8.D1: Roots of the Cold War

-How did the map of Europe change after WWII?

After WWII, the European continent including Russia, greatly changed. Soviet Union gained support from Moscow. Western European countries generally regained their freedom and self governance/sovereignty.

-What is a Cold War?

As a Cold War, the two nations are not fighting directly. Instead, they spend money on military and technology. They also often support other nations that fight for to gain power or control/expand into the other side.

Why were the United States and Soviet Union so different?

US Government	United States	Soviet Union
Structure	Legislative (House/Senate)	Legislative (Soviet Union)
	After World War II, the US focused on their economic system of capitalism, believing that it would free themselves from the economic system and that the communist governments would provide political power for the world beyond society and culture.	After World War II, the Soviet Union focused on their economic system of capitalism and that would always need up making advantage of the plan. They were determined to keep the world's dominant economy.
