Five Faces Of Modernity Modernism Avant Garde Decadence Kitsch Postmodernism:

Five Faces of Modernity Matei Călinescu, 1987 This ambitious and illuminating book offers an analysis of nothing less than the aesthetic and intellectual ideas which have governed literary production during the past 150 years Five Faces of Modernity Matei Călinescu, 1987 Five Faces of Modernity Matei Călinescu, 1993 Utopia Limited Marianne DeKoven, 2004-05-10 The end of the modern and the emergence of the postmodern in 1960s philosophy literature and popular culture Mediterranean Modernisms Marinos Pourgouris, 2016-04-22 Engaging with the work of Nobel Prize winning poet Odysseus Elytis within the framework of international modernism Marinos Pourgouris places the poet's work in the context of other modernist and surrealist writers in Europe At the same time Pourgouris puts forward a redefinition of European Modernism that makes the Mediterranean and Greece in particular the discursive contact zone and incorporates neglected elements such as national identity and geography Beginning with an examination of Greek Modernism Pourgouris's study places Elytis in conversation with Albert Camus analyzes the influence of Charles Baudelaire Gaston Bachelard and Sigmund Freud on Elytis's theory of analogies traces the symbol of the sun in Elytis's poetry by way of the philosophies of Heraclitus and Plotinus examines the influence of Le Corbusier on Elytis's theory of architectural poetics and takes up the subject of Elytis's application of his theory of Solar Metaphysics to poetic form in the context of works by Freud C G Jung and Michel Foucault Informed by extensive research in the United States and Europe Pourgouris's study makes a compelling contribution to the comparative study of Greek modernism the Mediterranean and the work of Odysseus Elytis The Oxford Handbook of the History of Terrorism Carola Dietze, Claudia Verhoeven, 2022 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Terrorism presents a re-evaluation of the major narratives in the history of terrorism exploring the emergence and the use of terrorism in world history from antiquity up to the twenty first century The volume presents terrorism as a historically specific form of political violence that was generated by modern Western culture and then transported around the globe where it interacted with and was transformed in accordance with local conditions It offers cogent arguments and well documented case studies that support a reading of terrorism as a modern phenomenon as well as sustained analyses of the challenges involved in the application of the theories and practices of modernity and terrorism to non Western parts of the world both for historical actors and academic commentators Representing Empire Ying Xiong, 2014-07-14 In Representing Empire Ying Xiong examines Japanese language colonial literature written by Japanese expatriate writers in Taiwan and Manchuria Drawing on a wide range of Japanese and Chinese sources Representing Empire reveals not only a nuanced picture of Japanese literary terrain but also the interplay between imperialism nationalism and Pan Asianism in the colonies While the existing literature on Japanese nationalism has largely remained within the confines of national history by using colonial literature as an example Ying Xiong demonstrates that transnational forces shaped Japanese nationalism in the twentieth century With its multidisciplinary and comparative approach Representing Empire adds to a growing body of literature that challenges traditional interpretations of Japanese nationalism and national literary canon Representing Empire is an outstanding accomplishment at once making clearer and complicating our understandings of the literary worlds of Manchuria and Taiwan and the greater imperial empire within which all were transformed add s substantially to the ways in which Japan s empire and twentieth century East Asian history more generally might be interpreted Norman Smith University of Guelph Modern Chinese Literature and Culture Resource Center Publication February 2015 Modernism Robin Walz,2013-11-04 Robin Walz s updated Modernism now part of the Seminar Studies series has been updated to include significant primary source material and features to make it more accessible for students returning to or studying the topic for the first time The twentieth century was a period of seismic change on a global scale witnessing two world wars the rise and fall of communism the establishment of a global economy the beginnings of global warming and a complete reversal in the status of women in large parts of the world The modernist movements of the early twentieth century launched a cultural revolution without which the multi media driven world in which we live today would not have been possible Today modernism is enshrined in art galleries and university courses Its techniques of abstraction and montage and its creative impulse to innovate and shock are the stock in trade of commercial advertising feature films television and computer generated graphics In this concise cultural history Robin Walz vividly recaptures what was revolutionary about modernism He shows how an aesthetic concept arising from a diversity of cultural movements from Cubism and Bauhaus to Abstract Expressionism and Pop Art and operating in different ways across the fields of art literature music design and architecture came to turn intellectual and cultural life and assumptions upside down first in Europe and then around the world From the nineteenth century origins of modernism to its postmodern legacies this book will give the reader access to the big picture of modernism as a dynamic historical process and an unfinished project which still speaks to our times Master Narratives and their Discontents James Elkins,2013-10-18 In this bracing engagement with the many versions of art history James Elkins argues that the story of modernism and postmodernism is almost always told in terms of four narratives Works of art are either seen as modern or postmodern or praised for their technical skill or because of the politics they appear to embody These are master narratives of contemporary criticism and each leads to a different understanding of what art is and does Both a cogent overview of the state of thinking about art and a challenge to think outside the art historical box Master Narratives and their Discontents is the first volume in a series of short books on the theories of modernism by leading art historians on twentieth century art and art criticism Adaptation and the Avant-Garde William Verrone,2011-09-29 Providing a fresh angle on adaptation studies this study looks at how avant garde directors and filmmakers have treated literary works in distinct ways The Historic Imaginary Claudio Fogu,2003-01-01 Focusing on both ritual and mass visual representations of history in 1920s and 1930s Italy The Historic Imaginary unveils how Italian Fascism sought to institutionalize a modernist culture of history The study takes a new historicist and microhistorical approach to cultural intellectual history integrating theoretical tools of analysis acquired from visual cultural studies art history linguistics and reception theory in a sophisticated examination of visual modes of historical representation from commemorations to monuments to exhibitions and mass media spanning the entire period of the Italian fascist regime Claudio Fogu argues that the fascist historic imaginary was intellectually rooted in the actualist philosophy of history elaborated by Giovanni Gentile culturally grounded in Latin Catholic rhetorical codes and aimed at overcoming both Marxist and liberal conceptions of the relationship between historical agency representation and consciousness The book further proposes that this modernist vision of history was a core element of fascist ideology encapsulated by the famous Mussolinian motto that fascism makes history rather than writing it and that its institutionalization constituted a key point of intersection between the fascist aesthetization and sacralization of politics The author finally claims that his study of fascist historic culture opens the way to an understanding and re evaluation of the historical relationship between the modernist critique of historical consciousness and the rise of post modernist forms of temporality

