Gender Budgets Make Cents Understanding Gender Responsive Budgets:

Gender Budgets Make Cents, 2002 A gender responsive budget GRB is one which takes into consideration the effect of government revenue and expenditure policies on both women and men This publication provides a comprehensive understanding of GRB initiatives and will be invaluable to governments NGOs donors and other agencies working to integrate a gender analysis into public expenditure policies and budgets Divided into four sections the book provides a conceptual and theoretical framework traces the evolution of work in this area assesses the role of different stakeholders and highlights lessons learned to date A profile of known activities at country level shows how gender responsive budgets have been used as a pivotal tool with which to assess budgetary performance and impact Gender Budgets Make More Cents Debbie Budlender, Guy Hewitt, 2002 Comprises ten papers which document good practice in gender budget work from across the globe Gender Budgets Make Cents Debbie Budlender, 2002 Discusses a conceptual framework and outcomes of gender responsive budget initiatives which provide a mechanism to integrate a gender analysis into public expenditure policies and budgets The GMS Toolkit Commonwealth Secretariat, 2004 The Gender Management System GMS is a holistic approach to gender mainstreaming The Commonwealth Secretariat has produced a series of reference manuals to assist governments and others in mainstreaming gender using the GMS This Toolkit will enable people to put these manuals into practice by providing a range of tools to make them more accessible The Toolkit contains Action Guide Change Management Briefing Training Kit CD ROM of GMS manuals It will be useful to people with responsibility for action on gender in government stakeholder organizations Middle East and Central Asia Ms. Lisa Kolovich, Sakina Shibuya, 2016-08-20 Gender budgeting uses fiscal policies to promote gender equality and women's advancement but is struggling to take hold in the Middle East and Central Asia We provide an overview of two gender budgeting efforts in the region Morocco and Afghanistan Achievements in these two countries include increasing female primary and secondary education enrollment rates and reducing maternal mortality But the region not only needs to use fiscal policies for women's advancement but also reform tax and financial laws enforce laws that assure women's safety in public and change laws that prevent women from taking advantage of employment opportunities Gender Impacts of Revenue Collection in Uganda Nite Tanzarn, 2008 Gender responsive budgeting is a key instrument to track how governments are investing in advancing gender equality and equity While most studies of gender responsive budgeting work so far have examined the expenditure side of the budget the revenue side is equally important In this Economic Paper Nite Tanzarn looks at the revenue and tax system in Uganda a country that has moved from analysis to action in gender responsive budgeting This case study will show policy makers in ministries of finance worldwide how government revenue collection practices affect men and women differently and how to build an awareness of gender into financial policy Gender Impacts of Revenue Collection in India Nirmala Banerjee, 2008 Studies on gender sensitive budgeting have concentrated on the expenditure side of government budgets

Through a case study from India Nirmala Banerjee explores the other side of the budget taxes and other means of raising revenue By highlighting the relative effects of changes in taxation policy on men and on women this study will help to raise awareness of gender among those responsible for planning the tax system in India and elsewhere Understanding

Gender in the African Context Kurebwa, Jeffrey,2020-04-10 One of the most significant dimensions of gender studies is that it is political It raises questions about power in society and how and why power is differentially distributed between different genders It asks questions about who has power over whom in which situations how power is exercised and how it is and can be challenged Different theories and perspectives within gender studies have different approaches to these questions and look for answers in different social processes Many debates are on going as new data is revealed and new theories are put forth Understanding Gender in the African Context is a scholarly reference that explores the complexities of the ideologies and social patterns that contribute to the field of gender studies Featuring a range of topics such as human rights feminism and social media this book is ideal for policymakers sociologists social scientists civil society organizations government officials academicians researchers and students The Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa: a commentary Celestine Nyamu Musembi ,Trésor Muhindo Makunya,2023-08-28

The first in a series of PULP commentaries on African human rights law under the series title PULP Commentaries on African human rights law Since its adoption on 11 July 2003 the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa the Maputo Protocol has become a landmark on the African human rights landscape It has steadily gained prominence as a trail blazing instrument responsive to the diverse realities of women on the African continent This comprehensive Commentary on the Maputo Protocol the first of its kind provides systematic analysis of each article of the Protocol delving into the drafting history and elaborating on relevant key concepts and normative standards This Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in the Maputo Protocol such as researchers teachers students practitioners policymakers and activists Routledge Handbook of Public Policy in the Global South Gedion
