Fish A Memoir Of A Boy In A Mans Prison:

Fish T. J. Parsell, 2009-04-27 When seventeen year old T J Parsell held up the local Photo Mat with a toy gun he was sentenced to four and a half to fifteen years in prison The first night of his term four older inmates drugged Parsell and took turns raping him When they were through they flipped a coin to decide who would own him Forced to remain silent about his rape by a convict code among inmates one in which informers are murdered Parsell s experience that first night haunted him throughout the rest of his sentence In an effort to silence the guilt and pain of its victims the issue of prisoner rape is a story that has not been told For the first time Parsell one of America s leading spokespeople for prison reform shares the story of his coming of age behind bars He gives voice to countless others who have been exposed to an incarceration system that turns a blind eye to the abuse of the prisoners in its charge Since life behind bars is so often exploited by television and movie re enactments the real story has yet to be told Fish is the first breakout story to do that Prison Life Writing

Simon Rolston, 2021-06-30 Prison Life Writing is the first full length study of one of the most controversial genres in American literature By exploring the complicated relationship between life writing and institutional power this book reveals the overlooked aesthetic innovations of incarcerated people and the surprising literary roots of the U S prison system Simon Rolston observes that the autobiographical work of incarcerated people is based on a conversion narrative a story arc that underpins the concept of prison rehabilitation and that sometimes serves the interests of the prison system rather than those on the inside Yet many imprisoned people rework the conversion narrative the way they repurpose other objects in prison Like a radio motor retooled into a tattoo gun the conversion narrative has been redefined by some authors for subversive purposes including questioning the ostensible emancipatory role of prison writing critiquing white supremacy and broadly reimagining autobiographical discourse An interdisciplinary work that brings life writing scholarship into conversation with prison studies and law and literature studies Prison Life Writing theorizes how life writing works in prison explains literature s complicated entanglements with institutional power and demonstrates the political and aesthetic innovations of one of America s most fascinating literary genres South Africa and the Dream of Love to Come Brenna M. Munro, 2012

Uncovers the story of how the politics of queer sexuality have played out in the struggle for multiracial democracy in South Africa The Ethics of Sex and Alzheimer's John Portmann, 2013-07-18 A growing epidemic Alzheimer s punishes not only its victims but also those married to them This book analyzes how Alzheimer s is quietly transforming the way we think about love today Without meaning to become rebels many people who find themselves married to Alzheimer s deflate the predominant notion of a conventional marriage By falling in love again before their ill spouse dies those married to Alzheimer s come into conflict with central values of Western civilization personal sexual familial religious and political Those who wait sadly for a spouse s death must sometimes wonder if the show of fidelity is necessary and whom it helps Most books on Alzheimer s focus on those who have it as opposed to those who care for someone with it This book offers a powerful and searching meditation on the extent to which someone married to Alzheimer's should be expected to suffer loneliness The diagnosis of dementia should not amount to a prohibition of sexual activity for both spouses Portmann encourages readers to risk honesty in assessing the moral dilemma using high profile cases such as Nancy Reagan and Justice Sandra Day O'Connor to illustrate the enormity of the problem Ideal for classes considering the ethics of aging and sexuality Access, 2008

UCLA Women's Law Journal, 2010 The Nation, 2006 Histories and Philosophies of Carceral Education Marcus K. Harmes, Barbara Harmes, Meredith A. Harmes, 2022-09-27 This edited collection encourages philosophical exploration of the nature, aims, contradictions, promises, and problems of the practice of education within prisons around the world. Such exploration is particularly necessary given the complex operational barriers to education and higher education in particular within prison-based teaching and learning. These operational barriers are matched by cultural and polemical barriers such as the criticism of diverting resources to and spending money on prisoner education when the cost of some education seems prohibitive for people outside prison. More so than in other education contexts, prison education may fall short of higher ideals because it is shot through with both practical and moral, political problems and challenges, especially in the age of global late capitalism, high technology, and mass incarceration or securitization. This book includes insights and issues around a wide range of areas including ethics, religion, sociology, justice, identity, and political and moral philosophy Dapper Dan: Made in Harlem Daniel R. Day, 2020-07-07 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Dapper Dan is a legend, an icon, a beacon of inspiration to many in the Black community. His story isn't just about fashion; it's about tenacity, curiosity, artistry, hustle, love, and a singular determination to live our dreams out loud. Ava DuVernay, director of Selma, 13th, and A Wrinkle in Time NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY VANITY FAIR DAPPER DAN NAMED ONE OF TIME'S 100 MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN THE WORLD With his now legendary store on 125th Street in Harlem, Dapper Dan pioneered high-end streetwear in the 1980s, remixing classic luxury brand logos into his own innovative, glamorous designs. But before he reinvented haute couture, he was a hungry boy with holes in his shoes, a teen who daringly gambled drug dealers out of their money, and a young man in a prison cell who found nourishment in books. In this remarkable memoir, he tells his full story for the first time. Decade after decade, Dapper Dan discovered creative ways to flourish in a country designed to privilege certain Americans over others. He witnessed, profited from, and despised the rise of two drug epidemics. He invented stunningly bold credit card frauds that took him around the world. He paid neighborhood kids to jog with him in an effort to keep them out of the drug game. And when he turned his attention to fashion, he did so with the energy and curiosity with which he approaches all things, learning how to treat fur for himself when no one would sell finished fur coats to a Black man, finding the best-dressed hustler in the neighborhood and converting him into a customer, staying open twenty-four hours a day for nine years straight to meet demand, and finally emerging as a world-famous designer whose looks went on to define an era, dressing cultural icons including Eric B and Rakim, Salt N' Pepa, Big Daddy Kane, Mike Tyson, Alpo Martinez, LL Cool J, Jam Master Jay, Naomi

Campbell and Jay Z By turns playful poignant thrilling and inspiring Dapper Dan Made in Harlem is a high stakes coming of age story spanning more than seventy years and set against the backdrop of an America where as in the life of its narrator the only constant is change Praise for Dapper Dan Made in Harlem Dapper Dan is a true one of a kind self made self liberated and the sharpest man you will ever see He is couture himself Marcus Samuelsson New York Times bestselling author of Yes Chef What James Baldwin is to American literature Dapper Dan is to American fashion He is the ultimate success saga an iconic fashion hero to multiple generations fusing street with high sartorial elegance He is pure American style Andr Leon Talley Vogue contributing editor and author
