The Universal Declaration of Human Rights Humberto Cantu Rivera, 2023-12-18 The adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR on 10 December 1948 by the United Nations General Assembly marked a groundbreaking moment in the field of international law Not only would it start to move away from its original conception as an exclusively State centered domain it would also mark the progressive transformation of international law into a law for humankind This instrument started a codification and institution building process that would slowly evolve into a complex framework of treaties bodies and procedures revolving around the protection of the human being against the actions or omissions of the State This commentary provides a specific analysis and reflection of how each one of the rights enshrined therein have evolved over time Small-scale fisheries and the human right to adequate food Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2021-06-04 The adoption of Voluntary Guidelines to Support the Progressive Realization of the Right to Adequate Food in the Context of National Food Security Right to Food Guidelines in 2004 and the Voluntary Guidelines for Securing Sustainable Small Scale Fisheries in the Context of Food Security and Poverty Eradication SSF Guidelines in 2014 were two major achievements in the effort to ensure food security and nutrition This handbook has been developed to support the joint implementation of the SSF Guidelines and the Right to Food Guidelines through an integrated approach and to increase policy coherence and uptake The document provides an overview of the contents of these voluntary guidelines and identifies potential synergies It also explains the human rights based approach and discusses some crucial areas with special attention to the specific roles and responsibilities of key actors This document is primarily directed at those involved in the integration of the SSF Guidelines and the Right to Food Guidelines into national policies and development programmes targeting the small scale fisheries sector in the context of food security and nutrition However it can be equally interesting to other stakeholders who take part in the implementation of the provisions of both instruments in their day to day activities and who are concerned with the sustainability of the small scale fisheries sector The adoption of the Right to Food Guidelines in 2004 and the SSF Guidelines in 2014 were two major achievements in the effort to ensure food security and nutrition The Right to Food Guidelines, Democracy and Citizen Participation Katharine S. E. Cresswell Riol,2016-11-10 It is now more than a decade since the Right to Food Guidelines were negotiated agreed and adopted internationally by states This book provides a review of its objectives and the extent of success of its implementation The focus is on the first key guideline Democracy good governance human rights and the rule of law with an emphasis on civil society participation in global food governance The five BRICS countries Brazil Russia India China and South Africa are presented as case studies representing major emerging economies they blur the line between the Global North and South and exhibit different levels of human rights realisation The book first provides an overview of the right to adequate food accountability and democracy and an introduction to the history of the development of the right to adequate food and the Right to Food Guidelines It presents a historical synopsis of each of the BRICS states experiences with the right to adequate food and an analysis of their related periodic reporting to the Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights as well as a specific assessment of their progress in regard to the first guideline The discussion then focuses on the effectiveness of the Right to Food Guidelines as both a policy making and monitoring tool based on the analysis of the guidelines and the BRICS states Human Rights and the Food Sovereignty Movement Priscilla

Claeys,2015-01-09 Our global food system is undergoing rapid change Since the global food crisis of 2007 2008 a range of new issues have come to public attention such as land grabbing food prices volatility agrofuels and climate change Peasant social movements are trying to respond to these challenges by organizing from the local to the global to demand food sovereignty As the transnational agrarian movement La Via Campesina celebrates its 20th anniversary this book takes stock of the movement s achievements and reflects on challenges for the future It provides an in depth analysis of the movement s vision and strategies and shows how it has contributed not only to the emergence of an alternative development paradigm but also of an alternative conception of human rights The book assesses efforts to achieve the international recognition of new human rights for peasants at the international level namely the right to food sovereignty and peasants rights It explores why La Via Campesina was successful in mobilizing a human rights discourse in its struggle against neoliberalism and also the limitations and potential pitfalls of using the human rights framework The book shows that to inject subversive potential in their rights based claims rural social activists developed an alternative conception of rights that is more plural less statist less individualistic and more multi cultural than dominant conceptions of human rights Further they deployed a combination of institutional from above and extrainstitutional from below strategies to demand new rights and reinforce grassroots mobilization through rights

Research Handbook on Feminist Engagement with International Law Susan Harris Rimmer,Kate Ogg, For almost 30 years scholars and advocates have been exploring the interaction and potential between the rights and well being of women and the promise of international law This collection posits that the next frontier for international law is increasing its relevance beneficence and impact for women in the developing world and to deal with a much wider range of issues through a feminist lens

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Food Issues Ken Albala,2015 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Food Issues explores the topic of food across multiple disciplines within the social sciences and related areas including business consumerism marketing and environmentalism In contrast to the existing reference works on the topic of food that tend to fall into the categories of cultural perspectives this carefully balanced academic encyclopedia focuses on social and policy aspects of food production safety regulation labeling marketing distribution and consumption A sampling of general topic areas covered includes Agriculture Labor Food Processing Marketing and Advertising Trade and Distribution Retail and Shopping Consumption Food Ideologies Food in Popular Media Food Safety Environment Health Government Policy and Hunger and Poverty This encyclopedia introduces students to the fascinating and at times contentious and ever so vital field involving food issues

