EdPsych Modules Cheryl Cisero Durwin, Marla Reese-Weber, 2019-12-04 EdPsych Modules uses an innovative modular approach and case studies based on real-life classroom situations to address the challenge of effectively connecting theory and research to practice. Succinct, stand-alone modules are organized into themed units and offer instructors the flexibility to tailor the book's contents to the needs of their course. The units begin with a set of case studies written for early childhood, elementary, middle, and secondary classrooms, providing readers with direct insight into the dynamics influencing the future students they plan to teach. All 25 modules highlight diversity, emphasizing how psychological factors adapt and change based on external influences such as sex, gender, race, language, disability status, and socioeconomic background. The Fourth Edition includes over three hundred new references across all 25 modules and expanded coverage of diversity in new diversity-related research.

Teacher Evaluation in Music Cara Faith Bernard, Joseph Michael Abramo, 2019-01-04 Teacher Evaluation in Music: A Guide for Music Teachers in the U.S. aims to help music teachers navigate the controversial terrain of teacher evaluation. Rather than entering the debate on policy divorced from practice, this book is intended as a pragmatic approach to help music teachers thrive within teacher evaluation systems and as a way to improve practice. Using Shulman's concept of content knowledge, general pedagogical knowledge, and pedagogical content knowledge, this book strives to help music teachers find a balance between advocating for themselves and their programs and for using teacher evaluation to improve their teaching. The book covers history of policy and law of teacher evaluation and the competing uses of teacher evaluation to rate teachers or as a professional development tool The descriptions of policies laws and competing uses are approached in a way to help music teachers use teacher evaluation for their benefit to grow as professionals This book has chapters devoted to giving detailed and specific strategies in key areas that research has suggested music teachers struggle to implement questioning literacy differentiated instruction and assessment Complimenting these key areas are sample lesson plans which apply the strategies of questioning differentiation literacy and assessment discussed in each chapter These lessons serve as a resource and guide for teachers to develop their own lessons and improve their practice The final chapter gives guidance on how music teachers may talk to administrators and evaluators to make teacher evaluation productive Through these detailed descriptions of understanding teacher evaluation talking to evaluators and improving practice music teachers may not just survive but thrive in these systems of accountability
