Failing Our Fathers Confronting The Crisis Of Economically Vulnerable Nonresident Fathers:

Failing Our Fathers Ronald B. Mincy, Monique Jethwani, Serena Klempin, 2014-12-01 Maligned as deadbeat dads or sexually and financially irresponsible inner city fathers and overlooked in discussions of poverty and family policy economically vulnerable nonresident fathers are a greatly misunderstood population Failing Our Fathers summarizes the most recent quantitative and qualitative research and undertakes new analyses to fill in important gaps to produce a comprehensive picture of who these fathers are what types of relationships they have with their families and children and the challenges they face meeting what their loved ones and taxpayers expect from them The great majority of these men see their children on a regular basis despite the financial legal and extra legal barriers they face Besides requiring fathers to support their children we must enable them to do so by supplementing their earnings and supporting their co parenting in ways that parallel how we require and enable vulnerable single mothers to support their children The book lays out specific reforms required to achieve this goal as well as tips for those resources for economically vulnerable nonresident fathers

Failing Our Fathers Ronald B. Mincy, Monique Jethwani, Serena Klempin, 2015 In Failing our Fathers Ron Mincy and his colleagues present a more comprehensive picture of how these men face significant obstacles and explore unintended effects of policies designed to secure financial support for their children the effectiveness of the few policies that have been designed to offer relief Behind from the Start Lenette Azzi-Lessing, 2017 Today there are nearly six million children under the age of 5 living in poverty in the world's richest country Behind from the Start examines what lies behind the stubbornly high rate of poverty among young children in the U S and its consequences It explains the multiple ways in which early life poverty robs millions of children of a promising future and calls for dramatic changes in how we approach this problem

Family Men: Fathers as Coparents in Diverse Contexts and Family Structures Sarah E. DeMartini, Nancy Hazen, Martin I. Gallegos, Nicola Carone, Lauren Altenburger, 2022-08-26 Race and Social Policy Sandra Edmonds Crewe, 2022-11-10 Social policy is not blind It has been at the forefront of perpetuating structural inequality in many of the systems charged with serving and protecting The impact of race on social policy is linked to historical intended and unintended patterns of discrimination that have resulted in disparate impact for many across their life course This book uses critical race theory to examine key social policies The chapters give primacy to addressing the experiences of African Americans in navigating systems that are flawed by structural racism and yet too often attribute individual pathology rather than systemic injustice to the worsening life circumstances they find themselves in Using scholarship personal and professional experiences the contributors offer valuable insight on differential treatment and the resulting missed opportunities to address historical barriers that if not addressed will continue the cycle of harm for marginalized members in society The Covid 19 pandemic along with the loss of Black lives through carceral injustices have amplified the national discourse about race and social policy Additionally critical race theory has been championed by many as a framework for understanding the structural inequalities that plague our nation Others have assailed the theory as promoting hate guilt and divisiveness The contributors use critical race theory in combination with other theoretical frameworks to provide context for the persistent and pernicious injustices that have historically plagued society Their work offers context with the goal of policy changes aimed at eradicating systemic injustices that negatively impact quality of life Race and Social Policy is a significant new contribution to understanding and addressing systemic and structural racism and it will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of social work politics public policy and sociology This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Social Work in Public Health Shifting the Center Susan J. Ferguson, 2022-11-21 Shifting the Center

Understanding Contemporary Families Sixth Edition is a popular anthology of readings used in Sociology of Family and of Marriages Families Intimate Relationship courses Editor Susan J Ferguson brings together carefully selected pieces written by leading family researchers and drawn from a variety of scholarly sources including articles from the leading family journals and excerpts from several classic book length studies She also provides background and context to help students connect the topics in the readings to the broader themes in the study of family sociology The table of contents follows the same scope and sequence as the leading family survey texts Gender and Couple Relationships Susan M.

McHale, Valarie King, Jennifer Van Hook, Alan Booth, 2015-10-27 This provocative volume is comprised of psychological socioeconomic and cultural perspectives on couple dynamics particularly gender dynamics and the future of marriage Featuring data on married cohabitating male female and same sex couples the authors of the book's chapters analyze the changing impacts of work parenting and the health benefits of marriage for men and women Trajectories in the evolution toward gender equality provide the backdrop for discussions of women and men as partners parents and workers in contemporary society Contributors also keep a sharp focus on the complexities of gender issues as they intersect with crucial contexts of cohort class race ethnicity and sexual orientation Among the topics covered Gender equality and economic inequality impacts on marriage Expansionist theory expanded integrating sociological and psychological perspectives on gender work and family change Gender work and family action in the interactions Changes in U S mothers and fathers time use causes and consequences A case for gay fathers Gender marriage and health for same sex and different sex couples Gender and Couple Relationships documents social roles and social change with fascinating insight to advance research in fields of psychology sociology demography and economics and to the benefit of work organizations policy makers family and couple therapists and other mental health professionals It's a Setup Timothy Black, Sky Keyes, 2021 The expectation for fathers to be more involved with parenting their children and pitching in at home are higher than ever yet broad social political and economic changes have made it more difficult for low income men to be fathers In It's a Setup Timothy Black and Sky Keyes ground a moving and intimate narrative in the political and economic circumstances that shape the lives of low income fathers Based on 138 life history interviews they expose the contradiction that while the norms and expectations of father involvement have changed rapidly within a generation labor force and state support for fathering on the margins has deteriorated Tracking these life histories they move us through the lived experiences of job precarity welfare cuts punitive child support courts public housing neglect and the criminalization of poverty to demonstrate that without transformative systemic change individual determination is not enough Fathers on the social and economic margins are setup to fail