Food Regulation and Criminal Justice Nieto Martín,Ligeia Quackelbeen,Michele Simonato,2017-06-09 This issue is the first milestone on the way to the XXth AIDP World Congress dedica ted to Criminal Justice and Corporate Business It brings together key proceedings of the International Colloquium on Food Regulation and Criminal Justice organised by the Chinese group of the AIPD in Beijing on September 23rd 26th 2016 The volume contains the resolutions adopted in Beijing the general report four transversal articles and several national reports It offers a broad overview of the main challenges raised by contemporary food regulation as well as various responses provided by criminal law around the globe. The contributions deal with issues concerning food security, food safety and food fraud. They pay particular attention to the international dimension, the interaction with administrative enforcement mechanisms and the increasing relevance of self-regulation. The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Global Security Studies, 2023-02-15. This encyclopedia provides an authoritative guide intended for students of all levels of studies, offering multidisciplinary insight and analysis of over 500 headwords covering the main concepts of Security and Non-traditional Security and their relation to other scholarly fields and aspects of real-world issues in the contemporary geopolitical world. Research Handbook on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights as Human Rights Jackie Dugard, Bruce Porter, Daniela Ikawa, Lilian Chenwi, 2020-10-30. This exciting Research Handbook combines practitioner and academic perspectives to provide a comprehensive cutting-edge analysis of economic, social and cultural rights (ESCR) as well as the connection between ESCR and other rights. Offering an authoritative analysis of standards and jurisprudence, it argues for an expansive and inclusive approach to ESCR as human rights. Neoliberal Bodies and the Gendered Fat Body Hannele Harjunen, 2016-08-25. In recent decades, the rise of the so-called global obesity epidemic has led to fatness and fat bodies being debated incessantly in popular, professional and academic arenas. Fatness and fat bodies are shamed and demonised, and the public monitoring, surveillance and outright policing by the media, health professionals and the general public are pervasive and socially accepted. In Neoliberal Bodies and the Gendered Fat Body, Hannele Harjunen claims that neoliberal economic policy and rationale are enmeshed with conceptions of body, gender and health in a profound way in contemporary western culture. She explores the relationships between fatness, health and neoliberal discourse and the role of economic policy in the construction of the gendered fat body and examines how neoliberal discourses join patriarchal and biomedical constructions of the fat female body. In neoliberal culture, the fat body is not just the unhealthy body one finds in medical discourse but also the body that is costly, unproductive and inefficient, failing in the crucial task of self-management. With an emphasis on how neoliberal governmentality in its many forms affects the fat body and contributes to its vilification, this book is essential reading for scholars of feminist thought, sociology, cultural studies and social theory with interests in the body, gender and the effects of neoliberal discourse on social attitudes. Achieving food system resilience & equity in the era of global environmental change Albie F. Miles, Valarie Blue Bird Jernigan, Philip Dobie, Anja Gassner, Casey Hoy, Noa Kekuewa Lincoln, Kathleen Merrigan, Jennifer Sowerwine, Samina Raja, 2023-02-27. Transnational Food Security Emily Webster, Ankita Gupta, Ruth Ambros, 2020-06-09. Transnational Food Security addresses food security from an international relations, political economy and legal perspective, analysing the relationship between food security and the environment and climate change, trade, finance and contracts, and the intersection between food and human rights. The topic of food concerns one of the most basic and profound aspects of human survival. Universal and equal access to food is at the same time ridden with problems of power inequality distribution and implicated in old and new geopolitical conflicts As such food and food security are central to conditions of poverty and hunger development and modernisation transitional justice and rule of law reform around the world As a problem of critique and scholarly inquiry food prompts an inter disciplinary assessment of the nature of food security in the modern world The contributors to this book take us deep into the complexity of food and illustrate the challenges of adequately understanding and approaching questions of food security and food sovereignty in a globally interconnected world Transnational Food Security will be of great interest to scholars of international relations political economy and transnational law The chapters were originally published as a special issue of Transnational Legal Theory Journal

Fifteen years implementing the Right to Food Guidelines Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2019-09-26 The Right to Food Guidelines provide practical guidance on ways to implement the right to adequate food in a wide range of policy and programmes areas through a human rights based approach Since the adoption of the Right to Food Guidelines FAO and its partners have produced a wealth of tools strengthened capacity and facilitated multi stakeholder dialogues worldwide But the goal of realizing the right to food of everyone is not accomplished yet over 820 million people are currently suffering from chronic hunger This fifteen Year Retrospective on the Right to Food Guidelines helps us look back and understand what has worked and why where the bottlenecks lie and how governments and their partners can be most effective in the fight against hunger and malnutrition

