Gendering Post Socialist Transition Studies Of Changing Gender Perspectives Erste Foundation Series:

Gendering Post-socialist Transition Krasimira Daskalova, Caroline Hornstein Tomić, Karl Kaser, Filip Radunović, 2012
Gendering Post Socialist Transition presents economic political social and cultural effects and traces of system changes in the lives of women and men after 1989 in 11 countries of Central and Southeastern Europe The contributions by nine research teams from different countries look into the meaning of these changes for the relationships between men and women for gender roles and representations and for the development of normative discourses about femininity and masculinity With respect to gender relations these case studies deal with changing values and mentalities in transformation and once again show that poverty social exclusion nationalism social systems and healthcare systems all have a profound gendered dimension Series ERSTE Foundation Series Vol 1

Ambiguous Transitions Jill Massino, 2019-07-30 Focusing on youth family work and consumption Ambiguous Transitions analyzes the interplay between gender and citizenship postwar Romania By juxtaposing official sources with oral histories and socialist policies with everyday practices Jill Massino illuminates the gendered dimensions of socialist modernization and its complex effects on women s roles relationships and identities Analyzing women as subjects and agents the book examines how they negotiated the challenges that arose as Romanian society modernized even as it clung to traditional ideas about gender Massino concludes by exploring the ambiguities of postsocialism highlighting how the legacies of the past have shaped politics and women s lived experiences since 1989

SEE! Kai Vöckler, 2012 By drawing on the experience of different independent initiatives and associations in southeastern Europe is it possible to draft and collate typical development and qualification strategies for periods of urban transformation in post conflict situations along with applying these to similar urban situations elsewhere This book presents different approaches to this topic and answers the question with an absolute yes The book offers contributions from local initiatives throughout southeastern Europe and looks forward to enhancing debate and action with both local and international impact Series ERSTE Foundation Vol 2

Transgender in the Post-Yugoslav Space Bojan Bilić, Iwo Nord, Aleksa Milanović, 2022-09-21 Written by an interdisciplinary collective of authors this powerful book documents the largely unknown histories and politics of trans lives activisms and culture across the post Yugoslav states The volume sheds light on a diversity of gender embodiments and explores how they have navigated the murky waters of war capitalism and transphobia while forging a niche for themselves within the regional and transnational LGBTQ movements By unleashing the knowledge concentrated in trans lives this book not only resists trans erasures in Eastern Europe but also underscores the potential for survival self transformation and engagement in politically challenging circumstances

Remembering the Neoliberal Turn Veronika Pehe, Joanna Wawrzyniak, 2023-08-25 This book discusses how societies groups and individuals remember and make sense of global neoliberal change in Eastern Europe Such an investigation is all the more timely as the 1990s are increasingly looked to for answers explaining the populist and nationalist turn across the globe The volume shows how the key processes that impacted many lives across the social spectrum in Eastern Europe such as deindustrialization privatization restitution and abrupt social reorganization are collectively remembered across society today and how memory narratives of the 1990s contribute to current identities and political climate This volume establishes the memory of economic transformation as a research focus in its own right It investigates different levels of memory from the national through the local to the cultural analysing key myths of the transformation giving special recognition to the social space and vernacular memories of the transformation period and reflecting on how the changes of the 1990s are mediated in cultural representations Given the book s interdisciplinary scope that covers several fields it will prove to be of interest to those working in memory studies contemporary history sociology East European area studies and literary and film studies It will also serve as a significant point of reference for those researching the interdisciplinary and rapidly expanding field of transformation studies and thus is an invaluable source across different fields

Women in the Balkans/ Southeastern Europe Gabriella Schubert, Johanna Deimel, 2016 This book is a collection of contributions to a symposium which was organized by the Southeast Europe Association on the topic Women in the Balkans Southeastern Europe and held on 3rd and 4th November 2014 in Munich It reflects on the situation of the women which has changed fundamentally since the end of the communist socialist regime

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2001 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

Gendering Postsocialism Yulia Gradska, Ildikó Asztalos Morell, 2018-03-14 Gendering Postsocialism explores changes in gendered norms and expectations in Eastern Europe and Eurasia after the fall of the Berlin Wall The dismantlement of state socialism in these regions triggered monumental shifts in their economic landscape the involvement of their welfare states in social citizenship and crucially their established gender norms and relations all contributing to the formation of the postsocialist citizen Case studies examine a wide range of issues across 15 countries of the post Soviet era These include gender aspects of the developments in education in Kazakhstan Uzbekistan and Hungary controversies around abortion legislation in Poland migrant women and housing as a gendered problem in Russia challenges facing women s NGOs in Bosnia and identity formation of unemployed men in Lithuania This close analysis reveals how different variations of neoliberal ideology centred around the notion of the self reliant and self determining individual have strongly influenced postsocialist gender identities whilst simultaneously showing significant trends for a retraditionalising of gender norms and expectations This volume suggests that despite integration with global political and free market systems the postsocialist gendered subject combines strategies from the past with those from contemporary ideologies to navigate new multifaceted injustices around gender in Eastern Europe and Eurasia

