Theoharis,K. Woodard,2016-03-05 The civil rights movement occupies a prominent place in popular thinking and scholarly work on post 1945 U S history Yet the dominant narrative of the movement remains that of a nonviolent movement born in the South during the 1950s that emerged triumphant in the early 1960s only to be derailed by the twin forces of Black Power and white backlash when it sought to move outside the South after 1965 African American protest and political movements outside the South appear as ancillary and subsequent to the real movement in the South despite the fact that black activism existed in the North Midwest and West in the 1940s and persisted well into the 1970s This book brings together new scholarship on black social movements outside the South to rethink the civil rights narrative and the place of race in recent history Each chapter focuses on a different location and movement outside the South revealing distinctive forms of U S racism according to place and the varieties of tactics and ideologies that community members used to attack these inequalities to show that the civil rights movement was indeed a national movement for racial justice and liberation A Manual for the Constitutional Convention, 1917 Massachusetts.  Idleness, Contemplation and the Aesthetic, 1750-1830 Richard Adelman,2011-05-26 Reconstructing the literary and philosophical reaction to Adam Smith s dictum that man is a labouring animal above and before all else this study explores the many ways in which Romantic writers presented idle contemplation as the central activity in human life By contrasting the British response to Smith s political economy with that of contemporary German Idealists Richard Adelman also uses this consideration of the importance of idleness to Romantic aesthetics to chart the development of a distinctly British idealism in the last decades of the eighteenth century Exploring the work of Adam Smith Jeremy Bentham Friedrich Schiller William Cowper Samuel Taylor Coleridge Mary Wollstonecraft and many of their contemporaries this study pinpoints a debate over human activity and capability taking place between 1750 and 1830 and considers its social and political consequences for the cultural theory of the early nineteenth century
