Freedoms Won Caribbean Emancipations Ethnicities And Nationhood:

Freedoms Won Hilary McD. Beckles, Verene A. Shepherd, 2006-11-09 Written by two of the Caribbean's leading historians Freedoms Won is an essential book for students engaged in following courses on the history of the Caribbean. It will also be of interest to general readers seeking information on the history of the region. Starting with the aftermath of emancipation, Freedoms Won covers the African Caribbean peasantry, Asian arrival in the Caribbean, social and political experiences of the working classes in the immediate post-slavery period, the Caribbean economy, US intervention and imperialist tendencies from the 18th century, the Labour Movement in the Caribbean in the 20th century, the social life and culture of the Caribbean people and social protest, decolonisation and nationhood. Caribbean Spaces Carole Boyce

Davies, 2013-11-15 Drawing on both personal experience and critical theory, Carole Boyce Davies illuminates the dynamic complexity of Caribbean culture and traces its migratory patterns throughout the Americas. Both a memoir and a scholarly study, Caribbean Spaces: Escapes from Twilight Zones explores the multivalent meanings of Caribbean space and community in a cross-cultural and transdisciplinary perspective. From her childhood in Trinidad and Tobago to life and work in communities and universities in Nigeria, Brazil, England, and the United States, Carole Boyce Davies portrays a rich and fluid set of personal experiences. She reflects on these movements to understand the interrelated dynamics of race, gender, and sexuality embedded in Caribbean spaces, as well as many Caribbean people's traumatic and transformative stories of displacement, migration, exile, and sometimes return. Ultimately, Boyce Davies reestablishes the connections between theory and practice, intellectual work and activism, and personal and private space. Beyond Slavery and Abolition Ryan

Hanley, 2019 Shows how black writers helped to build modern Britain by looking beyond the questions of slavery and abolition. Culture, Ethnicity and Chronic Conditions Charles Agyemang, Ama de-Graft Aikins, 2016-04-08 The global burden of chronic non-communicable diseases (NCDs) such as hypertension, diabetes, and cancers, and of common mental disorders such as depression and anxiety, has a disproportionate impact on the low and middle income countries (LMICs) of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. The pattern persists in African and Asian migrant populations in European and North American countries despite the higher standards of living and improved health infrastructure. The consensus of experts is that pragmatic, cost-effective, and sustainable interventions are required, and that these must prioritise the social determinants of NCDs, as well as the social participation of affected communities. Despite the growing emphasis on the role of social processes in health system responses to chronic disease in LMICs, there has been no definitive volume that brings together LMIC perspectives on these issues. This book aims to address this major gap by presenting new conceptual and empirical perspectives on the interconnections between culture, ethnicity, and chronic conditions in LMICs and their implications for research, intervention, and policy. The chapters focus on lay and institutional meanings, experiences, and responses to chronic conditions in selected countries in Africa, Europe, and the Caribbean. This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnicity and Health Rituals, Consumption, and Marketing Cele Otnes, Tina M. Lowrey, 2025-09-30

Rituals Consumption and Marketing A Research Companion is a compendium of cutting edge scholarship exploring the relevance roles and functions of rituals in consumer culture a topic that has burgeoned within the marketing field The volume theoretically expands on the understanding of rituals in marketing and consumer culture and how consumption rituals emerge and evolve through seven key parts 1 conceptual understandings of ritual 2 rituals and marketing strategy 3 culturally rooted rituals 4 rituals and well being 5 rituals in childhood and adolescence 6 rituals media and technology and 7 writing rituals With contributions from international scholars ranging from early career researchers to those who pioneered ritual scholarship in marketing it showcases the ways rituals can contribute both to the well being of consumers and the business objectives of marketers This book will be a valuable resource for academics in the marketing field pursuing ritual scholarship It will act as a rich resource for creating assignments cases and projects in courses on consumer culture consumer behavior and marketing strategy It will also inspire practitioners to make their customers experiences more meaningful and memorable Livestock, Sugar and Slavery Verene Shepherd, 2009 The economic and social history of Jamaica has been dominated by a tradition of scholarship that has tended to focus on the study of the ruling sugar planter elite the sugarocracy considered more socially significant than non sugar producers Indeed non sugar producers Indeed non sugar producing units have been regarded as representing a divergent pattern of social and economic development Livestock Sugar and Slavery broadens the economic and social history of Jamaica by turning the spotlight on those involved in raising livestock rather than sugar cane in colonial Jamaica Devoted primarily to the slavery era the book examines the evolution and expansion of the pen keeping industry the role and status of the pen keepers and the experiences of enslaved labourers on pens Above all the book argues that the relationship between those who raised livestock and those who raised sugar cane while symbiotic in one sense was also conflict ridden in another Pens though emerging in the pre sugar era when they had an independent economic dynamic had developed into virtual adjuncts of the sugar industry by the 18th and 19th centuries leading to contests between sugar proprietors and pen keepers over land boundaries enslaved labourers and social and political status This comparative study of pen keepers and sugar planters also demonstrates that the ranking game was intensely practised in the age of modernity Nach der Sklaverei. 2. überarbeitete Auflage Ulrike Schmieder, 2014 Der Band behandelt den Prozess der Sklavenemanzipation und die gesellschaftlichen Veränderungen nach der Abolition auf Martinique und Kuba im Kontext der Nachsklavereigeschichte der Karibik Schwerpunkte sind die sozio konomischen berlebensstrategien der afrokaribischen Bevölkerung die Reorganisation von Familienbeziehungen und Geschlechterverhältnissen sowie der Kampf der ehemaligen Sklavinnen und Sklaven um politische Rechte und kulturelle Selbstbestimmung Im Vordergrund steht dabei nicht die Politik von Kolonialmächten und Pflanzern die Befreiten zur Fortsetzung der Plantagenarbeit zu den Bedingungen der Plantagenbesitzer zu zwingen und ihnen eine gleichberechtigte Integration in die