Gender and Power in Eastern Europe Katharina Bluhm, Gertrud Pickhan, Justyna

Stypinska, Agnieszka Wiercholska, 2020-10-31 This book explores the contradictory development of gender roles in Central and Eastern Europe including Russia In light of the social changes that followed the collapse of communism and the rise of new conservatism in Eastern Europe it studies new forms of gender relationships and reassesses the status quo of female empowerment Moreover leading scholars in gender studies discuss how right wing populism and conservative movements have affected sociopolitical discourses and concepts related to gender roles rights and attitudes and how Western feminism in the 1990s may have contributed to this conservative turn Mainly focusing on power constellations and gender the book is divided into four parts the first explores the history of and recent trends in feminist movements in Eastern Europe while the second highlights the dynamics and conflicts that gained momentum after neoconservative parties gained political power in post socialist countries In turn the third part discusses new empowerment strategies and changes in gender relationships The final part illustrates the identities roles and concepts of masculinity created in the sociocultural and political context of Eastern Europe Gender in Transition in Eastern and Central Europe Proceedings Gabriele Jähnert, 2001 Reproducing Gender Susan Gal, Gail Kligman, 2000-05-28 The striking fact that abortion was among the first issues raised after 1989 by almost all of the newly formed governments of East Central Europe points to the significance of gender and reproduction in the postsocialist transformations The fourteen studies in this volume result from a comparative collaborative research project on the complex relationship between ideas and practices of gender and political economic change The book presents detailed evidence about women s and men s new circumstances in eight of the former communist countries exploring the intersection of politics and the life cycle the differential effects of economic restructuring and women s public and political participation Individual contributions on the former German Democratic Republic Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Hungary Serbia Romania and Bulgaria provide rich empirical data and interpretive insights on postsocialist transformation analyzed from a gendered perspective Drawing on multiple methods and disciplines these original papers advance scholarship in several fields including anthropology sociology women s studies law comparative political science and regional studies The analyses make clear that practices of gender and ideas about the differences between men and women have been crucial in shaping the broad social changes that have followed the collapse of communism In addition to the editors the contributors are Eleonora Zieli ska Eva Maleck Lewy Myra Marx Ferree Sharon Wolchik Irene D lling Daphne Hahn Sylka Scholz Mira Marody Anna Giza Poleszczuk Katalin Kov cs M nika V radi Julia Szalai Adriana Baban Ma gorzata Fuszara Laura Grunberg Zorica Mrsevi Krassimira Daskalova Joanna Goven and Jasmina Luki The Politics of Gender After Socialism Susan Gal, Gail Kligman, 2000 With the collapse of communism a new world seemed to open for the peoples of East Central Europe The possibilities this world presented and the costs it exacted have been experienced differently by men and women Susan Gal and Gail Kligman explore these differences through a probing analysis of the role of gender in reshaping politics and social relations since 1989 The authors raise two crucial questions How are gender relations and ideas about gender shaping political and economic change in the region And what forms of gender inequality are emerging as a result The book provides a rich understanding of gender relations and their significance in social and institutional transformations Gal and Kligman offer a systematic comparison of East Central European gender relations with those of western welfare states and with the presocialist bourgeois past Throughout this essay the authors attend to historical comparisons as well as cross regional interactions and contrasts Their work contributes importantly to the study of postsocialism and to the broader feminist literature that critically examines how states and political economic processes are gendered and how states and markets regulate gender relations

Gendering Post-Soviet Space Tatiana Karabchuk, Kazuhiro Kumo, Kseniia Gatskova, Ekaterina Skoglund, 2021-02-01 This volume combines approaches from three disciplines economics sociology and demography and empirically analyzes the key aspects of the labor market and social demography processes in post Soviet transitional societies while focusing on the gender perspective Here readers will find empirical studies on such countries as Armenia Azerbaijan Belarus Estonia Georgia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Russia Tajikistan Ukraine and Uzbekistan The volume contributes to the literature by addressing the lack of academic empirical research on gender difference issues in the labor markets of post Soviet countries as well as gender inequalities in fertility preferences gender disparities among the youth and elderly the gender pay gap gender differences in employment and female voices The book brings together researchers of different disciplines from a variety of countries distinguishing this project as international and interdisciplinary The authors use the quantitative survey micro data approach as well as the qualitative methods of interview data analysis to provide a comprehensive and detailed overview of the economic and social developments in the region regarding gender differences The volume consists of three parts tackling the following topics 1 gender differences and demography family formation and fertility youth and elderly employment 2 gender differences and labor market gender wage gap motherhood wage penalty gender differences among freelancers and women in STEM science and 3 gender differences well being and gender equality attitudes women s voices women s collective actions gender equality attitudes and spending patterns of housewives

The Politics of Gender Culture under State Socialism Hana Havelková, Libora Oates-Indruchová, 2014-02-03 Though there has been much research on the incomplete emancipation project of state socialism in East and Central Europe very little has been published on how the state and its institutions conceived of gender as a concept This book seeks to understand if and how this conceptualization developed in the second half of the twentieth century and what impact it had on everyday life and on culture This study moves beyond the dichotomous gender perspectives and towards a nuanced understanding of the diverse discursive negotiations agendas actors and agency involved in state socialist gender practices Including a detailed case study on Czechoslovakia contributors explore these issues in a series of independent but collaboratively developed studies placing their research in the context of other East Central European countries The studies collected in the volume bring to light fresh material and consider it from the combined perspective of current gender theory and internal ideological dynamics of state socialism breaking new ground in gender theory cultural theory and studies of state socialism This book will be of interest to students and scholars of gender studies socialism Cold War politics and Eastern European politics and culture
