Failure And I Bury The Body National Poetry:

Failure and I Bury the Body Sasha West, 2013-08-27 Failure and I Bury the Body by Sasha West has descriptive copy which is not yet available from the Publisher The Long Devotion Emily Pérez, Nancy Reddy, 2022-04-01 The Long Devotion is a collection of poems essays and writing prompts that celebrates motherhood and creates a space as poet Molly Spencer has written to tell an unlovely truth about family life and not have to take it back The poets in this book represent and describe a wide range of experiences They write about encountering the world anew through their children intersections of parenting and race single parenting adoptive foster and step parenting life with chronic illness mental illness and disability and the choice to remain childless The book is divided into four parts Difficulty Ambivalence and Joy considers the wonder and challenges of parenting including infertility pregnancy miscarriage and life with children and trying to write in the midst of those demands The Body and the Brain explores the cerebral and bodily labor of caregiving and writing In the World brings parents and their children into contact with the natural and political landscape Finally Transitions looks at how parenting and writing change as children grow up Poems range from linear narratives and imagistic lyric to poetry comics speculative futures and experimental forms Essays and poems suggest ways to write through the disruptions and chaos of family life Prompts invite readers to use the work in this book as a starting point for their own poetry As candid accounts of motherhood become more prevalent across literary pop culture and digital spaces the way we talk about writing and mothering is changing Poets have long challenged traditional motherhood narratives This book brings together a new generation of exciting and provocative voices for the first time The Narrow Circle Nathan Hoks, 2013-06-04 Selected as a winner of the National Poetry Series by Dean Young John Ashbery called Reveilles Nathan Hoks s debut book a dazzling collection and Hoks a poet whose fine gradations of observation turn the reader into a barometer of strong subtleties like those of the weather that can be minute even as they affect us powerfully The poems in Hoks s new book The Narrow Circle perform a similar magic In associative lyrics and fabulist prose Hoks explores inner and outer experiences The poems frequently focus on the body as a membrane where everything becomes inside out where the face disperses with angels of teeth and loam where sky comes out of the mouth where a giant green worm burrows a hole in the head and where the heart is a vestibule that cannot be closed Suites of pictures within the text further delineate this inward outward pull offering visualizations of interior voices and sketches of exterior shadows The Cloud That Contained the Lightning Cynthia Lowen, 2013 Using the character of J Robert Oppenheimer the father of the atomic bomb as a jumping off point The Cloud That Contained the Lightning explores the kinds of ethical choices we face as individuals and as a society with respect to the innovations and inventions we pursue How are our fears obsessions prejudices and cultures manifested in the ways we apply new technologies such as the splitting of the atom What were the attitudes that resulted in such a destructive invention What prompted it to be used on a nation suspected to already be defeated By weaving together the voices of Oppenheimer his wife and brother hibakusha Japanese for explosion affected people and the mythological figures of Cronos and his children Lowen creates a dialogue out of a vacuum of communication and imagines the kind of exchanges that might have led to a different outcome than the tragedies at Hiroshima and Nagasaki And in an exploration of our tendency for selective amnesia this collection asks a critical question How quickly will the forgotten lessons of the past allow us to repeat the tragic chapters of our history The Georgia Review ,2019 Word and context in Latin poetry A. J. Woodman,J. Wisse,2020-05-31 This volume of essays is intended to commemorate the eminent Latin scholar David West best known for his work on Lucretius Horace Virgil and Shakespeare The contributors Francis Cairns Ian Du Quesnay Bruce Gibson Alex Hardie Stephen Harrison John Moles and Tony Woodman have aimed to produce close readings of classical texts paying due attention to historical context and literary tradition in the manner adopted by David West himself The authors covered are Empedocles Antisthenes Callimachus Lutatius Catulus Catullus Horace Epodes and Odes Propertius Virgil Aeneid Dio Chrysostom and Hildebert of Lavardin Visiting Hours at the Color Line Ed Pavlic,2013-08-04 The acclaimed poet finds many hues complexity within America's divided black and white society in this 2012 National Poetry Series winning collection American attitudes and perceptions of tragedies major events each other are often segregated into two camps by a politicized racially divided Color Line But in this award winning poetry collection Ed Pavlic explores the nonlinear aspects of our cultural divide Where he asks is the Color Line in the mind in the body between bodies between human beings In daring prose poems and powerful free verse Pavlic tracks American characters through situations both mundane and momentous He exposes the many textures of this social historical world as it seeps into the private dimensions of our lives The resulting poems are intense intimate and psychologically probing making Visiting Hours at the Color Line a poetic tour de force Ex-Centric Migrations Hakim Abderrezak,2016-06-20 Plunges the reader into a tour de force across radically divergent artistic responses to Mediterranean migration Bulletin of Francophone Postcolonial Studies Ex Centric Migrations examines cinematic literary and musical representations of migrants and migratory trends in the western Mediterranean Focusing primarily on clandestine sea crossings Hakim Abderrezak shows that despite labor and linguistic ties with the colonizer migrants from the Maghreb Morocco Algeria and Tunisia no longer systematically target France as a destination but instead aspire toward other European countries notably Spain and Italy In addition the author investigates other migratory patterns that entail the repatriation of migrants His analysis reveals that the films novels and songs of Mediterranean artists run contrary to mass media coverage and conservative political discourse bringing a nuanced vision and expert analysis to the sensationalism and biased reportage of such events as the Mediterranean maritime tragedies Ex Centric Migrations is crucial reading for scholars and students of contemporary Maghrebi French and Spanish literatures and cultures It breaks new ground by encompassing the literature film and music of return migration and examining the trajectories of Maghrebi migration outside France H France Hakim Abderrezak convincingly illustrates how politically committed artistic practices serve to humanize the challenges of human migration and in the process dramatically improves our understanding of the complex cultural economic political and social realities that shape 21st century existence Dominic Thomas author of Africa and France Postcolonial Cultures Migration and Racism Putnam's Magazine. Original Papers on Literature, Science, Art, and National Interests, 1855 Allegories of One's Own Mind David G. Riede, 2005 Perhaps because major Victorians like Thomas Carlyle and Matthew Arnold proscribed Romantic melancholy as morbidly diseased and unsuitable for poetic expression critics have neglected or understated the central importance of melancholy in Victorian poetry Allegories of One's Own Mind re directs our attention to a mode that Arnold was rejecting as morbid but also acknowledging when he disparaged the widely current idea that the highest ambition of poetry should be to present an allegory of the poet's own mind This book shows how early Victorian poets suffered from and railed against what they perceived to be a disabling post Wordsworthian melancholy we might refer to it as depression and yet benefited from this self absorbed or love obsessed state which ironically made them more productive David G Riede argues that the dominant thematic and formal concerns of the age in fact are embodied in the ambivalence of Carlyle Arnold and others who pitted a Victorian ideology of duty rationality and high moral character against a still compelling Romantic cultivation of the deep self intuited as melancholy Such ambivalence in fact is in itself constitutive of melancholy long understood as the product of conscience raging against inchoate desire and it constitutes the mood of the age's most important poetry represented here in the major works of Alfred Tennyson Elizabeth Barrett Browning and even in the notoriously optimistic Robert Browning David G Riede is professor of English at The Ohio State University The National Reformer, 1869 A Rebel's Journey Peyman Vahabzadeh, 2019-08-01 Following the 1953 coup that toppled the democratically elected government of Mossadeq and restored the rule of the Shah in Iran Mostafa Sho aiyan became a key figure on the country's militant left From a life underground he contributed significantly to the study of Iranian history and politics and developed a unique theory of revolution A Rebel's Journey provides fascinating insights into the life and work of this singular theoretician Peyman Vahabzadeh sets Sho aiyan's thought in the context of his time and place and explores how his revolutionary theory might contribute to today's expanding movements for social justice and liberation The Facts on File Companion to American Poetry Burt Kimmelman, Temple Cone, Randall Huff, 2008 An introduction to American poets poetry and literary movements from colonial times to the 21st century Public Opinion, 1889 Catalogue of the Books in the Central Lending Department Public Libraries (Newcastle-upon-Tyne), 1880 National Stockman and Farmer, 1894 Constitution Papers, 1913 American Agriculturist, 1911 Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review, 1798 Anne Sexton Paula M. Salvio, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association A Pulitzer Prize winning poet who confessed the unrelenting anguish of addiction and depression Anne Sexton 1928 1974 was also a dedicated teacher In this book Paula M Salvio opens up Sexton's classroom uncovering a teacher who willfully demonstrated that the personal could also be plural Looking at how Sexton framed and used the personal in teaching and learning Salvio considers the extent to which our histories both personal and social exert their influence on teaching In doing so she situates the teaching life of Anne Sexton at the center of some of the key problems and questions in feminist teaching navigating the appropriate distance between teacher and student the relationship between writer and poetic subject and the relationship between emotional life and knowledge Examining Sexton s pedagogy with its weird abundance of tactics and strategies Salvio argues that Sexton s use of the autobiographical I is as much a literary identity as a literal identity one that can speak with great force to educators who recognize its vital role in the humanities classroom
