Revolutionary lives of the Red and Black Atlantic since 1917 David Featherstone,Christian Høgsbjerg,Alan Rice,2022-04-05 Revolutionary lives of the Red and Black Atlantic brings to light the life histories of a wide range of radical figures whose political activity in relation to the black liberation struggle was profoundly shaped by the global impact and legacy of the Russian Revolution of October 1917 The volume introduces new perspectives on the intellectual trajectories of well known figures and critical activists including C L R James Paul Robeson Walter Rodney and Grace P Campbell This biographical approach brings a vivid and distinctive lens to bear on how racialised social and political worlds were negotiated and experienced by these revolutionary figures and on historic black radical engagements with left political movements in the wake of the Russian Revolution Black Matrilineage, Photography, and Representation Lesly Deschler Canossi,Zoraida Lopez-Diago,2022-10-03 Black Matrilineage Photography and Representation Another Way of Knowing questions how the Black female body specifically the Black maternal body navigates interlocking structures that place a false narrative on her body and that of her maternal ancestors This volume which includes a curated selection of images addresses the complicated relationship between Blackness and photography and in particular its gendered dimension its relationship to health sexuality and digital culture primarily in the context of racialized heteronormativity With over forty contributors this volume draws on scholarly inquiry ranging from academic essays interviews poetry to documentary practice and on contemporary art Black Matrilineage Photography and Representation Another Way of Knowing thus offers a cross section of analysis on the topic of Black motherhood mothering and the participation of photography in the process This collection challenges racist images and discourses both historically and in its persistence in contemporary society while reclaiming the innate brilliance of Black women through personal narratives political acts connections to place moments of pleasure and communal celebration It serves as a reflection of the past a portal to the future and contributes to recent scholarship on the complexities of Black life and Black joy

African Americans Against the Bomb Vincent J Intondi, 2023-05-25 A well researched succinct account of African American involvement in the crusade to contain the threat of atomic warfare Highly recommended CHOICE Well before Rev Dr Martin Luther King Jr spoke out against nuclear weapons African Americans were protesting the Bomb Historians have generally ignored African Americans when studying the anti nuclear movement yet they were some of the first citizens to protest Truman s decision to drop atomic bombs in Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945 Now for the first time African Americans Against the Bomb tells the compelling story of those black activists who fought for nuclear disarmament by connecting the nuclear issue with the fight for racial equality Intondi shows that from early on blacks in America saw the use of atomic bombs as a racial issue asking why such enormous resources were being spent building nuclear arms instead of being used to improve impoverished communities Black activists fears that race played a role in the decision to deploy atomic bombs only increased when the US threatened to use nuclear weapons in Korea in the 1950s and Vietnam a decade later For black leftists in Popular Front groups the nuclear issue was connected to colonialism the US obtained uranium from the Belgian controlled Congo and the French tested their nuclear weapons in the Sahara By expanding traditional research in the history of the nuclear disarmament movement to look at black liberals clergy artists musicians and civil rights leaders Intondi reveals the links between the black freedom movement in America and issues of global peace From Langston Hughes through Lorraine Hansberry to President Obama African Americans Against the Bomb offers an eye opening account of the continuous involvement of African Americans who recognized that the rise of nuclear weapons was a threat to the civil rights of all people Praise for African Americans Against the Bomb Intondi s original research will shake the complacent assumption that the civil rights and anti nuclear movements could be segregated Intondi shows that ever since the Bomb first was dropped on people of color in 1945 African Americans have been in the forefront of the campaign to stop the deployment of nuclear weapons Brilliant Tom Hayden Director of the Peace and Justice Resource Center Dr King spoke of the need to fight against racism materialism and militarism and Intondi s stirring narrative effectively shows how nuclear disarmament was part of the broader struggle This is an important read for those who are interested in properly understanding the black freedom movement and U S foreign policy Benjamin Todd Jealous former President and CEO of the NAACP

Un-American Bill Mullen,2015-09-15 Un American is Bill Mullen s revisionist account of renowned author and activist W E B Du Bois s political thought toward the end of his life a period largely dismissed and neglected by scholars He describes Du Bois s support for what the Communist International called world revolution as the primary objective of this aged radical s activism Du Bois was a champion of the world s laboring millions and critic of the Cold War a man dedicated to animating global political revolution Mullen argues that Du Bois believed that the Cold War stalemate could create the conditions in which the world powers could achieve not only peace but workers democracy Un American shows Du Bois to be deeply engaged in international networks and personal relationships with revolutionaries in India China and Africa Mullen explores how thinkers like Karl Marx Jawaharlal Nehru Mohandas Gandhi and C L R James helped him develop a theory of world revolution at a stage in his life when most commentators regard him as marginalized This original political biography also challenges assessments of Du Bois as an American race man

