Unapologetic Charlene Carruthers,2018-08-28 A manifesto from one of America's most influential activists which disrupts political economic and social norms by reimagining the Black Radical Tradition Drawing on Black intellectual and grassroots organizing traditions including the Haitian Revolution the US civil rights movement and LGBTQ rights and feminist movements Unapologetic challenges all of us engaged in the social justice struggle to make the movement for Black liberation more radical more queer and more feminist This book provides a vision for how social justice movements can become sharper and more effective through principled struggle healing justice and leadership development It also offers a flexible model of what deeply effective organizing can be anchored in the Chicago model of activism which features long term commitment cultural sensitivity creative strategizing and multiple cross group alliances And Unapologetic provides a clear framework for activists committed to building transformative power encouraging young people to see themselves as visionaries and leaders Death beyond Disavowal Grace Kyungwon Hong,2015-10-01 Death beyond Disavowal utilizes difference as theorized by women of color feminists to analyze works of cultural production by people of color as expressing a powerful antidote to the erasures of contemporary neoliberalism According to Grace Kyungwon Hong neoliberalism is first and foremost a structure of disavowal enacted as a reaction to the successes of the movements for decolonization desegregation and liberation of the post World War II era It emphasizes the selective and uneven affirmation and incorporation of subjects and ideas that were formerly categorically marginalized particularly through invitation into reproductive respectability It does so in order to suggest that racial gendered and sexualized violence and inequity are conditions of the past rather than the foundations of contemporary neoliberalism's exacerbation of premature death Neoliberal ideologies hold out the promise of protection from premature death in exchange for complicity with this pretense In Audre Lorde's Sister Outsider Cherríe Moraga's The Last Generation and Waiting in the Wings Oscar Zeta Acosta's The Revolt of the Cockroach People Ana Castillo's So Far from God Gayl Jones's Corregidora Isaac Julien's Looking for Langston Inge Blackman's B D Women Rodney Evans's Brother to Brother and the work of the late Barbara Christian Death beyond

Disavowal finds the memories of death and precarity that neoliberal ideologies attempt to erase Hong posits cultural production as a compelling rejoinder to neoliberalism's violences She situates women of color feminism often dismissed as narrow or limited in its effect as a potent diagnosis of and alternative to such violences And she argues for the importance of women of color feminism to any critical engagement with contemporary neoliberalism Great Thinkers and Doers

Teresa Zackodnik, 2025-07-01 A corrective history of the essential role that Black women played in the early Black press In Great Thinkers and Doers Teresa Zackodnik looks at the vital and largely overlooked role of Black women readers writers and editors in the development of the Black press in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Understanding the relationship between the Black press and Black women's political and community organizing helps illuminate how important Black women were to this media phenomenon in its first one hundred years In the nineteenth century Zackodnik reveals the Black press was second only to the Black church in its centrality to Black politics and communities but histories of its development have long credited its founding and development to the Black men who were its editors Despite their underrepresentation in the leadership of Black public politics and the Black press women were overrepresented in the mutual benevolent moral improvement and literary societies that functioned as community centers of political oratorical and print culture work These societies supplied the Black press with content a readership and distribution nodes in Black communities throughout the nation Zackodnik examines the vital opportunity that this networking of the Black press with literary societies offered Black women readers to enter Black print space and advance communal goals She also explores how Black women gained a foothold within publications often initially with gateway genres such as letters to the editor and women's columns and shaped the Black press This book will change how we understand the early Black press and overlooked Black feminist print practices Black Protest Thought and Education William Henry Watkins, 2005
