Qualitative Research: Data Collection & Data Analysis Techniques (UUM Press) Radziah Abdul Rahim, R.

Sivabala Naidu, Mastura Badzis, Noor Fadhilah Mat Nayan, Noor Hashima Abd Aziz, 2008-01-01 Qualitative Research Data Collection Data Analysis Techniques is especially written for anyone who is interested in doing or learning more about qualitative research methods The reader friendly organisation and writing style of the book makes it accessible to everyone academics professionals undergraduates postgraduates researchers and even for those who are just beginning to explore the field of qualitative research Each chapter provides a clear contextualized and comprehensive coverage of the main qualitative research methods interviews focus groups observations diary studies archival document and content analysis and will thus equip readers with a thorough understanding of the steps and skills to undertake qualitative research effectively Bringing together qualitative research scholars from three different tertiary institutions in the country Associate Prof Dr Puvensvary Muthiah Dr Radziah Abdul Rahim Puan Noor Hashima Abd Aziz and Noor Fadhilah Mat Nayan from Universiti Utara Malaysia UUM Assoc Prof Dr Mastura Badzis from Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris UPSI and R Sivabala Naidu from Darulaman Teacher Training Institute this book addresses some of the most important questions facing students and researchers in qualitative research Enhancing Student-Centred Teaching in Higher Education Karen Gravett, Nadya Yakovchuk, Ian M. Kinchin, 2020-01-22 This book explores student staff partnerships through a breadth of co authored research projects There is a significant gap in current literature regarding student staff partnerships both in the sharing of examples as well as in the examination of partnership working and its impact Organised into four thematic sections the editors and contributors highlight the diversity of routes students and staff can take to work in partnership as well as how research learning and teaching can be co created Written by both university staff and student researchers the chapters consider the benefits of student staff partnerships as an antidote to consumerist visions of higher education and a way of celebrating the potential of students and their voices This book will be of interest and value to scholars of student staff partnerships Interactional Research Into Problem-Based Learning Susan M. Bridges, Rintaro Imafuku, 2020-08-15 Problem based learning PBL has been deployed as a student centered instructional approach and curriculum design in a wide range of academic fields across the world The majority of educational research to date has focused on knowledge based outcomes addressing why PBL is useful Researchers of PBL are developing a growing interest in qualitative research with a process driven orientation to examining learning interactions It is essential to broaden this research base so as to support PBL designs and approaches to leading students into higher order thinking and a deeper approach to learning Interactional Research Into Problem Based Learning explores how students learn in an inquiry led approach such as PBL Included are studies that focus on learning in situ and go beyond measuring the outcomes of PBL The goal is to further expand the PBL research base of qualitative investigations examining the social dimension and lived experience of teaching and learning within the PBL process A second aim of this volume is to shed light on the methodological aspects of researching PBL adding new perspectives to the current trends in qualitative studies on PBL Chapters cover ethnographic approaches to video analysis introspective protocols such as stimulated recall and longitudinal qualitative studies using discourse based analytic approaches Specifically this book will further contribute to the current educational research both theoretically and empirically in the following key areas students learning processes in PBL over time and across contexts the nature of quality interactions in PBL tutorials the inter cultural aspects of learning in PBL facilitation processes and group dynamics in synchronous and asynchronous face to face and blended PBL and the developing nature of PBL learner identity

Psychology in Education Tim Corcoran, 2014-05-13 Psychology's contribution to education has produced a persuasive and burgeoning literature willing to measure e.g. intelligence quotients categorise e.g. learning and/or behavioural difficulties and pathologise e.g. psychiatric disorders students across learning contexts Practices like these pervade relationships existing between psychology and education because they share in common certain views of people and the worlds in which they learn There is however increased acknowledgement that contemporary practice demands alternate ways of working As learning communities and educators endeavour to make a difference in people's lives they are critically questioning how their use of psychology in education constitutes future possibilities for personhood and psychosocial action In this book a group of respected international scholars examine controversies presently facing the enduring relationship between psychology and education The book will appeal to readers who are interested in the innovative development and application of psychological theories and practices in to education The book will be of interest to transnational audiences and is accessible to scholars and students in disciplines including psychology education sociology social work youth studies public and allied health The volume includes contributions from Tom Billington Christopher Boyle Lise Bird Claiborne Tim Corcoran Greg Goodman Jack Martin Athanasios Marvakis and Ioanna Petrtsi Jace Pillay Isaac Prilleltensky Anna Stetsenko Jeff Sugarman and Stephen Vassallo with a Foreword by Ben Bradley Tim Corcoran is Senior Research Fellow and Senior Lecturer in Critical Psychology at The Victoria Institute Victoria University Melbourne Australia He has extensive experience in educational psychology both as a school psychologist and researcher academic His work has involved teaching research and professional practice in Australia the UK Singapore and Iraq

Exploring Disciplinary Teaching Excellence in Higher Education Marion Heron, Laura Barnett, Kieran Balloo, 2021-08-13 This book explores disciplinary teaching excellence through a diverse range of student staff partnership research projects Despite being a highly contested term teaching excellence is something that universities aspire to and are expected to have However the editors and contributors argue that not only are definitions of excellence often broad and generic but they lack nuanced understandings of disciplinary excellence in higher education This book begins by unpacking some of these contested definitions of teaching excellence followed by a series of co authored chapters produced by students and staff who have undertaken research projects where they examine teaching excellence in their respective disciplinary areas These chapters demonstrate that teaching excellence may be better understood as a process of becoming that is achieved through partnership between teachers and students This book will be of interest and value to students educators and policy makers concerned about teaching excellence as well as scholars of student staff partnerships

Facilitating Student Learning and Engagement in Higher Education through Assessment Rubrics

Peter Grainger, Katie Weir, 2020-01-13 Despite significant reforms in the past decade in relation to criteria and standards based assessment in tertiary education contexts assessment remains the most significantly criticised aspect of the student tertiary experience and a major driver of student engagement The key tool in this experience is the rubric also known as the criteria sheet or the Guide to Making Judgments This book discusses the significance of assessment rubrics in tertiary education Assessment rubrics impact the student experience in multiple ways as a guide to students and assessors prior to grading at the point of grading by the assessor when moderating during the post grading process in providing an additional guide to students in the assessment planning stage and as a feedback mechanism to students once results are released This book explains how the rubric reflects key principles of assessment It explores different models of rubrics used in tertiary contexts and provides data from students and academics on the efficacy of these various models as the key tool when marking moderating and providing feedback It also details exemplars of rubrics used in academic disciplines and discusses how higher education teachers use exemplars and how they integrate exemplars with criteria and rubrics It captures the student voice by explaining how students use rubrics for self assessment and self regulation purposes A key inclusion is the importance of sessional staff input into the creation of assessment rubrics prior to the grading moderating and feedback processes
