

CHAPTER 1 - JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

I. VIRGINIA'S JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The mission of Virginia's judicial system is to assure that disputes are resolved justly, promptly, and economically. The components necessary to discharge these functions are a court system unified in its structure and administration, competent, honest judges and court personnel, and uniform rules of practice and procedure.

The present system consists of four levels of courts: the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, the circuit courts, and the district courts. In addition, magistrates serve as judicial officers with authority to issue various types of processes. The courts are organized into 31 judicial circuits and 32 similar judicial districts. More than 2,600 people, including judges, clerks, and magistrates, work within the judicial branch of government to provide the citizens of the Commonwealth prompt and efficient service.

II. SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA

The Supreme Court of Virginia is the highest court in the Commonwealth consisting of a Chief Justice and six (6) Justices. The Supreme Court of Virginia is frequently referred to as the "court of last resort." It has both original and appellate jurisdiction, but its primary purpose is to review decisions of lower courts from which appeals have been allowed.

The Supreme Court of Virginia receives, processes, and maintains permanent records of all appeals and other official documents filed with the court. The office also maintains a list of qualified attorneys and other administrative records.

Administration of the court system in Virginia is the responsibility of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the chief judges of the circuit and district courts. The Office of the Executive Secretary to the Supreme Court assists the Chief Justice in the administration of the judicial branch of government. Major activities of the Office of the Executive Secretary include maintaining liaison with, and providing support to each of the branches of government in matters affecting the courts and providing appropriate coordination, supervision, and administrative support for operations and systems within the court and magistrate systems. More information on the responsibilities of the Office of the Executive Secretary is provided later in this chapter.

III. COURT OF APPEALS

The Court of Appeals of Virginia provides for intermediate appellate review of all decisions of the circuit court in traffic cases and in criminal cases. Before a criminal or traffic case may be reviewed by the Court of Appeals, a petition for appeal must first be filed through the circuit court. The Court of Appeals does not review decisions involving the death penalty.
