Closure The Rush To End Grief And What It Costs Us:

Closure Nancy Berns, 2011-08-05 When it comes to the end of a relationship the loss of a loved one or even a national tragedy we are often told we need closure But while some people do find closure for their pain and grief many more feel closure does not exist and believe the notion only promises false hopes Sociologist Nancy Berns explores these ideas and their ramifications in her timely book Closure Berns uncovers the various interpretations and contradictory meanings of closure She identifies six types of closure talk revealing closure as a socially constructed concept a new emotion Berns also explores how closure has been applied widely in popular media and how the idea has been appropriated as a political tool and to sell products and services This book explains how the push for closure whether we find it helpful engaging or enraging is changing our society

The Myth of Closure: Ambiguous Loss in a Time of Pandemic and Change Pauline Boss, 2021-12-14 How do we begin to cope with loss that cannot be resolved The COVID 19 pandemic has left many of us haunted by feelings of anxiety despair and even anger In this book pioneering therapist Pauline Boss identifies these vague feelings of distress as caused by ambiguous loss losses that remain unclear and hard to pin down and thus have no closure Collectively the world is grieving as the pandemic continues to change our everyday lives With a loss of trust in the world as a safe place a loss of certainty about health care education employment lingering anxieties plague many of us even as parts of the world are opening back up again Yet after so much loss our search must be for a sense of meaning and not something as elusive and impossible as closure This book provides many strategies for coping encouraging us to increase our tolerance of ambiguity and acknowledging our resilience as we express a normal grief and still look to the future with hope and possibility

The Deritualization of Death Charles Lynn Gibson, 2019-10-15 The problematic field of investigation for this study was for the care of bereaved human beings in the context of significant cultural shifts now shaping the twenty first century Deritualization was identified as a significant interdisciplinary concern that contributes to potential distress in processes of grieving The objective of the research was the development of a practical theology of compassionate caregiving for the bereaved with deference to the problem of deritualization The theoretical framework was guided by the Oxford Interdisciplinary Research model and the Loyola Institute of Ministries model of practical theology The study was designed for applied research for funeral directors and vocational pastors utilizing qualitative research methods Hermeneutical and empirical components addressed six research questions through two domains of inquiry disciplinary perspectives and educational dynamics of bereavement caregiving Using the method of hermeneutics to critically evaluate the first two research questions three disciplinary fields of knowledge were examined and integrated from the perspective of pastoral care funeral service bereavement psychology and practical theology Each discipline individually converged upon meaningful caregiving meaning reconstruction and meaning reframing as significant modes of bereavement care Using ethnographic semi structured interviews to critically evaluate the remaining four research questions data were collected from a Christian university and a mortuary college The interview questionnaire included twenty five main questions organized in four parts Philosophy of Education Hermeneutics of Bereaved Families Care of Bereaved Families and Encounter of Bereaved Families The study utilized two cycles of qualitative coding techniques to report the findings of each participating school A hybrid form of in vivo and holistic coding as well as a second cycle of pattern coding distilled the interview responses into actionable statements that reinforced bereavement caregiving By synthesizing all of the findings a compelling case was made for a paradigm of comforting presence supported by principles from a Louwian perspective of practical theology including theological anthropology promissiotherapy bipolarity and hermeneutics The study connected a philosophy of meaning reframing and a paradigm of comforting presence to a meta theoretical framework within a narrative approach to care The research elucidated an interdisciplinary understanding that contributed toward a compassionate practical theology of caregiving for the bereaved

Grief Is a Journey Kenneth J. Doka, 2017-04-18 Doka explores a new compassionate way to grieve as he explains that grief is not an illness to get over but an individual and ongoing journey He upends the dominant but incorrect view that grief proceeds by stages and helps us realize that our experiences following a death are far more individual and much less predictable than the conventional five stages model would have us believe Doka also explains how to cope with disenfranchised grief not so readily recognized or supported by society such as the death of ex spouses the end of a friendship job loss or infertility

Break-ups & Breakthroughs Lisa Messenger, 2018-09-01 The days and weeks after a break up are a tangled hot mess of pain and uncertainty You can't eat You can't sleep You don't know where to put yourself You don't know how to be But no matter how difficult ugly or toxic the last season has been there is healing and wholeness coming your way so you can breathe smile laugh and hope again This book from bestselling author Lisa Messenger penned after she endured her own difficult break up is the perfect collection of ideas and strategies gathered over many years to help you put yourself back together again with just the right amount of kindness humour and tough love to help you reach a place of peace and purpose

