

Closing Prayer For A Prayer Service

Gracious God, we thank you for this time of worship. We have been blessed by your presence, and we are grateful for your guidance. We ask that you continue to watch over us and protect us. Help us to live our lives in a way that honors you each day.

We ask that you bring peace to those who are in conflict, and that you heal those who are sick. We pray for the needs of our community, our nation, and our world.

Guide us all safely home and may we take what you have given us here and let it be lived out in our actions and words throughout this week. In the name of Jesus I pray on behalf of all gathered here, Amen.

What if the way we worship isn't just an expression of our faith but is what shapes our faith The Church has believed this about the way we worship and pray together for centuries The way we worship becomes the way we believe But if this is true it's time to take a closer look at what we say and sing and do each week Drawing from his own discovery of ancient worship practices Glenn Packiam helps us understand why the Church made creedal proclamations and Psalm praying a regular part of their worship He shares about why the Eucharist was the climactic point of their corporate retelling of the salvation story When our worship becomes a rich feast our faith is nourished and no longer anemic The more our worship speaks of Christ the more we enter into the mystery of faith Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1896 In His Footsteps:
