Women, Peace and Security Joan Johnson-Freese,2023-12-01 This book offers an accessible overview of the issues related to the Women Peace and Security WPS global agenda This new edition has been updated and includes new chapters on WPS and Environmental Change and on WPS in Regional and Security Organizations The 2nd edition provides explains Women Peace and Security as a security framework different though related to both gender equality as a social justice issue or a Diversity Equity and Inclusion issue Within the context of the changing nature of warfare a complex and volatile global political climate and through consideration of empirical evidence it examines the definitions theoretical underpinnings and methodological challenges associated with implementing WPS It then discusses with more specificity violence against women women civilians in war the role of women in peacemaking women in the military and in development and women politicians with new material on environmental change and on regional and security organisations Examples and case studies draw from Africa Asia the Middle East Europe and North and South America The need for more sex disaggregated data on every topic is emphasized throughout necessary to both demonstrate relationships between gender and security and to identify solutions to problems The book concludes with a look to the future and number of action items from the macro to the micro level This book will be of much interest to students of peace studies security studies gender studies and IR as well as professional military college students

War, Women and Post-conflict Empowerment Josephine Beoku-Betts,Fredline A. M'Cormack-Hale,2022-01-13 Since the 1991 2002 civil conflict ended in Sierra Leone the country has failed to translate the accomplishments of women s involvement in bringing the war to an end into meaningful political empowerment This is in marked contrast to other post conflict countries which have increased the political participation of women in elected and appointed office increased the representation of women in leadership positions and enacted constitutional reforms promoting women s rights Written by Sierra Leonean and Africanist scholars and experts from a broad range of disciplines this unique volume analyses the historical and contextual factors influencing women s political economic and social development in the country In drawing on a diverse array of case studies from health to education refugees to international donors the contradictions successes and challenges of women s lives in a post conflict environment are revealed making this an essential book for anyone involved in women and development

Female Combatants after Armed Struggle Niall Gilmartin,2018-12-07 This book stems from a simple feminist curiosity that can be succinctly summed up into a single question what happens to combatant women after the war Based on in depth interviews with 40 research participants mostly former combatants within the Irish Republican Army IRA this book offers a critical exploration of republican women and conflict transition in the North of Ireland Drawing on the feminist theory of a continuum of violence this book finds that the dichotomous separation of war and peace within conventional approaches represents a gendered fiction Despite undertaking wartime roles that were empowering agentic and subversive this book finds that the post conflict moment as experienced by female combatants represents not peace and security but a continuity of gender discrimination violence injustice and insecurity The experiences and perspectives contained in this book challenge the discursive deployment of terms such as post conflict peace and security and moreover shed light on the many forms of post war activism undertaken by combatant women in pursuit of peace equality and security The book represents an important intervention in the field of gender political violence and peace and more specifically female combatants and conflict transition It is analytically significant in its exploration of the ways in which gender operates within non state military movements emerging from conflict and will be of interest to students and scholars alike

The Gender and Security

Agenda Chantal de Jonge Oudraat, Michael E. Brown, 2020-05-27 This book examines the gender dimensions of a wide array of national and international security challenges The volume examines gender dynamics in ten issue areas in both the traditional and human security sub fields armed conflict post conflict terrorism military organizations movement of people development environment humanitarian emergencies human rights governance The contributions show how gender affects security and how security problems affect gender issues Each chapter also examines a common set of key factors across the issue areas obstacles to progress drivers of progress and long term strategies for progress in the 21st century The volume develops key scholarship on the gender dimensions of security challenges and thereby provides a foundation for improved strategies and policy directions going forward The lesson to be drawn from this study is clear if scholars policymakers and citizens care about these issues then they need to think about both security and gender This will be of much interest to students of gender studies security studies human security and International Relations in general The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Risks, Identity and Conflict Steven Ratuva, Hamdy A.

Hassan, Radomir Compel, 2021-07-01 This volume explores the complex interrelation between risk identity and conflict and focuses specifically on ethnicity culture religion and gender as modes of identity that are often associated with conflict in the contemporary world It draws on theoretical perspectives as well as pays special attention to analysis of diverse case studies from Africa Middle East Europe East and Southeast Asia and Latin America Using various analytical tools and methodologies it provides unique narratives of local and regional social risk factors and security complexities The relationship between risk and security is multidimensional and perpetually changing and lends itself to multiple interpretations This publication provides a new ground for theoretical and policy debates to unlock innovative understanding of risk through analyses of identity as a significant factor in conflict in the world today At the same time it explores ways to address such conflicts in a more people centered empowering and sustainable way Peace and Security Elizabeth Porter, Anuradha Mundkur, 2012 Offering a broad overview of what is being done in conflict affected countries to advance women's participation in peace processes peace building and decision making this record examines the implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 on Women Peace and Security and presents evidence based case studies from East Timor Fiji and Sri Lanka As it explores ways to protect women and girls from violence it suggests key actions that should be taken by development agencies women's nongovernmental organizations and policymakers The book focuses on the following fundamental aspects a specifically feminist methodology a priority on gender equality and women's empowerment and the broad notions of human security and peace building

