Facilitating Teacher Teams and Authentic PLCs Daniel R. Venables,2017-12-20 As professional learning communities become more widespread educators have learned that they can't simply form grade level or subject area teams and call it a day. To profoundly affect teacher practice and student learning PLCs need strong and knowledgeable leadership. In Facilitating Teacher Teams and Authentic PLCs Daniel R Venables draws on his extensive experience helping schools and districts implement effective PLCs to explore this crucial but often overlooked need. Taking a two-pronged approach to PLC facilitation, Venables offers targeted guidance both for leading the people in teacher teams and for facilitating their work. This practical resource provides strategies for facilitating interactions among colleagues in PLCs and building trust and buy-in. Field-tested user-friendly protocols to focus and deepen team discussions around texts, data, teacher and student work, teacher dilemmas, and collaborative planning time. Tips for anticipating and addressing interpersonal conflicts and obstacles that commonly arise during use of protocols. Current and prospective PLC facilitators at every grade level will find this book an essential guide to navigating the challenging and rewarding endeavor of leading authentic PLCs. Build your skills and help your team rise to the next level.

Professional Learning Communities by Design Lois Brown Easton, 2011-07-14 If you are looking for an organic approach to purpose-driven professional learning, this is the book for you. Award-winning educator Lois Brown Easton's latest work provides a compelling case study in narrative form, a chronological PLC planning outline, and first-hand lessons learned about how PLCs develop, mature, and sustain themselves. You will not receive a PLC prescription, but you will find inspiration, wisdom, discussion questions, and a companion CD.