The Life of the City Julian Brigstocke, 2016-03-03
Could the vitality of embodied experience create a foundation for a new form of revolutionary authority The Life of the City is a bold and innovative reassessment of the early urban avant garde movements that sought to re imagine and reinvent the experiential life of the city Constructing a ground breaking theoretical analysis of the relationships between biological life urban culture and modern forms of biopolitical experiential authority Julian Brigstocke traces the failed attempts of Parisian radicals to turn the crisis of authority in late nineteenth century Paris into an opportunity to invent new forms of urban commons The most comprehensive account to date of the spatial politics of the literary artistic and anarchist groups that settled in the Montmartre area of Paris after the suppression of the 1871 Paris Commune The Life of the City analyses the reasons why laughter emerged as the unlikely tool through which Parisian bohemians attempted to forge a new non representational biopolitics of sensation Ranging from the carnivalesque performances of artistic cabarets such as the Chat Noir to the laughing violence of anarchist terrorism The Life of the City is a timely analysis of the birth of a carnivalesque politics that remains highly influential in contemporary urban movements

Salome's Modernity Petra Dierkes-Thrun, 2014-07-28
Oscar Wilde's 1891 symbolist tragedy Salome has had a rich afterlife in literature opera dance film and popular culture Salome's Modernity Oscar Wilde and the Aesthetics of Transgression is the first comprehensive scholarly exploration of that extraordinary resonance that persists to the present Petra Dierkes Thrun positions Wilde as a founding figure of modernism and Salome as a key text in modern culture's preoccupation with erotic and aesthetic transgression arguing that Wilde's Salome marks a major turning point from a dominant traditional cultural moral and religious outlook to a utopian aesthetic of erotic and artistic transgression Wilde and Salome are seen to represent a bridge linking the philosophical and artistic projects of writers such as Mallarmé Pater and Nietzsche to modernist and postmodernist literature and philosophy and our contemporary culture Dierkes Thrun addresses subsequent representations of Salome in a wide range of artistic productions of both high and popular culture through the works of Richard Strauss Maud Allan Alla Nazimova Ken Russell Suri Krishnamma Robert Altman Tom Robbins and Nick Cave among others
