"Am I My Brother's Keeper?" Mark W. Scarlata, 2013-05-14 In a wide ranging meditation on the Cain and Abel narrative Mark Scarlata draws out theological motifs relevant to Christian discipleship in a modern Western context Taking his cue from Augustine s City of God Scarlata brings to light what it means for a Christian to be a citizen of the heavenly city in this midst of a twenty first century globalized society He argues that Christians can no longer think of discipleship merely as a personal individual undertaking but must recognize their role and responsibility as citizens in a global community Each chapter raises questions like How do we offer our best in worship when we live in a world driven by consumerism How can we love others through our participation in the global economy Are our lifestyles treating the environment in a way that is pleasing to God And how do we authentically connect to each other in a digital age of social media and mobile technology These and other issues are addressed in relation to scenes from the Cain and Abel story Each discussion highlights ancient Jewish and Christian interpretation as well as how a particular topic is understood within the broader context of the Old and New Testaments Scarlata then offers ways that Christians might respond to the cultural shifts experienced by this generation and encourages readers to rethink what it means to be a citizen of God s kingdom with a local and global awareness in every aspect of life

Deliver Us From Abortion Brian Fisher, 2015-01-15 The author of Abortion: The Ultimate Exploitation of Women offers a blueprint for the American Church to handle abortion in our country Consider that for the past forty years a staggering fifty six million Americans have been killed by abortion It claims the lives of over 1.2 million children every year or roughly one child every twenty five seconds So why isn't the American church doing something to stop this atrocity which is the greatest holocaust in American history The majority of American churches God's institutions for spreading the gospel of peace and defending the weak and innocent remain silent Feeding the poor stopping human trafficking rescuing children from abuse and protecting women from exploitation are all issues the church is addressing Yet abortion remains eerily absent from the list of church priorities in America Why isn't it the church's highest priority Is the American church silent because abortion has become politicized and church leaders are afraid to discuss it or because we simply don't know what the Bible says about it What will cause the church to wake up rise up and take this issue to task to save our children In his latest book Deliver Us From Abortion Brian Fisher co-founder and president of Online for Life breaks the veil of silence and uncovers the reality of abortion in the church what the Bible really says about it and how God has empowered His church to end this unspeakable tragedy Praise for Deliver Us from Abortion This book provides a powerful defense for the children who can't speak for themselves Josh McDowell bestselling author of 138 books including More Than a Carpenter Abortion is the greatest moral crisis of our generation yet far too many churches have remained silent In Deliver Us From Abortion Brian Fisher offers a blueprint for the American church that is both instructive and encouraging I pray that we can all hear and accept his challenge Dr Tony Evans president The Urban Alternative senior pastor Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship Growing up in the King family during the Civil Rights era I know what the church can accomplish I am so glad Brian has written this book May it challenge and equip the church to end the abortion holocaust in America Dr Alveda King director of African American outreach Priests for Life
