who came to campus and found segregation and racial stereotypes even after some of them had fought a war for freedom. This mixture of students blended together on the college campuses of America in the late 1940s and exploded into the world in 1950. Journalist John Norberg's illuminating oral history allows members of Purdue University's Class of 1950 to tell their stories in their own words. This is a narrative that will hold special interest for those with Purdue or West Lafayette ties but its scope is broad enough to interest a wider population.
