Gender Culture And Physicality Paradoxes And Taboos:

Gender, Culture, and Physicality Helen M. Sterk, Annelies Knoppers, 2009-12-30 Although a plethora of scholarship analyzes gender dynamics this book seeks to explore the paradoxes and taboos associated with gendered meanings given to human bodies in action or physicality Physicality provides a particularly clear playing space for developing concepts of gender identity structures and cultural meanings When people think about gender differences they often refer to those associated with physicality such as giving birth or playing contact sports Helen M Sterk and Annelies Knoppers attend to the meanings and values given to human bodies in motion that reflect cultural respect or disrespect for what is seen as womanly in particular times and places In doing so they show how these meanings can reinforce or challenge common ways of doing gender that at first glance may not seem to be related to physicality Grappling with gender based paradoxes and questioning gendered taboos two goals animate the book to reveal how gender continues to be enacted in ways that dehumanize women and men and to stimulate thinking and action toward a fuller realization of human potential and partnership Operating from an ethic of care in which all people are understood as being created equal Sterk and Knoppers argue that as long as women and all that is associated with them are devalued cultural practices will remain implicitly gendered and humanity itself reduced

The Face of the Firm Michele Gregory, 2016-02-12 Despite decades of greater gender awareness at work in Western countries gender inequality in the executive suites is alive and well The Face of the Firm highlights new critical perspectives on the relationship between hegemonic masculine cultures gender embodiment and gender disparities in corporate organizations Using data from over 100 interviews with female and male executives who worked for some of the most prestigious advertising and computer firms in the world the book makes important connections between the empirical data and contemporary sexism in the United States and United Kingdom The book refocuses the debate of executive work organizational spaces and gender inequality on gendered bodies at work It also demonstrates that gendered and sexualized relations among executives often construct the production process The book makes a contribution to masculinity gender and work scholarship and is organized along three key concepts homogeneity homosociability and heterosexuality These address such factors as the organizational locker room sexual and heterosexual spaces at work and the construction of women and men as different workers This conceptual model is crucial for evaluating the mechanisms that support male dominance among highly skilled professionals and executives Supervillains Nao Tomabechi, 2025-01-14

Alongside superheroes supervillains too have become one of today's most popular and globally recognizable figures However it is not merely their popularity that marks their significance Supervillains are also central to superhero storytelling to the extent that the superhero genre cannot survive without supervillains Bringing together different approaches and critical perspectives across disciplines author Nao Tomabechi troubles overly hero centered works in comics studies to reconsider the modern American myths of the superheroes Considering the likes of Lex Luthor the Joker Catwoman Harley Quinn Loki Venom and more Supervillains explores themes such as gender and sexuality disability and many forms of Otherness in relation to the notion of evil as it appears in the superhero genre The book investigates how supervillains uphold and at times trouble dominant ideals expressed by the heroism of our superheroes Japanese Women and Sport Robin Kietlinski, 2011-12-01 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com In Japanese Women and Sport Robin Kietlinski sets out to problematize the hegemonic image of the delicate Japanese woman highlighting an overlooked area in the history of modern Japan Previous studies of gender in the Japanese context do not explore the history of female participation in sport and recent academic studies of women and sport tend to focus on Western countries Kietlinski locates the discussion of Japanese women in sport within a larger East Asian context and considers the socio economic position and history of modern Japan Reaching from the early 20th century to the present day Kietlinski traces the progression of Japanese women's participation in sport from the first female school for physical education and the foundations of competitive sport through to their growing presence in the Olympics and international sport Gender Equity in UK Sport Leadership and Governance Philippa Velija, Lucy Piggott, 2022-01-27 Gender Equity in UK Sport Leadership and Governance goes beyond the headlines to provide critical and timely analyses of current strategy policy structure and practice relating to gender equity in the leadership and governance of sport in the UK Feminist Cyberspaces Sharon Collingwood, Alvina E. Quintana, Caroline J. Smith, 2012-01-17 Feminist Cyberspaces Pedagogies in Transition is a collection of essays exploring the ways in which new media technologies are being used in the feminist classroom The collection has been structured to reflect the multifaceted nature of education today Learning takes place on a personal level through independent study and social media it takes place at a local level in our classrooms and lecture halls but it is also increasingly taking place on a global scale as new technologies foster international collaboration between individuals and organizations In addition there is a growing acceptance of learning in the collaborative 3D classrooms of virtual worlds These educational spaces are not mutually exclusive as the contributions to this volume make clear The anthology explores how technology is being used in antiviolence teaching art education HIV and AIDS education and other specialized topics but it also gives many examples of innovations in teaching introductory courses The technology used ranges from the implementation of course management systems for large university classes to the use of digital storytelling in small groups outside the university It also explores technology for removing barriers to people with disabilities in both traditional and online classrooms The collection is not a how to book but it does use practical experience as a basis for feminist theorizing of the classroom All of the essays look at the use of new technology in the light of feminist pedagogy seeking new ways to foster provocative creative and non hierarchical learning that transcends the physical boundaries of the university

