Butler Chi-ming Yang,2024-12-04 An homage to the childhood genius of Black science fiction writer Octavia E Butler Bringing to view a selection of Butler s unpublished writings and drawings this book traces her fascination with human alien symbiosis to her early empathy with horses and other marginalized creatures The figure of the horse at once earthly and transcendent represented the contradictions of freedom and captivity that enabled young Octavia to develop her nuanced sense of voice and place Drawing on previously unknown archival research this volume illustrates how Butler s development as a writer was tied to her extraordinary resourcefulness and self awareness growing up as an awkward bookish Black girl in segregated Cold War Pasadena She persistently revisited and revised her early writings on teenage angst Martians Westerns and racial politics In one way or another her supernatural characters defied the constraints of gender race and class with equine inflected resilience In the spirit of Butler s passion for library research this book is comprised of twenty six short A Z chapters on vocabulary images and themes central to her authorial formation It is part childhood biography art and literary analysis and memoir It interweaves the author s personal recollections with scholarly musings on poetry film and literature inspired by Butler s encyclopedic reading habits and experiments with genre Just as cross species kinships are at the heart of her Afro futurist eco feminist storytelling Butler demonstrates that coming of age is an ongoing process and key to healing our damaged planet Flora of
