Gendered News Elizabeth Goodyear-Grant, 2013-09-06 In the last fifty years many of the institutional and societal barriers keeping Canadian women from public office have disappeared Yet today women hold only a quarter of the seats in the House of Commons a proportion that rose by just seven percentage points between 1993 and 2011 In this illuminating study Elizabeth Goodyear Grant examines a significant obstacle still facing women in political life gendered media coverage Based on interviews with MPs and party leaders and on an analysis of print and television media in the 2000 and 2006 federal elections Gendered News reveals an unsettling climate that affects the success of women in office and that could deter them from running at all

News, Gender, and Power Cynthia Carter, Gill Branston, Stuart Allan, 1998 Addresses the pressing questions of how gender shapes the forms practice institutions and audiences of journalism and explores the multiple interconnections between news gender and power

Gendered News Elizabeth Goodyear-Grant, 2013-09-06 In the last fifty years many of the institutional and societal barriers that kept Canadian women from public office have disappeared Today women are well educated and well connected and enjoy generally equal treatment from political parties and voters Why then do they hold only a quarter of the seats in the House of Commons a proportion that rose by just seven percentage points between 1993 and 2011 In this illuminating study Elizabeth Goodyear Grant examines a significant obstacle still facing women in political life gendered media coverage News stories are more likely to investigate the personal lives of female politicians or question their aptitude for public life implicitly suggesting that women in politics are marginal or even unwelcome Based on interviews with MPs and party leaders and an analysis of print and television media in the 2000 and 2006 federal elections Gendered News reveals an unsettling climate that affects the success of women in office and could deter them from running at all

Gender, Politics, News Karen Ross, 2017-01-30 Gender Politics News A Game of Three Sides explores the role of gender in the broader processes of political communication The only contemporary book focusing on the relationships between gender politics and news media which takes a global perspective An analysis of political journalism as a practice and the development of the field in terms of gendered workplace cultures Offers a solid framework for understanding women s political representation including real world case studies of women s campaigns for the top political job across a range of different geographies and contexts Coverage of hot button issues such as political scandal and the role of new and social media in politics and elections makes this a highly relevant and current work with resonances for a wide audience

Women and men in the news Mannila, Saga , 2017-05-02 The media carry significant notions of social and cultural norms and values and have a powerful role in constructing and reinforcing gendered images The news in particular has an important role in how notions of power are distributed in the society This report presents study findings on how women and men are represented in the news in the Nordic countries and to what extent women and men occupy the decision making positions in the media The survey is based on the recent findings from three cross national research projects

These findings are supported by national studies The results indicate that in all the Nordic countries women are underrepresented in the news media both as news subjects and as sources of information Men also dominate in higher level decision making positions The report includes examples of measures used to improve the gender balance in Nordic news

The Gendered Newsroom Louise North,2008 The Gendered Newsroom is a vivid exploration of the gendered production of news and in particular the experiences of women in the Australian print news media The book engages with the question of how gender shapes newsroom culture and in so doing is concerned with production practices and cultural processes It considers the dilemmas constraints negotiations and compromises which shape journalists day to day routines It probes specific questions about gender in asking what is journalism and what is a journalist How is newsroom culture embodied How do female journalists experience newsroom culture How has global industry change impacted on the workplace and what does this mean for journalists How does feminism get played out in the newsroom And what is the relationship of newsroom culture to the content of the news The author's astute empirical research provides a distinctive account of how Australian print news media journalists experience newsroom culture The 17 in depth interviews with journalists ranging in age and industry experience reveal a complex culture coming to terms with dramatic industry changes

News Culture Stuart Allan,2004-09 News Culture discusses the changing forms practices and audiences of journalism It provides an historical consideration of the rise of objective reporting in the media and explores the presentation of the news and the cultural dynamics

Gender and Age Discrimination Among Women in the Broadcast News Industry Sherlynn Teas'La'Nea Howard-Byrd,2008 This study explores the age and gender discrimination faced by female newscasters and the legal remedies they can employ to rectify illegal termination The study also evaluates other non industry cases of unlawful employment practices concerning grooming dress codes and appearance standards Publisher

Women and Men in the News Saga Mannila,2017 Young People and Gendered Media Messages Maria Jacobson,2005 The report attempts to account for what is going on in the field of gender and media in a broad sense The main focus is on news content and popular mainstream media primarily targeted at children and young people Included are studies and reports from different disciplines as media issues also attract scholars outside traditional media and communications research

UNRISD News,2008 News, Gender and Power Stuart Allan,Gill Branston,Cynthia Carter,2002-01-31 How do gender relations affect the practice of journalism Despite the star status accorded to some women reporters and the dramatic increase in the number of women working in journalism why do men continue to occupy most senior management positions And why do female readers viewers and listeners remain as elusive as ever News Gender and Power addresses the pressing questions of how gender shapes the forms practice institutions and audiences of journalism The contributors who include John Hartley Pat Holland Jenny Kitinger and Myra Macdonald draw on feminist theory and gender sensitive critiques to explore media issues such as ownership and control employment and occupation status the representation of women in the media the sexualization of news and audience research Within this framework the contributors explore media coverage of the trial of O J Simpson British beef and the BSE scandal the horrific crimes of Fred and Rosemary West child sexual abuse and false memory syndrome the portrayal of women in TV documentaries such as Modern Times and Cutting Edge News Features on Gender Issues, 1995-1997 Southern African Research and Documentation Centre,1997 Network News ,2001
