Counseling and Psychotherapy with Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians Geoffrey W. Sutton, 2020-09-17 The purpose of this book is to help mental health professionals increase their cultural competence to better serve Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians who are congregants in the world's fastest growing religious movement My focus is twofold First I aim to increase the reader's awareness and knowledge about Christians who live their faith within Pentecostal cultures Second I hope to increase the reader's knowledge about the assessment and treatment of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians with mental health needs based on a review of research and recommendations from experienced clinicians My approach to assessment and treatment is the commonly held view that best practices are holistic Therefore I will attempt to integrate Pentecostal and Charismatic spirituality with assessment and treatment in ways that respect the spirituality of the person seeking treatment and enhances therapeutic outcomes The first part of the book can help all readers understand people who live into that religion The second part of the book is a practical and insightful guide to effective helping for psychological difficulties I highly recommend this book to anyone who seeks to understand and help Pentecostals and Charismatics Everett L. Worthington Jr Commonwealth Professor Emeritus a well written comprehensive and very helpful guide to understanding and counseling Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians It is a substantial and unique contribution to Christian counseling and also to the field of counseling and psychotherapy I highly recommend it as essential reading for everyone interested or involved in counseling Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians Rev Siang Yang Tan PhD Senior Professor of Psychology Fuller Theological Seminary and author of Counseling and Psychotherapy A Christian Perspective and Shepherding God's People a must read not only for Pentecostal and Charismatic counselors but for anyone in the mental health field Tony Richie D Min Ph D Associate Professor of Theology Pentecostal Theological Seminary Cleveland TN

Meditation as Spiritual Therapy Matthew McWhorter, Matthew R. McWhorter, 2024 Christian persons today might seek spiritual development and ponder the benefit of mindfulness exercises but also maintain concerns if they perceive such exercises to originate from other religious traditions Such persons may not be aware of a long tradition of meditation practice in Christianity that promotes personal growth This spiritual tradition receives a careful formulation by Christian monastic authors in the twelfth century One such teaching on meditation is found in the treatise De consideratione written by St Bernard of Clairvaux d 1153 to Pope Eugene III d 1153 In textual passages where St Bernard exhibits a clear concern for the mental health of the Pope due to numerous ongoing ecclesial political and military problems St Bernard reminds Eugene III of his original monastic vocation and the meditation exercises associated with that vocation The advice that St Bernard gives to Eugene III can be received today in a way that provides a structure for Christian meditation practice which is relevant for personal development spiritual direction and civil psychotherapy that integrates a client's spirituality into the course of treatment St Bernard thus might be interpreted as a teacher of a kind of Christian mindfulness that can benefit both a person's mental health as well as a person's relationship with God Meditation as Spiritual Therapy examines the historical context of Bernard's work his purpose for writing it as well as the numerous Christian sources he drew upon to formulate his teaching Bernard's teaching on the course of meditation itself is explored in depth and in dialogue with his other treatises letters and sermons Lastly a contemporary summary of Bernard's teaching is provided with reflections concerning the relationship of this teaching to contemporary spiritual direction and spiritually integrated civil psychotherapy

Psychology and Psychotherapy in the Perspective of Christian Anthropology Nicolene L. Joubert, Dorothy du

Plessis,2018-12-07 A view of human nature generally forms part of the assumptions that undergird psychological theories and psychotherapeutic approaches In this book Christian anthropology is articulated as a foundation for the theories approaches and techniques applied in practice by its contributors Various essays from European based practitioners in the fields of psychology psychotherapy and counselling are included here These authors draw scientific knowledge from the fields of psychology and psychotherapy focusing on intra psychic aspects of human functioning such as emotions drives and cognitions as well as interpersonal and eco systemic functioning In addition to this the authors consider spirituality as an intrinsic part of humanity through which persons seek meaning and transcendence and that influences physical and mental health Spiritual insight is gained from the field of theology with specific reference to the Christian faith tradition As a wide range of topics contexts and cultural and ecumenical backgrounds are covered in this book many practitioners in mental health care and counselling should benefit from the knowledge ideas and practical experience shared here

Counseling More Christ Centered Rick W. Marrs Ph.D.,2019-09-13 Many Christian counselors and pastors want to bring Christ s Gospel and forgiveness into their soul care but don t know how Luther s very Christ centered theology based in his desire for care of souls can provide us with that foundation Various techniques flowing from that foundation are shared

Martin Luther formulated his proclamation of the message of Scripture for his contemporaries between the poles of God's voice in the pages of the Bible and the needs and afflictions of his hearers and readers. Marrs brings twenty-first century readers into that exchange and demonstrates how Luther's insights into the gospel of Jesus Christ help bring healing and comfort to those struggling with guilt, shame, fear, loneliness, and other spiritual afflictions in our day. This volume provides those who are engaged in conversation with the troubled and distressed rich resources for fostering peace and joy in the midst of such trouble and distress.

Robert Kolb, PhD, professor of systematic theology emeritus, Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, USA: If all good theology is pastoral in its orientation, then this groundbreaking practical biblical study is well worth careful consideration by any pastor or Christian counsellor. In it, Marrs engages in a conversation with the teaching of Luther as a Christ-centered pastoral theologian and the practical insights of psychologists on the personal care of their clients, with a special emphasis on Luther's insistence on the need to distinguish between law and gospel in the proper application of God's gracious word with the delivery of soul care to God's people.