Women's Magazines in Print and New Media Noliwe Rooks, Victoria Pass, Ayana Weekley, 2016-10-14 This book contributes to our collective understanding of the significance of representations of women and gender in magazines in both their print and online forms The essays are authored by scholars writers and cultural producers in fields such as art film and visual studies literature critical race studies communications broadcast and print journalism history and women and gender studies Taken as a whole the volume offers historical breadth and perspectives that are transnational and cross racial on women in magazines and digital media in a variety of ways It examines how women are represented how women have created and produced magazines and how women make meaning of themselves and their world using magazines as key sources of information

Gendering the Memory of Work Maria Tamboukou, 2016-07-07 This book explores gendered aspects in the memory of work by looking at auto biographical narratives and political writings of women workers in the garment industry The author draws on cutting edge theoretical approaches and insights in memory studies neo materialism and discourse analysis particularly looking at entanglements and intra actions between places bodies and objects Tamboukou aims to enrich our appreciation of the role of women s labour history in the wider realm of cultural memory as well as in the politics of women s work The book addresses a significant gap in the literature by focusing on the memory of work from a gendered perspective It also examines the relationship between workspaces and personal spaces the intimate intense and often invisible ways through which workers occupy workspaces and populate them with their ideas emotions beliefs habits and everyday practices The book will be a theoretical and methodological toolbox for students and researchers in the interface of the social sciences and the humanities as well as a vital resource in women's labour history. It will be particularly relevant for sociologists, cultural theorists, feminist scholars and social historians.

Sustainable Diets Barbara Burlingame, Sandro Dernini, 2018-12-10. This book takes a transdisciplinary approach and considers multisectoral actions integrating health, agriculture, environment, economy and socio-cultural issues to comprehensively explore the topic of sustainable diets. Consideration is given to the multi-dimensional nature of diets and food systems and the book explores the challenging issues connecting food security and nutrition to sustainability, culture, tradition and a broader range of scientific topics. The first section, Grand Challenges, chapters 1-9 positions sustainable diets in the multi-perspective context of food systems. Within the current international debate, it introduces some overarching wicked problems resistant to resolution in spite of the dire consequences of inaction. The chapters cover multi-sectoral policy, public health, sustainable food systems, climate change, biodiversity loss, agro-ecology, indigenous peoples, the role of cities and food and waste. The contributions in the second section, Qualitative and Quantitative Approaches, chapters 10-17 discuss the topic of sustainable diets from different cultural, sectoral and disciplinary angles. The issues are analysed with data and methods derived from social sciences, clinical sciences and experimental sciences. Perspectives and solutions with evidence are presented to underpin policies and interventions. The last section, Moving Forward, chapters 18-29 deals with selected innovations, initiatives, projects, case studies and programmes enhancing sustainable diets by linking nutrition to food systems.

The Irish Yearbook of International Law, Volume 16, 2021-2022 Bríd Ní Ghráinne, James Gallen, Richard Collins, 2025-02-06. The Irish Yearbook of International Law supports research into Ireland's practice in international affairs and foreign policy, filling a gap in existing legal scholarship. This new volume covers the years 2021 and 2022, including global events such as the COVID-19 pandemic, Brexit, fall out, the Taliban's return to power in Afghanistan, a civil war in Ethiopia, protests in Iran and Russia's unlawful invasion of Ukraine. Reports also cover topics on human rights in Ireland, the law of the sea, the exploitation of mineral resources of celestial bodies by private enterprises and the protection of the right to food among others. Additionally, the book includes four book reviews covering a range of international law subjects such as international economic law, colonialism and the protection of animals in armed conflict.

Human Rights and Standard of Living in Sub-Saharan Africa Augustine Edobor Arimoro, 2025-02-18. This book offers a comprehensive and nuanced examination of the right to an adequate standard of living in Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA), shedding light on the multifaceted challenges, opportunities and imperatives for action. The right to an adequate standard of living is a fundamental human right essential for the dignity and well-being of all individuals. Yet in SSA, the realisation of this right remains a complex and elusive goal, with millions of people facing poverty, inequality and limited access to basic services. Through a series of in-depth chapters, the book explores the various dimensions of the right to an adequate standard of living, from the pervasive impacts of poverty and inequality to the critical importance of access to healthcare education housing and justice Drawing on a rich array of case studies data and expert analysis the work provides a compelling and evidence based assessment of the current state of affairs in SSA highlighting the urgent need for comprehensive and context specific approaches to advancing this fundamental right Providing a roadmap for promoting sustainable and inclusive development reducing poverty and inequality and ensuring access to basic services for all the volume offers a set of actionable recommendations for policymakers practitioners and researchers working in the areas of Human Rights Law Development Law and in particular those focused on the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals At the same time it identifies key areas for further research and investigation underscoring the importance of ongoing knowledge generation and exchange in support of evidence based policy and practice