"Save My Kid" Amanda M. Gengler, 2020-01-21 A frank analysis of the medical and emotional inequalities that pervade the healthcare process for critically ill children Families who have a child with a life threatening illness face a daunting road ahead of them one that not only upends their everyday lives but also strikes at the very heart of parenthood In Save My Kid Amanda M Gengler traces the emotional difficulties these families navigate as they confront a fundamentally unequal healthcare system in the United States Gengler reveals the unrecognized everyday inequalities tangled up in the process of seeking medical care showing how different families manage their children's critical illnesses She also uncovers the role that emotional goals deeply rooted in the culture of illness and medicine play in medical decision making healthcare interactions and the end of children's lives A deeply compassionate read Save My Kid is an inside look at inequality in healthcare among those with the most at stake book explores the identity of Texas as a state with a large and severe penal system. It does so by assessing the narratives at work in Texas museums and tourist sites associated with prisons and punishment. In such cultural institutions complex narratives are presented which show celebratory stories of Texan toughness in the penal sphere as well as poignant stories about the witnessing of executions, comical stories that normalize the harsher aspects of Texan punishment and presentations about prison officers who have lost their lives in the war on crime. In analysing these representations the book shows that Texan history plays an important role in the production of Texan self identity and that to understand the Texan commitment to harsh punishment we must be prepared to focus on Texan myths and memories. Prisons and Punishment in Texas draws on diverse interdisciplinary work including criminology, cultural studies about Southern values as well as research on cultural memory and dark tourism. Museums are shown to be under researched sites of criminological significance which offer rich evidence through which penal imaginaries and the cultural role of punishment can be explored. The book will be of great interest to criminologists as well as scholars of sociology, cultural studies, museum studies and politics.

Not Now, Cancer, I'm Busy Melissa Trevathan-Minnis, Deanne Meeks Brown, 2022-11-15 Synopsis Are you or is someone you love facing a cancer diagnosis in the prime of life? You're not alone. The likelihood of developing cancer in one's lifetime is 1 in 2 for males and 1 in 3 for females and the numbers are rising. A cancer diagnosis at any age is traumatic but young to middle aged adults who are often raising or planning for children, establishing careers and getting on their financial feet face unique challenges. When cancer strikes this group can become overwhelmed by navigating treatment options, mounting debt from medical bills, threats to fertility and the necessity of facing one's mortality. It can become a mental battle ground. In Not Now, Cancer, I'm Busy Melissa Trevathan Minnis and Deanne Meeks Brown offer research resources and support to help you overcome the psychological trauma of cancer. Sharing their own personal stories along with insights from other young cancer survivors, these two mental health professionals guide you through the rollercoaster of emotions from diagnosis and treatment to transitioning back to life post treatment. While the challenges of cancer survivorship are many, so are the coping strategies available to help promote recovery and well being. Not Now, Cancer, I'm Busy addresses cancer through the lens of mental health and offers strategies to not only cope with the challenges of cancer but to build a life full of meaning and intention despite them. From developing a fighting spirit and learning how to slow down to breaking down barriers to mental health and spiritual growth, this book will help you tap into your personal strengths and resilience. Although a cancer diagnosis in early and midlife can be earth shattering, the trauma of cancer can actually leave you stronger and better equipped if you let it.

WORDS OF PRAISE: OMG This is a fabulous book the one everyone dealing with cancer has been waiting for. While the book is specifically addressed to YMA's (Young and Middle Adults) it is an exhaustive compendium of experience, issues and directions for all those touched in any way by cancer: victims, survivors, family, friends and the rest of us who care in one way or another. From diagnosis to survivorship or to disability and death, Melissa and Deanne offer amazingly comprehensive research suggestions and enlightenment at every step of the journey they take us on Most interesting to me as a psychologist psychoanalyst and survivor of cancer at age 21 are the sections on post traumatic growth developing a personal narrative and the progression from surviving to thriving Not Now Cancer is an absolute triumph by two people who artfully weave their personal thriving experiences of themselves and of their families and friends with a wealth of incredible details of their cancer experiences that are equally well applicable to people of all ages who are faced with life threatening diagnoses or circumstances Congratulations Melissa and Deanne and thanks Lawrence Hedges PhD PsyD ABPP Director the Listening Perspectives Study Center

The Astructural Bias Charge Gil Richard Musolf, 2016-08-02 This collection of outstanding essays addresses the concern of an astructural bias Contemporary interactionists and their critics social theorists and students of sociology who are interested in assessing the ability of SI to fully address the social circumstances and social problems of an increasingly precarious world should read this book

An Invitation to the Sociology of Emotions Scott Harris, 2024-02-01 Unique in its approach An Invitation to the Sociology of Emotions treats neophytes as its primary audience giving students a brief but thorough introduction to the sociology of emotions Including research examples exercises and lists of further reading this text explains as clearly as possible some of the most interesting theoretical concepts that animate sociological research on emotions In this new edition the author updates the volume with recent research on emotion management emotional labor and emotions in social media

Exploring Emotions in Social Life Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2023-08-18 This volume presents a broad range of studies on a variety of emotions from social scientific perspectives Bringing together scholars from disciplines including sociology psychology anthropology and philosophy it examines emotions including desire empathy freedom happiness hate disgust humiliation guilt unemotionality and despair exploring the main facets of these emotions and considering the ways in which they are manifested and folded into our cultural and social lives It will therefore appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in emotion affect and contemporary culture