John W. Kleinig, PhD, Professor Emeritus, Australian Lutheran College, University of Divinity, Adelaide, South Australia: The Struggle Is Real. Dr. Tim Clinton, 2017-09-21. 20% of Americans suffer from a diagnosable mental illness. Divorce is epidemic. Abuse of all kinds is rampant. Suicidality is at an all-time high. Domestic violence is out of control. Cohabitation and out-of-wedlock births are at unprecedented levels. Addictions are more widespread than ever. These and many other problems confront our culture today in alarming proportions. Consequently, mental and relational health issues find their way home to everyone's home. People with these and other concerns typically turn first to the church for help. Yet most churches are not equipped to adequately minister to the depth and magnitude of these overwhelming problems. This book was created as a comprehensive resource to provide the church with practical tools to care for these hurting people in a biblically sound and emotionally healthy way. We at the American Association of Christian Counselors hope and pray this book finds its way into the hands of every pastor, church leader, counselor, and Christian caregiver in America. Because the struggle is real, the struggle is real indeed. This is a lineup of experienced healers and caring writers. It will be a valuable resource for the field of mental and emotional health for years to come.

John Ortberg, PhD, Senior Pastor of Menlo Church, Menlo Park, CA: Clinical Psychologist and best-selling author. People everywhere are hurting, including those inside the church. Written by a team of experts, this important resource is designed to shine the wonderful and liberating light of the gospel into the dark and difficult areas of people's lives. What's here will heal. You need this book, and the people you love need it too.

Johnnie Moore, Founder, The KAIROS Company: People today are struggling in ways that only the church can help. The Struggle is Real is an excellent resource for equipping ministry leaders and counselors alike to meet this most pressing need.

Rev. Samuel Rodriguez, president of the National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference: I heartily recommend The Struggle Is Real. Clinton and Pingleton have provided exactly what the church needs.

Jeremiah J. Johnston, PhD, President, Christian Thinkers Society, Professor, Houston Baptist University: We are not

fine the people we serve are not fine we all struggle This book is an invaluable resource for helping us minister to people who need our understanding Greg Surratt Founding Pastor Seacoast Church Mount Pleasant SC President Association of Related Churches ARC In this book Tim Clinton and Jared Pingleton provide a solid guide to better understand the issues and dynamics of trouble that people experience and how to effectively minister to them George O Wood P Th D J D former General Superintendent The General Council of the Assemblies of God Healthy Depression Kenyon C. Knapp,2023-05-25 Depression is the most common mental health struggle on earth but before we treat it it helps to determine if it is the illness or the symptom There are some depressions that are biologically based and others that are situational and some that are based on a lack of meaning and purpose in life This book will help you figure out if you have the sufficient meaning and purpose in your life that serves as a protective factor when the hard times inevitably come We will examine how depression can be a sign of health and how you can find meaning and purpose in your life Counseling Techniques

Zondervan,2018-10-16 Counseling Techniques provides a useful resource for any type of counseling practitioner Presenting a wide variety of the most effective and commonly used techniques associated with various diagnoses theoretical bases and client populations it offers experienced therapists and students alike a single trustworthy resource for clinical reference and guidance Each chapter includes a user friendly step by step explanation of the techniques covered Sections survey the following Basic types of techniques cognitive behavioral experiential and more Techniques for children adolescents adults couples and families Techniques for a wide variety of individual and family issues including emotional dysregulation shame loss sexual abuse trauma domestic violence attachment wounds and much more Featuring a lineup of top notch highly experienced counselors and thoroughly integrated with a Christian worldview Counseling Techniques will equip therapists and students in various helping disciplines for the frequent clinical issues that arise in all forms of counseling Lay Counseling, Revised and Updated Siang-Yang Tan, Eric T. Scalise,2016-10-11 This one of a kind resource provides pastors church leaders and non professional counselors with everything they need to establish a program for lay counseling This new edition has been thoroughly revised and updated in light of fresh research and outlines a practical training resource that can be used to train and equip lay counselors Filled with useful forms and questionnaires it also provides a helpful and comprehensive survey of the programs and resources that are currently available A Theology of Biblical Counseling

Heath Lambert,2016-04-05 A landmark textbook for Christian counselors that unpacks the core theological convictions behind sound counseling and outlines practical wisdom for counseling today Since the beginning of the biblical counseling movement in 1970 biblical counselors have argued that counseling is a ministry of the Word just like preaching or missions As a ministry counseling must be defined according to sound biblical theology rather than secular principles of psychology For over four decades biblical theology has been at the core of the biblical counseling movement Leaders in biblical counseling have emphasized a commitment to teaching doctrine in their counseling courses out of the conviction that good theology leads to good counseling and bad theology leads to bad counseling A Theology of Biblical Counseling is an ideal resource for use in training biblical counselors at colleges seminaries and training institutes In each chapter doctrine comes to life in real ministry to real people dramatically demonstrating how theology intersects with the lives of actual counselees

Shepherding God's People Siang-Yang Tan,2019-07-16 This comprehensive textbook on pastoral ministry for pastors church leaders and students articulates a biblical model for shepherding God s people Written by a leading psychologist and seminary professor who has served as a pastor for more than two decades the book covers twelve major areas of pastoral ministry highlights the essential work of the Holy Spirit and focuses on the personal and family life of the pastor It includes cross cultural perspectives of special interest in our diverse world and a foreword by John Ortberg Group Leadership

Skills Mei-whei Chen,Christopher Rybak,2017-10-26 Drawing on extensive teaching and clinical experience this book discusses how therapists can bring about change in group settings using a well developed organizing framework that utilizes interpersonal processes Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White,2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice
