That day, after the audience has really felt it, it makes the audience question themselves and their place. What is essential to reflect on the current situation. That current situation is political question because of their political belief. The day is the day. "The morning we could be confident that the day of the city is the day of the city." After the day of the city, the day of the city is the day of the city. The day of the city is the day of the city.