Narrative Productions of Meanings Donileen R. Loseke, 2019-04-08 In Narrative Productions of Meanings Exploring the Work of Stories in Social Life Donileen R Loseke examines the importance of stories in an anti science anti fact era where a multitude of personal social and political problems surround meaning This book s basic argument is that within such a world narrative productions of meaning are particularly important because stories can appeal simultaneously to thinking feeling and moral evaluation and because they can do this in ways that have cultural interactional and personal dimensions This book develops a framework for social science examinations of narrative it outlines relationships between stories storytelling and culture and it explores the characteristics of several types of stories including self stories stories that persuade mass audiences that public resources are required to resolve intolerable conditions and stories that justify the contents of public policy It concludes with relationships between stories and democratic politics In multiple ways this analysis crosses common divides It draws from literature spanning multiple disciplines it treats thinking feeling and moral evaluation as inseparable it bridges cultural and social psychological perspectives and it demonstrates relationships between story structure and the work people do with stories Narrating Estrangement Lisa P. Z. Spinazola, David F. Purnell, 2022-05-09 The stories in Narrating Estrangement Autoethnographies of Writing Of f Family demonstrate the pain anguish and even relief felt by those who contemplate estranging or who are estranged whether by choice or circumstance Despite the social assumptions persisting about the everlasting nature of family relationships when people make the complicated and often difficult decision to disconnect from family members they experience shame stigma and isolation because of social pressures to maintain those relationships at all costs Each contributor uses the act of storytelling and the autoethnographic mode of scholarship and writing to find clarity in their individual unique and complex situations Several authors explorations restore some of what they have lost through estrangement such as a sense of identity emotional health and well being and feelings of belonging due to the breakdowns in social and family support systems meant to be unconditional and permanent The stories display the wide array of reasons why family members become estranged delving into different types of estrangement permanent and or intermittent In doing so the writers in this book demonstrate that family relationships are neither easily categorized nor neatly ended their impact on an individual s life continues and changes even in and through estrangement This book adds to the ongoing scholarly conversations about family estrangement for students and researchers interested in autoethnography and qualitative inquiry in a wide range of disciplines in the social sciences healthcare and communication studies The Cambridge Handbook of Social Problems: A. Javier

Treviño, 2018-03-22 The introduction of the Affordable Care Act in the United States the increasing use of prescription drugs and the alleged abuse of racial profiling by police are just some of the factors contributing to twenty first century social problems The Cambridge Handbook of Social Problems offers a wide ranging roster of the social problems currently pressing for attention and amelioration Unlike other works in this area it also gives great consideration to theoretical and methodological discussions This Handbook will benefit both undergraduate and graduate students eager to understand the sociology of social problems It is suitable for classes in social problems current events and social theory Featuring the most current research the Handbook provides an especially useful resource for sociologists and graduate students conducting research Reluctant Witnesses Arlene Stein, 2014-08-04 Americans now learn about the Holocaust in high school watch films about it on television and visit museums dedicated to preserving its memory But for the first two decades following the end of World War II discussion of the destruction of European Jewry was largely absent from American culture and the tragedy of the Holocaust was generally seen as irrelevant to non Jewish Americans Today the Holocaust is widely recognized as a universal moral touchstone In Reluctant Witnesses sociologist Arlene Stein herself the daughter of a Holocaust survivor mixes memoir history and sociological analysis to tell the story of the rise of Holocaust consciousness in the United States from the perspective of survivors and their descendants If survivors tended to see Holocaust storytelling as mainly a private affair their children who reached adulthood during the heyday of identity politics reclaimed their hidden family histories and transformed them into public stories Reluctant Witnesses documents how a group of people who had previously been unrecognized and misunderstood managed to find its voice It tells this story in relation to the changing status of trauma and victimhood in American culture At a time when a sense of Holocaust fatigue seems to be setting in and when the remaining survivors are at the end of their lives it affirms that confronting traumatic memories and catastrophic histories can help us make our world mean something beyond ourselves

Fitness Doping Jesper Andreasson, Thomas Johansson, 2019-06-25 This book compiles several years of multi faceted qualitative research on fitness doping to provide a fresh insight into how the growing phenomenon intersects with issues of gender body and health in contemporary society Drawing on biographical interviews as well as online and offline ethnography Andreasson and Johansson analyse how in the context of the global development of gym and fitness culture particular doping trajectories are formulated and users come into contact with doping They also explore users internalisation of particular values practices and communications and analyse how this influences understandings of the self health gender and the body as well as tying this into wider beliefs regarding individual freedom and the law This insight into doping goes beyond elite and organised sports and will be of interest to students and scholars across the sociology of sport leisure studies and gender and body politics
