Connors, 2002 Pat McCormick and Russ Connors build on the insights of fundamental Christian ethics and apply them in making concrete judgments about a number of very specific contemporary moral problems relating to the economy war and violence medicine sexuality and the environment Facing Ethical Issues is must reading for anyone wishing to make sense of our increasingly complex world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Attentiveness to Vulnerability Daniel J. Fleming, 2019-04-24 This book is an attempt to develop a dialogue between the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas Jean Porter's Thomistic theory of the natural law and the virtue of solidarity as expressed in Catholic Social Teaching It seeks to explore the implications that such a dialogue would have for our understanding of moral reasoning Attentiveness to Vulnerability rests on the hypothesis that it is possible to develop a set of robust links between these thinkers and bodies of thought markedly different as they are in terms of philosophical disposition and framework Such links specify the ethical implications of Levinas thought and develop Porter's theory in an original way This work requires further specification through a developed anthropology which allows for expansion within the tradition of Catholic theological ethics The inclusion of Levinas and a focus on the virtue of solidarity allows for an advancement of virtue theory and theological ethics to the extent that the virtue of solidarity becomes a key aspect of any ethical reasoning A

Banqueter's Guide To The All-Night Soup Kitchen Of The Kingdom Of God Patrick T. McCormick, 2017-07-14 When Jesus spoke at the table he provided instructions for his disciples to follow A Banqueter's Guide to the All Night Soup Kitchen of the Kingdom of God views those teachings as a set of guidelines for us to follow in all areas of life Through the study of metaphors commonly used to describe the Eucharist this book connects the Eucharist and Jesus words and actions with current issues in society Each chapter defines a metaphor associated with the Eucharist and explores its moral social and ethical implications Readers will become more aware of the need for social justice as they identify with the parables and guidance of Jesus Chapters are Take and Eat Breaking Bread This is My Body and An Unbloody Sacrifice Patrick T

McCormick STP is associate professor of Christian ethics at Gonzaga University Spokane Washington Getting On Message Peter Laarman, 2006-04-12 In the 2004 election 80 percent of those who claimed moral values was the most important issue affecting their vote cast their ballots for Bush as did 63 percent of frequent churchgoers Since then the Religious Right has continued to cement an association between Christian and moral values and conservative policies Getting On Message challenges this association from the very heart of the Christian tradition These readable and incisive essays use biblical framing to discern the personal and social ethics that truly embody Christian values in the contemporary world

Marilynne Robinson discusses the link between personal holiness and a generous spirit Garret Keizer looks at the growing wealth class divide from a Christian perspective Rev Heidi Neumark examines hospitality as a core Christian value Rev Chloe Breyer explores a justice criterion for women's decisions on abortion Rev Bill Sinkford asks what really constitutes a God approved marriage and family Getting On Message is a book for clergy for politically active people of faith and for progressive organizers and strategists who want to learn how to talk to religious believers about the values they share

Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment Robert M. Bohm, Gavin Lee, 2017-12-15 Capital punishment is one of the more controversial subjects in the social sciences especially in criminal justice and criminology Over the last decade or so the United States has experienced a significant decline in the number of death sentences and executions Since 2007 eight states have abolished capital punishment bringing the total number of states without the death penalty to 19 plus the District of Columbia and more are likely to follow suit in the near future Nebraska reinstated its death penalty in 2016 Worldwide 70 percent of countries have abolished capital punishment in law or in practice The current trend suggests the eventual demise of capital punishment in all but a few recalcitrant states and countries Within this context a fresh look at capital punishment in the United States and worldwide is warranted The Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment comprehensively examines the topic of capital punishment from a wide variety of perspectives A thoughtful introductory chapter from experts Bohm and Lee presents a contextual framework for the subject matter and chapters present state of the art analyses of a range of aspects of capital punishment grouped into five sections 1 Capital Punishment History Opinion and Culture 2 Capital Punishment Rationales and Religious Views 3 Capital Punishment and Constitutional Issues 4 The Death Penalty's Administration and 5 The Death Penalty's Consequences This is a key collection for students taking courses in prisons penology criminal justice criminology and related subjects and is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in prison service or in related agencies

Caesar Ate My Jesus Meg Gorzycki, 2017-06-09 What the hell happened on the way to making the world a better place We boomers were told our success would be unlimited We had democracy and capitalism and God was on our side We took our religious teachings seriously and set out to end bigotry violence and destitution Inevitably we collided with American Caesars whose power and wealth was sufficient to dominate national and international affairs Political and religious Caesars appropriated Jesus and used him to justify war sexism racism dictatorships and poverty What were the faithful to do Lots of boomers I know tossed the spiritual baby out with the religious institution's bathwater and became cynical about civic engagement It is not time to abandon hope in our goodness however and it is not time to surrender our conscience to Caesar Our experiences as boomers teach us that it is possible to bring the love of God to bear in our lives despite Caesar's constant pressure to cherish power wealth celebrity and things more than we cherish people This book is for folks who are ready to get off Caesar's treadmill and dig deeply into their hearts and minds to see what remains of the Kingdom of God within unpunished in some societies While the defenders of human rights argue that violence against a human being for whatsoever reason and under whatsoever condition is a violation of a human right an assault a crime the domestic violence against women seems to slip easily through the net of that universally accepted convention law To state this in a clear language one can simply say that violence is an act that is undesirable and unwanted in human dealings be it outside or within the domestic settings Owing to the fact that the homes as a setting for familial living are hoped to be known for the perpetration and the manifestation of unconditional love among the family members presumably the place par excellence for human living how could someone explain the perpetration such an atrocious and abhorrent act be in these places Many explanatory hypotheses have been stated sexism kyriarchy But whatever the reason behind the phenomenon of domestic violence against women could be the truth of the matter reminds that physical violence in the homes is undesired and is an assault like any other form of violence it s dreadful and should be done away with It is disheartening and disgusting to observe that some women even up today are still living in fear under the perpetual threats of beats in a place that they dreamed and hoped to be the place par excellence for peace love and serenity If the Universal Declaration of human rights states that men and women are born equal in right and dignity this ideology and the likes are simply unjust and unfair Nevertheless if men and women of course are willing this situation can change and it has to change indeed The fight against physical domestic violence against women is never a fight of women against men it is rather a fight of all human beings against some tendencies and ideologies that hinder a peaceful and harmonious living together both in the homes and in the societies Therefore all the competent forces powers and organisations need to be mobilised to join together their efforts in order to conquer this unwanted but tolerated crime The relationship between men and women in the homes should not and cannot be based on power control of the partner violence is simply an act that is uncalled for in human dealings Men and women need to be schooled both culturally and formally in that regard
