As a creature of magic, she can take care of herself. So the fact that she was sent away before the dragon attack? Well, it's just plain stupid. But even more ridiculous. That her little trip to safety takes her down a path full of danger and naked Shifters claiming her as their own. Caught between two rival wolf packs, she quickly chooses a side. But when her pack is on the losing end, will her magic and their strength be enough to stop impossible odds? Or has this stubborn heroine finally met her match?
