Pavillon des sessions, 2001 Pending the opening of the Musée du Quai Branly in 2004 this Pavillon des Sessions display represents the first step towards realising the ambition stated by the President of the Republic namely to endow France with a modern institution dedicated to the arts and civilisations of Africa Asia the Pacific Islands and the Americas

BOOK JACKET La collection africaine d'Alberto Magnelli Laurence Bourgade, 1995 Tribal Art, 2009 Quarterly journal of the art culture and history of traditional peoples and Old World civilizations

An Anthology of African Art N'Goné Fall, Jean-Loup Pivin, 2002 The term Modern African Art is not an abuse of language The 20th century has seen but not properly documented the birth development and maturation of contemporary art in sub-Saharan Africa an art which was not simply imported in the 1950s but which finds its sources both in colonial realities and in local cultures and civilizations Anthology of African Art The Twentieth Century does not propose to document any one African art but rather to open up this vast but underexplored field to include a diverse theoretical historical geographical and critical map of this dense and ancient region Contributions by more than 30 international authors recount the birth of art schools in the 1930s the development of urban design and public art and the importance of socially concerned art during the Independence movements From Ethiopia Nigeria and the Belgian Congo to Ghana Senegal and Angola through the works of hundreds of artists working in every conceivable medium and context this anthology manages the continental and unique feat of providing a thorough expansive diversified and fully illustrated history of African art in the 20th century Since 1991 Paris based Revue Noire Editions has dedicated itself to the multidisciplinary artistic production of the African continent and the African diaspora Publishers of the critically acclaimed An Anthology of African Photography a comprehensive chronicle of African photography from the mid 1800s to the present Revue Noire also produces a self titled magazine devoted to contemporary African art and culture

African Forms Laure Meyer, 2001 Illuminates an aspect of African art that has largely been neglected by other books African sculptures and art can be difficult to decipher because they are more than tokens of art for art s sake African art is often based on religious and philosophical values It is created not just for the patron but for the entire community using a language of form to help the society to understand what cannot otherwise be put into words Through an enlightening analysis of some continent s most emblematic artifacts this book decodes African art by putting it in the context of the broader culture It is thematically organized around key motifs to help you fully understand African art 150 colour illustrations

The World of Tribal Arts ,1997 Affinities of Form Diane Pelrine, Portland Museum of Art, 1996 This is both a study of the art of collecting and a look at the objects in the Wielgus collection of arts from Africa Oceania and the Americas The book examines the motives that led Raymond Wielgus to become a collector and puts the Wielgus collection i