Postemanzipationsgesellschaft zu verwehren sondern das Sprechen und Handeln der emanzipierten Sklavinnen und Sklaven Diese Geschichte von unten macht die agency afrokaribischer Frauen und Männer anhand von Petitionen Notariats und Prozessakten und zeitgenössischer Presse sichtbar The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007 An American Color Andrew N. Wegmann,2022-01-15 The Colonizing Trick David Kazanjian,2003 An illuminating look at the concepts of race nation and equality in eighteenth and nineteenth century America The idea that all men are created equal is as close to a universal tenet as exists in American history In this hard hitting book David Kazanjian interrogates this tenet exploring transformative flash points in early America when the belief in equality came into contact with seemingly contrary ideas about race and nation The Colonizing Trick depicts early America as a white settler colony in the process of becoming an empire one deeply integrated with Euro American political economy imperial ventures in North America and Africa and pan American racial formations Kazanjian traces tensions between universal equality and racial or national particularity through theoretically informed critical readings of a wide range of texts the political writings of David Walker and Maria Stewart the narratives of black mariners economic treatises the personal letters of Thomas Jefferson and Phillis Wheatley Charles Brockden Brown's fiction congressional tariff debates international treaties and popular novelettes about the U S Mexico War and the Yucatan's Caste War Kazanjian shows how emergent racial and national formations do not contradict universalist egalitarianism rather they rearticulate it making equality at once restricted formal abstract and materially embodied Caribbean Freedom Hilary Beckles, Verene Shepherd,1996 Covers major events in the Caribbean struggle for freedom from emancipation to the present from Toussaint's Haiti to the more recent revolutions in Cuba Grenada and the Dominican Republic The range of coverage is comprehensive calling attention to the variety of post slavery experiences in the Spanish Dutch English and French Caribbean Caribbean Freedom,2009 Caribbean Emancipations Christopher Schmidt-Nowara,2011 Contesting Freedom Gad Heuman,David Vincent Trotman,2005 This collection of studies is concerned with exploring some of the many issues faced by Caribbean Societies as those societies grappled with the problems generated by the demise of slavery The experiences of the post slavery period make the Caribbean less of a homogenous area of study than the slave period when the commonalities were more obvious and compelling The circumstances in which the slave systems were dismantled and the differences in the timing of the end of slavery combine with other factors to make the Caribbean an area of diverse post emancipation experiences despite some obvious areas of real commonality The present volume seeks to contribute to the understanding of the post emancipation period by taking as its jumping off point the debate over continuity and change and has as its central concerns the issues of conflict control and resistance The issues covered by the contributors include law and the penal system riots and social uprising labour control religion marriage and other areas of cultural interest This collection is a result of a fruitful collaboration between the Centre for Caribbean Studies at the University of Warwick and the UNESCO York University

Nigerian Hinterland Project funded by the Canadian Social Sciences and Research Council Inside Slavery Hilary Beckles, 1996 Contains lectures presented at Cave Hill from 1987-93 to honour the memory of Elsa Goveia a highly regarded Caribbean historian Themes and topics include Thistlewood's Journals Douglas Hall slave conditions in Barbados and other islands Richard Sheridan slavery and freedom in Brazil and Louisiana A Colony of Citizens Laurent Dubois, 2012-12-01 The idea of universal rights is often understood as the product of Europe but as Laurent Dubois demonstrates it was profoundly shaped by the struggle over slavery and citizenship in the French Caribbean Dubois examines this Caribbean revolution by focusing on Guadeloupe where in the early 1790s insurgents on the island fought for equality and freedom and formed alliances with besieged Republicans In 1794 slavery was abolished throughout the French Empire ushering in a new colonial order in which all people regardless of race were entitled to the same rights But French administrators on the island combined emancipation with new forms of coercion and racial exclusion even as newly freed slaves struggled for a fuller freedom In 1802 the experiment in emancipation was reversed and slavery was brutally reestablished though rebels in Saint Domingue avoided the same fate by defeating the French and creating an independent Haiti The political culture of republicanism Dubois argues was transformed through this transcultural and transatlantic struggle for liberty and citizenship The slaves turned citizens of the French Caribbean expanded the political possibilities of the Enlightenment by giving new and radical content to the idea of universal rights Material Cultures of Slavery and Abolition in the British Caribbean Christer Petley, Stephan Lenik, 2018-04-19 Material things mattered immensely to those who engaged in daily struggles over the character and future of slavery and to those who subsequently contested the meanings of freedom in the post-emancipation Caribbean Throughout the history of slavery objects and places were significant to different groups of people from the opulent master class to enslaved field hands as well as to other groups including maroons free people of colour and missionaries all of who shared the lived environments of Caribbean plantation colonies By exploring the rich material world inhabited by these people this book offers new ways of seeing history from below of linking localised experiences with global transformations and connecting deeply personal lived realities with larger epochal events that defined the history of slavery and its abolition in the British Caribbean This book was originally published as a special issue of Slavery Abolition

Freedom Road, 2007 The abolition of the slave trade was significant in that it was the first clear declaration by a major imperial power of the illegality and the barbarism of a traffic in human beings which had previously been widely supported in the highest circles of European society But diplomatically it also allowed Britain to use these achievements as bludgeons against its rivals and to clothe the imperialism of Pax Britannica in moral dress For the slaves the abolition of the slave trade was at once a disappointment and a harbinger of the total emancipation which was to come objectively despite its ambiguities the abolition of the slave trade was the beginning of the end for the slave institution in the Anglophone Caribbean Within three decades slavery became insupportable and emancipation became real Excerpted from Introduction to
