On Faith and Free Government Daniel C. Palm, 1997 Responding to the general confusion in the United States about the proper role of religion in politics five distinguished scholars demonstrate in original essays how our nation's founders carefully and clearly defined the appropriate relationship between church and state and how we can adapt our current political institutions to reflect the founders' wisdom Also includes a collection of the most important statements by the Founders that address religion's role in American political life

Government Gazette, 1877 Dying for Freedom Jacob Dlamini, 2024-07-09 What happens when death becomes the ultimate marker of one's commitment to one's freedom What happens when the opposite of freedom is not unfreedom but death not slavery but mortality How are we to think of the right to life when a political demand for dignity and honor might be more important than life itself Dying for Freedom explores these questions by drawing on archival evidence from South Africa to show how death and conflicting notions of sacrifice dominated the struggle for political equality in that country This political investment in death as a marker of commitment to the anti-apartheid struggle encouraged a masculinist style of politics in which the fight for freedom was seen and understood by many activists as a struggle literally for manhood This investment generated a notion of political sacrifice so absolute that anything less than death was rendered suspect More importantly it resulted in a hierarchy of death whereby some deaths were more important than others and where some deaths could be mourned and others not This highly original account of the necropolitics of the liberation struggle will be of interest to students and scholars throughout the humanities and social sciences and to anyone interested in South Africa

The Last Free Kingdom: The Adwa Saga Gaurav Garg, 2025-05-10 In the heart of the late 19th century Scramble for Africa the ancient Ethiopian Empire stands as the last bastion against rampant European colonialism Italy under the ambitious Prime Minister Francesco Crispi sets its sights on this unconquered land leveraging a deceitful treaty to claim dominance But Emperor Menelik II and the fiercely intelligent Empress Taytu are not so easily subdued As Italian forces under General Baratieri advance underestimating Ethiopian resolve and military prowess a nation rallies to the imperial standard From the treacherous Treaty of Wuchale to the fatal miscalculations of Italian commanders The Lion of Judah Roars thrusts readers into the heart of the First Italo Ethiopian War Witness the strategic genius of Menelik the unwavering courage of Taytu and the brutal realities of battles like Amba Alagi and Mekele culminating in the decisive earth shattering Ethiopian victory at Adwa in 1896 a triumph that resonated across continents and altered the course of history The Morning Star and Free Baptist ,1901 The Christian Quarterly ,1873