Mosaic Fictions Emily Robins Sharpe,2020-04-02 Mosaic Fictions is the first book length critical analysis of Canadian Spanish Civil War literature Exploring published and archival writings the book focuses on the extensive contributions of Jewish Canadian authors as they articulate the stakes of the Spanish Civil War 1936-9 in the language of a nascent North American multiculturalism Placing Jewish Canadian writers within overlapping North American networks of Jewish Black immigrant female and queer writers challenges the national distinctions that dominate current critical approaches to Anglophone Spanish Civil War literature Reframing the narrative of Spain s noble but tragic struggle against fascism in the Spanish Civil War the book demonstrates how marginalized North American supporters of the Spanish Republic crafted narratives of inclusive citizenship amidst a national crisis not entirely their own Mosaic Fictions examines texts composed between the war s outbreak and the present to illuminate the integral connections between Canada s developing national identity and global leftist action

Fighting on the Cultural Front Hongshan Li,2024-04-09 The Cold War conflict between the United States and the People s Republic of China did not only encompass political military diplomatic and economic clashes The two powers also confronted each other on the cultural front Despite a long history of extensive and mostly constructive cultural interactions the two nations cut off existing ties in the late 1940s and early 1950s and established new relationships aimed at attacking and isolating each other Even after Beijing and Washington permitted cultural exchange as part of their effort to normalize diplomatic relations in the 1970s the weaponization of cultural interactions continued Hongshan Li provides a groundbreaking account of the confrontation between the United States and the People s Republic of China on the Cold War s cultural front He investigates the origins evolution and significance of the role of cultural interactions in the shifting relations between the United States and the PRC from the late 1940s through the late 1970s Li demonstrates that the drastic transformation of U S China cultural interactions not only altered the course of Sino American cultural relations but also shaped the Cold War experience of the two peoples

Fighting on the Cultural Front examines topics such as competition and conflicts over Chinese students and scholars stranded in the United States maneuvers on the authorization of journalistic exchanges the establishment of Taiwan as a cultural bastion and Beijing's promotion of its revolutionary ideology through individual U S citizens particularly African Americans This important book offers a new lens on the history of U S China relations and the cultural side of the global Cold War

Black Scare / Red Scare Charisse Burden-Stelly, 2023-11-14 A radical explication of the ways anti Black racial oppression has infused the US government's anti communist repression In the early twentieth century two panics emerged in the United States The Black Scare was rooted in white Americans fear of Black Nationalism and dread at what social economic and political equality of Black people might entail The Red Scare sparked by communist uprisings abroad and subversion at home established anticapitalism as a force capable of infiltrating and disrupting the American order In Black Scare Red Scare Charisse Burden Stelly meticulously outlines the conjoined nature of these state sanctioned panics revealing how they unfolded together as the United States pursued capitalist domination Antiradical repression she shows is inseparable from anti Black oppression and vice versa Beginning her account in 1917 the year of the Bolshevik Revolution the East St Louis Race Riot and the Espionage Act Burden Stelly traces the long duration of these intertwined and mutually reinforcing phenomena She theorizes two bases of the Black Scare Red Scare US Capitalist Racist Society a racially hierarchical political economy built on exploitative labor relationships and Wall Street Imperialism the violent processes by which businesses and the US government structured domestic and foreign policies to consolidate capital and racial domination In opposition Radical Blackness embodied the government's fear of both Black insurrection and Red instigation The state's actions and rhetoric therefore characterized Black anticapitalists as foreign alien and undesirable This reactionary response led to an ideology that Burden Stelly calls True Americanism the belief that the best things about America were absolutely not Red and not Black which were interchangeable threats Black Scare Red Scare illuminates the anticommunist nature of the US and its governance but also shines a light on a misunderstood tradition of struggle for Black liberation Burden Stelly highlights the Black anticapitalist organizers working within and alongside the international communist movement and analyzes the ways the Black Scare Red Scare reverberates through ongoing suppression of Black radical activism today Drawing on a range of administrative legal and archival sources Burden Stelly incorporates emancipatory ideas from several disciplines to uncover novel insights into Black political minorities and their legacy

The Second Generation of African American Pioneers in Anthropology Ira E. Harrison, Deborah Johnson-Simon, Erica Lorraine Williams, 2018-11-15 After the pioneers the second generation of African American anthropologists trained in the late 1950s and 1960s Expected to study their own or similar cultures these scholars often focused on the African diaspora but in some cases they also ranged further afield both geographically and intellectually Yet their work remains largely unknown to colleagues and students This volume collects intellectual biographies of fifteen accomplished African American