Women Representation in Governance in Nigeria Prof. Abubakar O. Sulaiman, 2025-06-16 Despite accounting for 49.47% of the Nigerian population progress towards gender equity and women's empowerment in Nigeria has remained low in contrast to the Sustainable Development Goals SDG Target 5.5 In light of this NILDS under the leadership of Prof Abubakar O Sulaiman and with support from the management of the National Assembly is creating a platform for intellectual discourse and engagements on women socio economic and political empowerment The NILDS International Conference on Women in Governance provided a platform for experts government officials policymakers and other relevant stakeholder across Africa to discuss the challenges that women face in political participation and governance in Nigeria and Africa at large This ultimately led to this evidence based scientific reader that contributes to the corpus of literature in Africa

The Oxford Handbook of Women, Peace and Security Sara E. Davies, Jacqui True, 2019 Passed in 2000 the United Nations Security

Council Resolution 1325 and subsequent seven Resolutions make up the Women Peace and Security WPS agenda This agenda is an international policy framework addressing the gender specific impacts of conflict on women and girls including protection against sexual and gender based violence promotion of women s participation in peace and security processes and support for women s roles as peace builders in the prevention of conflict and rebuilding of societies after conflict The handbook addresses the concepts and early history behind WPS international institutions involved with the WPS agenda the implementation of WPS in conflict prevention and connections between WPS and other UN resolutions and agendas

Women, Gender Equality, and Post-Conflict Transformation Joyce P. Kaufman, Kristen P. Williams, 2016-10-04 The end of formal hostilities in any given conflict provides an opportunity to transform society in order to secure a stable peace This book builds on the existing feminist international relations literature as well as lessons of past cases that reinforce the importance of including women in the post conflict transition process and are important to our general understanding of gender relations in the conflict and post conflict periods Post conflict transformation processes including disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR programs transitional justice mechanisms reconciliation measures and legal and political reforms which emerge after the formal hostilities end demonstrate that war and peace impact and are impacted by women and men differently By drawing on a strong theoretical framework and a number of cases this volume provides important insight into questions pertaining to the end of conflict and the challenges inherent in the post conflict transition period that are relevant to students and practitioners alike Handbook of Research on Promoting Peace Through Practice, Academia, and the Arts Lutfy, Mohamed Walid, Toffolo, Cris, 2018-09-07 Academic disciplines perceive tranquility and a sense of contentment differently among themselves and therefore contribute to peace building initiatives differently Peace is not merely a function of education or a tool that produces amicable systems but rather a concept that educational contributions can help societies progress to a more peaceful existence The Handbook of Research on Promoting Peace Through Practice Academia and the Arts aims to provide readers with a concise overview of proactive positive peace models and practices to counter the overemphasis on merely ending wars as a solution While approaching peace building through multiple vantage points and academic fields such as the humanities arts social sciences and theology this valuable resource promotes peace building as a cooperative effort This publication is a vital reference work for humanitarian workers leaders educators policymakers academicians undergraduate and graduate level students and researchers Rethinking National Action Plans on Women, Peace and Security S. Aroussi, 2017-05-30 At the time of its adoption in October 2000 United Nations Security Council resolution 1325 on Women Peace and Security WPS was hailed as a turning point for women involved in conflicts peacemaking peacekeeping and post conflict reconstruction Resolution 1325 required all efforts aimed at resolving conflicts and building peace to be inclusive gender sensitive and transformative for women In recent years National Action Plans NAPs on WPS have become one of the most commonly used tools by states to channel assess and monitor the implementation of resolution 1325 and other UN WPS resolutions This book presents an edited version of the proceedings of the NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW on National Action Plans on Women Peace and Security held in Dublin Ireland in May 2016 The workshop brought together representatives from various states as well as academics and members of civil society and international organizations to discuss their experiences with NAPs and to critically reflect on the role of NAPs in supporting the implementation by states of the WPS framework The aim of this book is to disseminate the key arguments findings and recommendations which emerged from the discussions held at the ARW It includes a summary report which sets out key arguments and recommendations and offers a number of key papers from the ARW with the intention of contributing to academic and policy debates concerning gender and armed conflict and more particularly the WPS framework

Women, War, and Violence Mariam M. Kurtz, Lester R. Kurtz, 2015-08-28 This set of original articles probes the breadth of vital issues surrounding the impact of war and violence on women globally and examines what is being done to mitigate their effects The story of men's roles in war and violence fills headlines and history books but the women's narrative too often goes unnoticed This two volume work brings women's voices to the fore highlighting new scholarship and journalism to offer a realistic understanding of this timely topic Including both historical context and contemporary issues the volumes explore types of violence affecting women and girls as victims of war and as combatants in and perpetrators of war Equally important it provides an in depth look at resistance movements and peacemaking efforts examining how these issues can and should be addressed The two volumes bring together a wide range of articles by experts from various fields and backgrounds to provide the first all inclusive overview of women war and violence Other works on the subject tend to be focused on Western nations offering a narrow view of a global issue This compendium in contrast takes a truly international approach It provides general readers policymakers students and scholars with a compelling collection of insights from around the world exposing the varied experiences women have had and continue to have with violence and war
