Gender, Family and Economy Rae Lesser Blumberg, 1991 The triple overlap refers to the link between gender stratification the household and economic variables In this volume leading sociologists examine this overlap as a totality providing theoretical concepts and new research on how the triple overlap works both inside the family and within the broader context of society Their competing conceptions of the interrelationship of gender family and economy are bolstered by empirical papers which raise questions of culture class and race within the contexts of both the developed and developing worlds Six of the articles in this volume were previously published as a Special Issue of Journal of Family Issues Couples' Transitions to Parenthood Daniela Grunow, Marie Evertsson, 2016-10-28 It is common for European couples living fairly egalitarian lives to adopt a traditional division of labour at the transition to parenthood Based on in depth interviews with 334 parents to be in eight European countries this book explores the implications of family policies and gender culture from the perspective of couples who are expecting their first child Couples Transitions to Parenthood Analysing Gender and Work in Europe is the first comparative qualitative study that explicitly locates couples parenting ideals and plans in the wider context of national institutions Reinventing Gender Eva Kolinsky, Hildegard Maria Nickel, 2003 Since the unification of the DDR and the GDR women living in the former East Germany have lost many of the advantages that came with a planned economy This collection of essays examines the reinvented meaning of gender and the experience of East German women since unification Proceedings of the Regional Seminar on Satellite Communication Applications for Distance Education, 1998 Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