Prisons of Debt Lynne Haney,2022-05-10 Introduction From deadbeat to deadbroke Making men pay The debt of imprisonment Punishing parents creating criminals The imprisonment of debt The good the bad and the dead broke Cyclical parenting Conclusion Reforming debt reimagining fatherhood Appendix about the research Essential Dads Jennifer M. Randles,2020-10-13 In Essential Dads sociologist Jennifer Randles shares the stories of more than 60 marginalized men as they sought to become more engaged parents through a government supported responsible fatherhood program Dads experiences serve as a unique window into long standing controversies about the importance of fathering its connection to inequality and the state s role in shaping men s parenting With a compassionate and hopeful voice Randles proposes a more equitable political agenda for fatherhood one that carefully considers the social and economic factors shaping men s abilities to be involved in their children s lives and the ideologies that rationalize the necessity of that involvement Lost and Found Paul Florsheim,David Moore (Professor of psychology),2020 Lost and Found shares the stories of several young men becoming parents in an era where family is being re defined while our understanding of what it means to be a father in particular is in flux It offers a model of the good enough father to counter the all or nothing stereotypes of the deadbeat or absentee dad versus the ideal father figure popularized in old sitcoms The authors also offer detailed descriptions of what can be done to help young fathers and mothers create stable home environments for their children whether the parents are together or not

A Safety Net That Works Robert Doar,2017-02-13 This is an edited volume reviewing the major means tested social programs in the United States Each author addresses a major program or area reviewing each area s successes and recommending how to address shortcomings through policy change In general our means tested programs do many things well but some adjustments to each could make the system much more effective This book provides policymakers with a broad overview of the issues at hand in each program and how to address them Conservative Criminology John Wright,Matt DeLisi,2015-11-06 Conservative Criminology serves as an important counterpoint to virtually every other academic text on crime Hundreds of books have been written about crime and criminal justice policy from a variety of perspectives including Marxist liberal progressive feminist radical and post modernist To date however no book has been written outlining a conservative perspective on crime and criminal justice policy Not a polemic against liberalism Conservative Criminology nonetheless focuses on how liberal ideology affects the study of crime and criminals and the policies that criminologist advocate Wright and DeLisi both senior scholars give a voice to a major political philosophy a philosophy often demonized by academics and to conservatives in the academic world In the end Conservative Criminology calls for an investment in intellectual diversity a respect for varying political philosophies and a renewed commitment to honesty in scholarship The authors encourage debate in the profession about the proper role of ideology in the academy and in public policies on crime and justice Conservative Criminology is for the criminal justice professional and student It serves as a stimulating supplement to courses in criminology and criminal justice as well as a primary text for special issues or capstone courses This book supports the reader in recognizing ideological biases whatever they might be and in considering their own convictions Older African American Women Dorothy Smith-Ruiz, Marcia J. Watson-Vandiver, Debra C.

Smith, 2025-03-20 African American women have disproportionately high prevalence incidence and mortality rates for most health conditions in comparison to White women This book will explore some of the reasons for these disparities including problems within the health care system and societal institutions The disproportionately high number of COVID 19 deaths in the African American population especially among African American women have brought renewed attention to historical racial inequality and the role it plays in the daily lives of American women and black families in general Recommendations incorporate practical implications of this research including identifying social and financial supports unique to older African American women and determining strategies to strengthen the health needs of African American families which is also paramount to addressing economic social and racial disparities of this population Drawing on data from a variety of sources this book applies a systematic racism and intersectionality approach to how various social demographic economic and health variables influence the outcomes and the overall health status of older African American women As such it will appeal to scholars in Sociology Social Work Nursing Gerontology Social Policy Racial and Inequality Studies African American Studies Justice Studies Culture Ethnicity and Health Studies and Public Health How School Leaders Contribute to Student

