Handbook on Equal Treatment for Men and Women in the European Community Junia Pais Macedo van Overbeek, 1995 Verzameling Nederlandse Wetgeving, 2007 European Union Non-Discrimination Law Dagmar Schiek, Victoria Chege, 2009-06-02 EU equality law is multidimensional in being based on different rationales and concepts Consequently the concept of discrimination has become fragmented with different instruments envisaging different scopes of protection This raises questions as to the ability of EU law to address the situation of persons excluded on a number of grounds This edited collection addresses the increasing complexity of European Equality Law from jurisprudential sociological and political science perspectives Internationally renowned researchers from Scandinavian Continental and Central European countries and Britain analyse consequences of multiplying discrimination grounds within EU equality law considering its multidimensionality and intersectionality The contributors to the volume theorise the move from formal to substantive equality law and its interrelation to new forms of governance demonstrating the specific combination of non discrimination law with welfare state models which reveal the global implications of the European Union The book will be of interest to academics and policy makers all over the world in particular to those researching and studying law political sciences and sociology with an interest in human rights non discrimination law contract and employment law or European studies

The Price of Gender Equality Anna van der Vleuten, 2016-02-17 This thoroughly researched well documented book presents a theoretically guided empirical analysis of developing and implementing gender equality policies in the European Union EU In spite of a wealth of research many questions have long remained unanswered and these are addressed here The author developed an international relations theoretical framework in order to explain the changing fortunes of women s activism the changing attitudes of European institutions and the behaviour of member states in a multi level setting The book traces the history and development of EU gender policy to the present day and will be inspirational reading for those interested in European governance and the European Union as well as gender issues and political sociology

EU Non-Discrimination Law in the Courts Jule Mulder, 2017-01-12 Since the year 2000 the material and personal scope of EU non discrimination law has been significantly broadened and has challenged national courts to introduce a comprehensive equality framework into their national law to correspond with the European standard The book provides a multi layered culturally informed comparison of juridical approaches to EU in direct sex and sexualities discrimination and its implementation in Germany and the Netherlands It examines how and why national courts apply national non discrimination law with a European origin differently although the legislation derives from the same set of EU law and the national courts have to respect the interpretive competence of the CJEU The book provides valuable insights into the national and European context which shape the dialogue and influences of the courts inter se the national application of EU law and the harmonisation process within the area of gender equality law and beyond A Dutch and German comparison is of special interest here because both countries approaches towards non discrimination law are quite different despite the similarities in the respective legal systems they are founding members of the EU they are neighbours they are civil law countries and their legal systems are relatively similar at least compared to Scandinavian and common law jurisdictions Therefore the different reception EU non discrimination law cannot simply be explained by obvious differences between the legal systems Their comparison thus provides an interesting case study to uncover legal and non legal cultural and historic factors which influence the application of EU non discrimination law in both countries The book is of interest for EU comparative and equality lawyers

Anti-Discrimination Law in Civil Law Jurisdictions Barbara Havelková, Mathias Möschel, 2019-12-12 This collection of essays explores the evolution of anti discrimination law in European civil law jurisdictions Historically scholarship in this area has focused on the common law which has also taken the lead in developing the theory and practice of anti discrimination law This volume breaks new ground by offering a sustained critical legal and socio legal comparative look at how anti discrimination is faring in European civil law environments While it is true that anti discrimination law is seen as a foreign transplant in some regions it does not fare poorly across the board As shown by the case studies herein the success of anti discrimination law is found to vary according to its national context the actors involved and the evolution of the particular concept or ground of discrimination in question

Judicial Review in Equal Treatment Cases Janneke Gerards, 2005-05-01 In this study an assessment model is developed to guide courts in deciding equal treatment cases Such a model appears to be indispensable since relevant equality provisions often do not offer much guidance as to the assessment of unequal treatment This lack of guidance may lead to diverging approaches and outcomes which is undesirable from the perspective of equality and legal certainty The use of the assessment model developed in this study will improve judicial reasoning and enhance the legitimacy of equal treatment case law The general assessment model developed in this study is based on theoretical research after the standards that should be used in assessing cases against the principle of equal treatment supplemented by an elaborate comparative analysis of the equal treatment case law in various legal systems The result of this approach is the design of an assessment model that is both theoretically sound and workable in practice The Dutch edition of this book has been awarded with the Erasmus Study Prize 2003 the Max van der Stoep Human Rights Prize and the Constitutional Law Prize Sports Law in The Netherlands Steven F.H. Jellinghaus, Jolande M.M. Janssen, Dennis Schwartz, Harry van Drongelen, 2022-01-21 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of sports law in The Netherlands deals with the regulation of sports activity by both public authorities and private sports organizations The growing internationalization of sports inevitably increases the weight of global regulation yet each country maintains its own distinct regime of sports law and its own national and local sports organizations Sports law at a national or organizational level thus gains a growing relevance in comparative law The book describes and discusses both state created rules and autonomous self regulation regarding the variety of economic social commercial cultural and political aspects of sports activities Self regulation manifests itself in the form of by laws and encompasses organizational provisions disciplinary rules and rules of play However the trend towards more professionalism in sports and the growing economic social and cultural relevance of sports have prompted an increasing reliance on legal rules adopted by public authorities This form of regulation appears in a variety of legal areas including criminal law labour law commercial law tax law competition law and tort law and may vary following a particular type or sector of sport It is in this dual and overlapping context that such much publicized aspects as doping sponsoring and media and responsibility for injuries are legally measured This monograph fills a gap in the legal literature by giving academics practitioners sports organizations and policy makers access to sports law at this specific level Lawyers representing parties with interests in The Netherlands will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative sports law In haar recht Eva Schandevyl, Sophie Bollen, Machteld de Metsenaere, 2009 De rechtsfaculteiten leiden steeds meer vrouwelijke juristen op In dit onderzoek wordt ingegaan op de effecten van de vervrouwelijking van de rechterlijke macht Aan de orde komen verschillende aspecten van de wisselwerking tussen vrouwen en gelijke rechten en moderne rechtspraak in hun onderlinge samenhang Jaarboek van de vrouw 1992, 1993 Bundeling van enkele voor vrouwen belangrijke gebeurtenissen of trends zoals die zich hebben voorgedaan in 1992 Aan de orde komen o a kinderopvang nachtarbeid migrantenvrouwen echtscheiding vrouwenhandel arbeid criminaliteit onderwijs sport Tevens een artikel over de vrouw in de Europese Gemeenschap 1992
