas of children s development in art making and understanding and also aims to equip teachers with strategies for developing their own understanding and appreciation of the subject Units included cover such areas as children s motivation to make art developing co operative work with artists in schools learning about art from other cultures learning about art from different historical periods 2D and 3D art assessing children s art      The Painted Stork Abdul Jamil Urfi, 2024-01-16 A charismatic and arresting bird the Painted Stork inhabits the plains and wetlands of India and Southeast Asia This near threatened species provides a good model through which to explore a variety of ecology and conservation issues As a colonial nester it is also useful for considering questions related to evolution and the development of avian coloniality The Painted Stork sometimes nests opportunistically in the middle of large cities the Delhi Zoo colony for instance has been active since 1960 This offers a splendid opportunity to study the species at close range as attested by this book s lively photographic component The Painted Stork is an important indicator of its wetland habitats which themselves are highly threatened Since environmental toxins particularly organochlorine pesticides travel rapidly along aquatic food chains the study of piscivorous birds like the Painted Stork assumes special significance Equally vulnerable today are the nesting colonies located in marshes village reservoirs and the wider countryside including in urban settings Perhaps because their natural nesting areas are becoming scarce due to habitat loss colonial waterbirds look for suitable sites in parks and gardens Hence the behaviour of this species reflects changes occurring in its environment Birds also help us monitor the effects of global climate change and one of the most significant dimensions of the Painted Stork is its dependence upon the monsoon How exactly do these seasonal rains govern the food cycles in wetlands And what happens when the monsoon fails Covering all aspects of Painted Stork ecology behaviour conservation and its relationship with humans this accessible monograph contains a wealth of new insights
