

Freebooters on the Frontier

Freebooter: from the Dutch vrijbuit "plunderer, robber;" literally "free booty."

INTRODUCTION

This game is about exploring dangerous wilderness in search of treasure. The emphasis is on resource management, survival, and the acquisition of wealth.

It's intended for use with the Dungeon World rules, and makes use of concepts presented in The Perilous Wilds, a Dungeon World supplement. You will need both of these books in order to make sense of everything presented herein.

The characters in Freebooters on the Frontier are not the powerful heroes of Dungeon World. They are but some among many who have forsaken lives of medieval drudgery in order to pursue great fortune at the edge of the civilized world. They are generally regarded as fools, destined for early graves. Treasures glitter in the darkness, awaiting plunder—and that darkness is littered with the remains of many who have gone before.

The goal of Freebooters is to survive long enough to amass 10,000 silver pieces, enough to retire in comfort and see your exploits turned to legend, sung by bards from shore to shore throughout the realm.