Success Kenneth Leithwood, Jingping Sun, Katina Pollock, 2017-03-15 While considerable evidence indicates that school leaders are able to make important contributions to the success of their students much less is known about how such contributions are made This book provides a comprehensive account of research aimed at filling this gap in our knowledge along with guidelines about how school leaders might use this knowledge for their own school improvement work Leadership practices known to be effective for improving student success are outlined in the first section of the book while the remaining sections identify four paths along which the influence of those practices flow to exercise an influence on student success Each of the Rational Emotional Organizational and Family paths are populated by conditions or variables known to have relatively direct effects on student success and also open to influence by effective leadership practices While the Four Path framework narrows the attention of school leaders to a still considerable number conditions known to contribute to student success it leaves school leaders the autonomy to select for improvement efforts the sub set of conditions that make the most sense in their own local circumstances The approach to leadership described in this book provides evidence based guidance on what to lead and flexibility on how to lead for purposes of improving student learning Gender Inequality in Our

Changing World Lori Kenschaft, Roger Clark, Desiree Ciambone, 2015-07-24 Gender Inequality in Our Changing World A Comparative Approach focuses on the contemporary United States but places it in historical and global context Written for sociology of gender courses this textbook identifies conditions that encourage greater or lesser gender inequality explains how gender and gender inequality change over time and explores how gender intersects with other hierarchies especially those related to race social class and sexual identity The authors integrate historical and international materials as they help students think both theoretically and empirically about the causes and consequences of gender inequality both in their own lives and in the lives of others worldwide

Seminal Rene Almeling, Lisa Campo-Engelstein, Brian T. Nguyen, 2025-06-24 The complexities and controversies at the nexus of sperm health and politics In Seminal experts from across the social sciences humanities law and medicine offer a kaleidoscopic view of the relationship between sperm health and the intersecting politics of gender race and reproduction Always insightful and often provocative the essays in this unprecedented collection cover a broad range of issues related to male reproductive and sexual health including the latest technological developments for creating sperm the specter of eugenics in contemporary medical markets emerging approaches to male contraceptive methods male infertility and trans healthcare controversies surrounding sperm donors and sperm banking disparities in sexual health education for teens all the while attending to the enormous variation in how individuals and societies understand embody and experience sperm At a time when the most basic rights of reproductive autonomy are under severe threat contributors to this volume argue this is precisely the moment to rethink and reimagine sperm from a variety of medical political and cultural perspectives Ultimately this volume aims to contribute to a more reproductively just society and broaden conversations around bodies health and equity in the United States Man Out Andrew L. Yarrow, 2018-09-11 The story of men who are hurting and hurting America by their absence Man Out describes the millions of men on the sidelines of life in the United States Many of them have been pushed out of the mainstream because of an economy and society where the odds are stacked against them others have chosen to be on the outskirts of twenty first century America These men are disconnected from work personal relationships family and children and civic and community life They may be angry at government employers women and the system in general and millions of them have done time in prison and have cast aside many social norms Sadly too many of these men are unsure what it means to be a man in contemporary society Wives or partners reject them children are estranged from them and family friends and neighbors are embarrassed by them Many have disappeared into a netherworld of drugs alcohol poor health loneliness misogyny economic insecurity online gaming pornography other off the grid corners of the internet and a fantasy world of starting their own business or even writing the Great American novel Most of the men described in this book are poorly educated with low incomes and often with very few prospects for rewarding employment They are also disproportionately found among millennials those over 50 and African American men Increasingly however these lost men are discovered even in tony suburbs and throughout the nation It is a myth that men on the outer corners of society are only lower middle class white men dislocated by technology and globalization Unlike those who primarily blame an unjust economy government policies or a culture sanctioning laziness Man Out explores the complex interplay between economics and culture It rejects the politically charged dichotomy of seeing such men as either victims or culprits These men are hurting and in turn they are hurting families and hurting America It is essential to address their problems Man Out draws on a wide range of data and existing research as well as interviews with several hundred men women and a wide variety of economists and other social scientists social service providers and physicians and with employers through a national online survey and in depth fieldwork in several communities

Young Disadvantaged Men: Fathers, Families, Poverty, and Policy Timothy Smeeding,Irwin Garfinkel,Ronald B. Mincy,2011-06-09 By age 30 between 68 and 75 percent of young men in the United States with only a high school degree or less are fathers This volume provides practical policy driven strategies to address the national epidemic of disadvantaged young fathers and the challenges they face in raising and supporting their children National experts discuss the issues of immediate concern to those working to reconnect disengaged dads to their children and improve child and family economic and emotional well being Each chapter was presented at a working conference organized by Institute for Research on Poverty director Tim Smeeding University of Wisconsin Madison in coordination with the Columbia University School of Social Work s Center for Research on Fathers Children and Family Well Being directed by Ronald Mincy and the Columbia Population Research Center directed by Irwin Garfinkel The conference brought together scholars many in public policy to examine strategies for reducing barriers to marriage and fathers involvement designing child support and other public policies to encourage the involvement of fathers and addressing fathers who have multiple child support responsibilities This volume will appeal to researchers policy makers and practitioners dedicated to improving the lives of low income families and children