The Paradox of Planetary Human Entanglements Inocent Moyo, Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2022-12-30 The Paradox of Planetary Human

Entanglements provides a nuanced understanding of the complexity of planetary human entanglements in this age of increased borderisation and territorialisation racism and xenophobia and inclusion and exclusion One of the greatest paradoxes of the 21st century is that of increased planetary human entanglements enabled by globalisation on the one hand and by the rising tide of exclusionary right wing politics of racism xenophobia and the building of walled states on the other The characteristic feature of this paradox is the unrestrained move towards the detention and incarceration of those who attempt to migrate This brings to the fore the issue of borders in terms of their materiality and symbolism and how this mediates belonging citizenship and the ethics or lack thereof and politics of living together This book shows that at the core of border and migration restrictions is the desire to exclude certain categories of people which aptly demonstrates that borders in their materiality are not for everyone but for those who are considered undesirable migrants The authors examine questions of borders nationalism migration immigration and belonging setting the basis of a campaign for planetary humanism grounded on human dignity which transcends ethnicity and nationality This book will be a useful resource for students scholars and researchers of African Studies Border Studies Migration Studies Development Studies International Studies Black Studies International Relations and Political Science

The Power and Paradox of Physical Attractiveness Gordon L. Patzer, 2006 The Power and Paradox of Physical Attractiveness is a scholarly look into physical attractiveness It articulates the great importance placed on this dimension of a person's appearance Analysis of the dynamics and consequences reveals a powerful pervasive and frequently unrecognized or denied physical attractiveness phenomenon This phenomenon transcends time geography and culture regardless of demographics and socioeconomics of individuals and populations With penetrating vision Dr Patzer provides evidence that despite professed ideals people do judge others by their looks Physical attractiveness is a more powerful determinant of a person's fortune and misfortune in life than people admit. No matter the words, thoughts, and ideals proclaimed by people, these same people judge, assume, infer, believe, act, treat, decide, accept, reject, and behave toward or against individuals in patterns consistent with their own physical attractiveness and that of others. While many dimensions define appearance, physical attractiveness predominates. The physical attractiveness of a person impacts every individual throughout every community across the United States and around the world. All people inherit and alter their physical attractiveness, which is determined by complex interdependent physical and non-physical factors. Hidden and not-hidden values drive thoughts and actions with significant effects and realities whereby higher physical attractiveness is beneficial, lower physical attractiveness is detrimental, and associated pursuits are relentless. Physical attractiveness may look skin-deep as a surface aspect of appearance, but looks can be deceiving. Researchers throughout the world collect empirical data complemented with anecdotal data to probe beyond the surfaces. Through investigations that meet meticulous scientific methodological procedures, acute observations reveal previously undetected dimensions that advance understanding about physical attractiveness. The Power and Paradox of Physical Attractiveness explores, discovers, and documents the theories, evidence, and circumstances in which physical attractiveness is a remarkable veneer with influences that extend considerably beyond what we call skin-deep. The author, Dr. Patzer, formally cites more than 750 references as he identifies a complex phenomenon in which physical attractiveness serves as an informational cue that propels a multiple-stage process. Through this process, people knowingly and unknowingly infer extensive information based on this cue, which in turn triggers assumptions, expectations, attitudes, and behaviors. It ultimately leads to powerful consequences with significant benefits and detriments for every person, accompanied by continuous pursuits toward these benefits and away from these detriments caused by his or her level of physical attractiveness.

Global Queer Plays Danish Sheikh, Jeton Neziraj, Raphaël Amahl Khouri, Jean-Luc Lagarce, Zhan Jie, Mariam Bazeed, Santiago Loza, 2018-12-10. A unique anthology bringing together stories of queer life from international playwrights, these seven plays showcase the dazzling multiplicity of queer narratives across the globe: the absurd, the challenging, and the joyful. From the legacy of colonialism in India to the farcical bureaucracy of marriage law in Kosovo, from a school counsellor in Taiwan coming out as HIV+ to coming of age in an Israel-Palestine coexistence camp, this is a genre-spanning collection of global writing. Contempt by Danish Sheikh, India 55 Shades of Gay by Jeton Neziraj (translated by Alexandra Channer), Kosovo: No Matter Where I Go by Amahl Khouri, Jordan: Only the End of the World by Jean-Luc Lagarce (translated by Lucie Tiberghien), France: Taste of Love by Zhan Jie (translated by Jeremy Tiang), Taiwan: Peace Camp by Mariam Bazeed, Egypt: Winter Animals by Santiago Loza (translated by Samuel Buggeln), and Argentina: Originally selected and performed as part of the Arcola Queer Collective's Global Queer Plays call out event. New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism, 2010.
