Gender Law And Justice In A Global Market Law In Context:

Gender, Law and Justice in a Global Market Ann Stewart,2011 Considers how law interacts with economic and social processes to create global gender injustices      Gender, Law and Justice in a Global Market Ann Stewart,2011-08-25 Theories of gender justice in the twenty first century must engage with global economic and social processes Using concepts from economic analysis associated with global commodity chains and feminist ethics of care Ann Stewart considers the way in which gender contracts relating to work and care contribute to gender inequalities worldwide She explores how economies in the global north stimulate desires and create deficits in care and belonging which are met through transnational movements and traces the way in which transnational economic processes discourses of rights and care create relationships between global south and north African women produce fruit and flowers for European consumption body workers migrate to meet deficits in affect through provision of care and sex British Asian families seek belonging through transnational marriages      Gender, Law and Justice in a Global Market Ann Stewart,2011 Considers how law interacts with economic and social processes to create global gender injustices      EU Law Stories Fernanda Nicola,Bill Davies,2017-05-29 This book retells the multiple stories behind the rulings of the European Court revealing their context their history and the legal and non legal strategies of their actors      Labour Law Hugh Collins,Keith Ewing,Aileen McColgan,2019-10-17 Written by prominent UK labour lawyers this textbook is comprehensive and engaging with detailed commentary and integrated materials      Principles of Property Law Alison Clarke,2020-06-11 Principles of Property Law offers a critical and contextual analysis of fundamental property law providing students with the tools to enable them to make sense of English land law rules in the context of real world applications This new book adopts a contextual approach placing the core elements of a qualifying law degree property and land law course in the context of general principles and practices as they have developed in the UK and other jurisdictions in response to a changing societal relationship with a variety of factors Also drawing on concepts of property developed by political theorists economists and environmentalists Principles of Property Law gives students a clear understanding of how property law works why it matters and how the theory connects with the real world Suitable for undergraduates studying property and land law in England Wales and Northern Ireland as well as postgraduate students seeking an accessible analysis      Law and the Relational Self Jonathan Herring,2019-11-21 This book promotes a relational understanding of the self It explores how law can be transformed by focusing on the promotion and protection of caring relationships rather than individual rights This offers a radical and profound re imagining of what law is about and what it should be trying to do It moves from the theoretical into offering practical examples of how the law could be developed to enhance relationships rather than undermine them      Fortin's Children's Rights and the Developing Law Jane Fortin,Rachel E. Taylor,2024-02-29 This text considers the developing law in England and Wales as it applies to the burgeoning and confusing subject of the rights of children It examines the extent to which the emerging legal principles can be harnessed to fulfil those rights      The Making Sense of Politics, Media, and Law Gary Watt,2023-04-13 From Trump s make America great again to Johnson s build back better performative politicians use The Making Sense to persuade their public audiences Law makers do it too A courtroom trial is a truth factory in which facts are not found but forged The court of popular opinion is another such factory though its processes are often flawed and its products faulty Where courts of law aim to make civil peace trial by Twitter makes civil strife Even in mainstream media journalists make news for public consumption so that all news is to an extent fake news In a world of making how can we separate craft from craftiness With insights from disciplines including law politics rhetoric media studies psychology sociology marketing and performance studies The Making Sense of Politics Media and Law offers a constructive way to approach controversies from transgender identity to cancel culture This title is also available as open access on Cambridge Core      Immigration and Refugee Law in Russia Agnieszka Kubal,2019-04-11 How do immigration and refugee laws work in action in Russia This book offers a complex empirical and nuanced understanding      Self, Others and the State Arlie Loughnan,2019-12-12 Criminal responsibility is now central to criminal law but it is in need of re examination In the context of Australian criminal laws Self Others and the State reassesses the general assumptions made about the rise to prominence of criminal responsibility in the period since around the turn of the twentieth century It reconsiders the role of criminal responsibility in criminal law arguing that criminal responsibility is significant because it organises key sets of relations between self others and the state as relations of responsibility Detailed studies of decisive moments and developments since the turn of the twentieth century and original explorations of relations of responsibility expose the complexity and dynamism of criminal responsibility and reveal that it is the means by which matters of subjectivity relationality and power make themselves felt in the criminal law

Dispute Processes Michael Palmer,Simon Roberts,2020-07-09 This new edition considers a wide range of materials dealing with dispute processes and current debates on civil justice      A Philosophical Introduction to Human Rights Thomas Mertens,2020-09-24 Provides students with an introduction to legal philosophy using the Universal Declaration of Human Rights to reflect on human rights      The Reasonable Person Valentin Jeutner,2024-06-06 The first comprehensive account of the history and function of the common law s reasonable person      Brexit, Union, and Disunion Sionaidh Douglas-Scott,2023-11-09 Provides a critical analysis of Brexit placing it in the broader context of the historical development of the British Constitution      Practising Self-Government Yash Ghai,2013-08-29 An examination of how the constitutional frameworks for autonomies around the world really work      Caring for Cultural Heritage Charlotte Woodhead,2023-11-23 A re evaluation of the UK s law on cultural heritage through the lens of the ethics of care      Tax and Government in the 21st Century Miranda Stewart,2022-09-08 A broad accessible evidence based analysis of tax law and how democratic tax states are confronting today s global digital challenges      Regulating the Sea Margherita Pieraccini,2022-12-22 This book is the first ever written on English marine conservation regulation from a socio legal perspective The monograph presents an in depth analysis of key aspects of Marine Protected Areas regulation in England offering the reader access to an under investigated field Such regulatory mapping is complemented by an interdisciplinary treatment of the subject exploring the relationship between people and marine parks through central themes in environmental social sciences and regulatory theory namely space rationalisation democracy and adaptation Thus the book is of interest to environmental lawyers and regulatory scholars but also to human geographers environmental sociologists and political scientists As the book provides critical reflections on current legal and regulatory structures it contains valuable insights for policymakers and regulators The book has a strong methodological basis drawing on in depth desk based research complemented by primary qualitative research conducted over a number of years Care, Migration and Human Rights Siobhán Mullally, 2015-02-11 The continuum of exploitation that has historically defined the everyday of domestic work exclusion from employment and social security standards and precarious migration status has frequently been neglected It is primarily the moments of crisis incidents of human trafficking slavery or forced labour that have captured the attention of human rights law Only recently has human rights law begun to address the structured inequalities and exclusions that define the domain of domestic work This book addresses the specific position of domestic workers in the context of evolving human rights norms Drawing upon a broad range of case studies this book presents a thorough examination of key issues such as the commodification of care the impact of the jurisprudence of the Court of Justice of the European Union and the European Court of Human Rights on primary care providers as well as the effect that trends in migration law have on migrant domestic workers This volume will be of interest to lawyers academics and policy makers in the fields of human rights migration and gender studies
