 Kathleen LeBesco,Peter Naccarato,2012-08-13 Edible Ideologies argues that representations of food in literature and popular fiction cookbooks and travel guides war propaganda women s magazines television and print advertisements are not just about nourishment or pleasure Contributors explore how these various modes of representation reflecting prevailing attitudes and assumptions about food and food practices function instead to circulate and transgress dominant cultural ideologies Addressing questions concerning whose interests are served by a particular food practice or habit and what political ends are fulfilled by the historical changes that lead from one practice to another in Western culture the essays offer a rich historical narrative that moves from the construction of the nineteenth century English gentleman to the creation of two of today s iconic figures in food culture Julia Child and Martha Stewart Along the way readers will encounter World War I propaganda holocaust and Sephardic cookbooks the Rosenbergs German tour guides fast food advertising food packaging and chocolate and will find food for thought on the meanings of everything from camembert to Velveeta from salads to burgers and from tikka masala to Campbell s soup Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 The Cumulative Book Index ,1999 New Serial Titles ,1997 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Irregular Serials and Annuals R. R. Bowker LLC,1980-12 The Linguistic Structure of Modern English Laurel J. Brinton, Donna Brinton, 2010 This text is for advanced undergraduate and graduate students interested in contemporary English especially those whose primary area of interest is English as a second language primary or secondary school education English stylistics theoretical and applied linguistics or speech pathology The emphasis is on empirical facts of English rather than any particular theory of linguistics the text does not assume any background in language or linguistics In this newly revised edition numerous example sentences are taken from the Corpus of Contemporary American English A full glossary of key terms an additional chapter on pedagogy and new sections on cognitive semantics and politeness have been added Other changes include completely updated print references web links to sites of special interest and relevance and a revised reader friendly layout A companion website that includes a complete workbook with self testing exercises and a comprehensive list of web links accompanies the book The website can be found at the following address <http://dx.doi.org/10.1075/z156.workbook> Students completing the text and workbook will acquire a knowledge of the sound system of contemporary English an understanding of the formation of English words a comprehension of the structure of both simple and complex sentence in English a recognition of complexities in the expression of meaning an understanding of the context and function of use upon the structure of the language and an appreciation of the importance of linguistic knowledge to the teaching of English to first and second language learners Laurel J Brinton is Professor of English Language at the University of British Columbia Donna M Brinton is Senior Lecturer in TESOL at the University of Southern California s Rossier School of Education The Linguistic Structure of Modern English is a revised edition of The Structure of Modern English by Laurel J Brinton 2000 American Book Publishing Record ,1999

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women s studies Living in Rome Bruno Racine, 1999 This is Rome as you have never seen it Through the perceptive text of Bruno Racine current director of the French Academy in Rome and the stunning photographs of Alain Fleischer this book reveals aspects of the city that most visitors miss Stone and Color Rome s stone brick and plaster shimmer in countless hues according to the time of day and the season Goethe and Stendhal celebrated the incomparable light which is a never ending delight particularly sweet at sunset when the city seems to be ablaze Strolling in Rome Rome is made for strolling with its narrow winding streets multitude of squares and fountains glittering in the sunlight For those prepared to take it at a leisurely pace the city is an endless source of surprises Roman Gardens A vestige of the rural Rome of the past entire hills have retained their cloak of greenery Public or private the city's parks and gardens offer another vision of the city in the aromatic shade of orange trees and umbrella pines Roman Interiors A passion for art has graced Roman homes for centuries From magnificent palaces to modern apartments with unequalled opulence or complete simplicity the city continually affirms its love of beauty in all its forms Roman Rendezvous The Rome that Romans love museums ignored by the tour operators traditional artisans antique dealers hotels with panoramic views charming cafés and restaurants Connoisseurs Guide The best addresses and tips from Romans Where to go for a room with a view a good meal or a cappuccino Exploring the riches of the museums and antique dealers Where to find exceptional artisans and chic fashion clothing Discovering the many sights in the environs of Rome and enjoying the big events of the year in the city itself Rome has grown since the days when it was the capital of the Roman Empire but this incomparable city has lost none of its unique charm It is a place which enjoys a special privilege time Time be it that of history or that of everyday life has a particular quality in Rome This is the reason why Rome's charm is easier to experience than it is to describe A person in a hurry might fall in love with the city but the sheer abundance of artistic riches can all too often be oppressive Rome's charm will reveal itself more readily to someone who is prepared to discover it at a leisurely pace without a stopwatch The art of living in Rome means taking the time to yield to its subtle powers of seduction A permanent miracle Rome unites in one love the believer and the atheist classical rigor and baroque exuberance attachment to the past and a passion for life
