Learning to Read and Write in One Elementary School Connie Juel,2012-12-06 When a fourth grade student Jenny was asked about reading she stated I love to read you get real neat ideas I really like books about animals and biographies I m writing my autobiography now Oh I also really like Judy Blume books Her enthusiasm for reading is evident as she tells you about the Judy Blume book she just read Are You There God It s Me Margaret 1970 Jenny reads almost every night at home Jenny s classmate through 4 years of elementary school Anna responds when asked about reading I hate to read it s boring Anna says she never reads at home She says she d rather watch television or play with friends Anna would even rather clean her room than read She explains I d rather clean my room because it makes the room look neat Reading makes my head hurt because it s so boring and no fun Jenny and Anna attended a large neighborhood elementary school in Austin Texas The school is located in a lower socioeconomic status SES area of small houses duplexes mld apartments About 45% of the children at the school are Hispanic 35% are African American and 20% are Anglo The school consistently ranks mnong the lowest schools in the district on standardized reading achievement tests Upon entering first grade neither Jenny nor Anna could read the words that were to appear in their first preprimer reader

Ready for What? M. Elizabeth Graue,1993-01-01 This book looks at readiness from a different perspective arguing that we must move away from the readiness as child characteristic so prevalent in education and the popular press Instead readiness is explained as an idea constructed by parents teachers and children as they interact in their neighborhoods and communities Graue describes three communities in the same school district a middle class suburban town of professionals a rural working class community and a group of Hispanic working class families making their way through their children s kindergarten experiences In each setting the local meaning of readiness is the underlying theme in the actions taken by parents and their attitudes about their children s first public school experience

Misplaced Blame Bonnie Johnson,2021-10-14 Misplaced Blame Decades of Failing Schools Their Children and Their Teachers examines the underlying causes of why schools fail The book describes the challenges that teachers and their pupils encounter in an environment that is dictated by poverty and harsh unfunded mandates The volume illustrates that school failure reflects a lack of opportunities nothing more The book also discusses the changing role of teachers over the years and teacher led efforts to improve their students circumstances