anthropologists of the era The authors explore the scholars diverse backgrounds and interests and look at their groundbreaking methodologies ethnographies and theories They also place their subjects within their tumultuous times when antiracism and anticolonialism transformed the field and the emergence of ideas around racial vindication brought forth new worldviews Scholars profiled George Clement Bond Johnnetta B Cole James Lowell Gibbs Jr Vera Mae Green John Langston Gwaltney Ira E Harrison Delmos Jones Diane K Lewis Claudia Mitchell Kernan Oliver Osborne Anselme Remy William Alfred Shack Audrey Smedley Niara Sudarkasa and Charles Preston Warren II Global Garveyism Ronald J. Stephens, Adam Ewing, 2024-10-15 Illuminating the global impact of Marcus Garvey s Black nationalist philosophy Arguing that the accomplishments of Jamaican activist Marcus Garvey and his followers have been marginalized in narratives of the Black freedom struggle this volume builds on decades of overlooked research to reveal the profound impact of Garvey s post World War I Black nationalist philosophy around the globe and across the twentieth century These essays point to the breadth of Garveyism s spread and its reception in communities across the African diaspora examining the influence of Garvey s Universal Negro Improvement Association UNIA in Africa Australia North America and the Caribbean They highlight the underrecognized work of many Garveyite women and show how the UNIA played a key role in shaping labor unions political organizations churches and schools In addition contributors describe the importance of grassroots efforts for expanding the global movement the UNIA trained leaders to organize local centers of power whose political activism outside the movement helped Garvey s message escape its organizational bounds during the 1920s They trace the imprint of the movement on long term developments such as decolonization in Africa and the Caribbean the pan Aboriginal fight for land rights in Australia the civil rights and Black Power movements in the United States and the radical pan African movement Rejecting the idea that Garveyism was a brief and misguided phenomenon this volume exposes its scope significance and endurance Together contributors assert that Garvey initiated the most important mass movement in the history of the African diaspora and they urge readers to rethink the emergence of modern Black politics with Garveyism at the center Contributors Ronald J Stephens Adam Ewing Keisha N Blain Nicole Bourbonnais Jos Andr s Fern ndez Montes de Oca John Maynard Erik S McDuffie Frances Peace Sullivan Robert Trent Vinson Michael O West Transcendence and the Africana Literary Enterprise Christel N. Temple, 2017-11-22 Africana literary critic and cultural theory scholar Christel N Temple whose groundbreaking books Literary Pan Africanism History Contexts and Criticism 2005 and Literary Spaces Introduction to Comparative Black Literature 2007 have been some of the most influential models of contemporary Africana Studies based literary criticism responds to the demand for a core disciplinary source that comprehensively defines and models literary praxis from the vantage point of Africana Studies This highly anticipated seminal study finally institutionalizes the discipline s literary enterprise Framing the concept of transcendence she covers over a dozen traditional African American works in an original and thought provoking analysis that places canonical approaches in enlightened discourse with Africana studies reader

Race Women Internationalists Imaobong D. Umoren, 2018-05-25 Race Women Internationalists explores how a group of Caribbean and African American women in the early and mid twentieth century traveled the world to fight colonialism fascism sexism and racism Based on newspaper articles speeches and creative fiction and adopting a comparative perspective the book brings together the entangled lives of three notable but overlooked women American Eslanda Robeson Martinican Paulette Nardal and Jamaican Una Marson It explores how between the 1920s and the 1960s the trio participated in global freedom struggles by traveling building networks in feminist student black led anticolonial and antifascist organizations and forging alliances with key leaders This made them race women internationalists figures who engaged with a variety of interconnected internationalisms to challenge various forms of inequality facing people of African descent across the diaspora and the continent

Beyond Respectability Brittney C. Cooper, 2017-05-03 Beyond Respectability charts the development of African American women as public intellectuals and the evolution of their thought from the end of the 1800s through the Black Power era of the 1970s Eschewing the Great Race Man paradigm so prominent in contemporary discourse Brittney C Cooper looks at the far reaching intellectual achievements of female thinkers and activists like Anna Julia Cooper Mary Church Terrell Fannie Barrier Williams Pauli Murray and Toni Cade Bambara Cooper delves into the processes that transformed these women and others into racial leadership figures including long overdue discussions of their theoretical output and personal experiences As Cooper shows their body of work critically reshaped our understandings of race and gender discourse It also confronted entrenched ideas of how and who produced racial knowledge

Concrete Demands Rhonda Y. Williams, 2014-11-27 Between the 1950s and 1970s Black Power coalesced as activists advocated a more oppositional approach to fighting racial oppression emphasizing racial pride asserting black political cultural and economic autonomy and challenging white power In Concrete Demands Rhonda Y Williams provides a rich deeply researched history that sheds new light on this important social and political movement and shows that the era of expansive Black Power politics that emerged in the 1960s had long roots and diverse trajectories within the 20th century Looking at the struggle from the grassroots level Williams highlights the role of ordinary people as well as more famous historical actors and demonstrates that women activists were central to Black Power Vivid and highly readable Concrete Demands is a perfect introduction to Black Power in the twentieth century for anyone interested in the history of black liberation movements

To Advance the Race Linda M.

Perkins,2024-04-09 From the United States earliest days African Americans considered education essential for their freedom and progress Linda M Perkins s study ranges across educational and geographical settings to tell the stories of Black women and girls as students professors and administrators Beginning with early efforts and the establishment of abolitionist colleges Perkins follows the history of Black women s post Civil War experiences at elite white schools and public universities in northern and midwestern states Their presence in Black institutions like Howard University marked another advancement as did Black women becoming professors and administrators But such progress intersected with race and education in the postwar era As gender questions sparked conflict between educated Black women and Black men it forced the former to contend with traditional notions of women s roles even as the 1960s opened educational opportunities for all African Americans A first of its kind history To Advance the Race is an enlightening look at African American women and their multi generational commitment to the ideal of education as a collective achievement
