Gender Agency And Political Violence Rethinking Political Violence:

Gender, Agency and Political Violence L. Åhäll, L. Shepherd, 2012-03-20 Gender is not a security issue but it tells us a lot about how why and when certain subjects are written as security concerns Thirteen case studies on violent subjects reason and emotion demonstrate different ways in which we understand political violence security resistance power and agency and how we make sense of gender The Emerald International Handbook of Feminist Perspectives on Women's Acts of Violence Stacy Banwell, Lynsey Black, Dawn K. Cecil, Yanyi K. Djamba, Sitawa R. Kimuna, Emma Milne, Lizzie Seal, Eric Y. Tenkorang, 2023-08-02 Grounded in feminist scholarship this book upends normative accounts of femme fatale violence to focus beyond the misogyny and the sensationalism and unearth the motivation behind women's roles in homicide terrorism combat and even nationalist movements Gender, Emancipation, and Political Violence Sarah Colvin, Katharina Karcher, 2018-08-06 This volume presents and interrogates both theoretical and artistic expressions of the revolutionary militant spirit associated with 1968 and the aftermath in the specific context of gender The contributors explore political philosophical discussions of the legitimacy of violence the gender of aggression and peaceability and the contradictions of counter violence but also women's artistic and creative interventions which have rarely been considered Together the chapters provide and provoke a wide ranging rethink of how we read not only 1968 but more generally the relationship between gender political violence art and emancipation This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of protest and violence in the fields of history politics and international relations sociology cultural studies and women's studies

The SAGE Handbook of Feminist Theory Mary Evans, Clare Hemmings, Marsha Henry, Hazel Johnstone, Sumi Madhok, Ania Plomien, Sadie Wearing, 2014-08-12 At no point in recorded history has there been an absence of intense and heated discussion about the subject of how to conduct relations between women and men This Handbook provides a comprehensive guide to these omnipresent issues and debates mapping the present and future of thinking about feminist theory The chapters gathered here present the state of the art in scholarship in the field covering Epistemology and marginality Literary visual and cultural representations Sexuality Macro and microeconomics of gender Conflict and peace The most important consensus in this volume is that a central organizing tenet of feminism is its willingness to examine the ways in which gender and relations between women and men have been and are organized The authors bring a shared commitment to the critical appraisal of gender relations as well as a recognition that to think theoretically is not to detach concerns from lived experience but to extend the possibilities of understanding With this focus on theory and theorizing about the world in which we live this Handbook asks us across all disciplines and situations to abandon our taken for granted assumptions about the world and interrogate both the origin and the implications of our ideas about gender relations and feminism It is an essential reference work for advanced students and academics not only of feminist theory but of gender and sexuality across the humanities and social sciences Women, Global Protest Movements, and Political Agency Sarah

Colvin, Katharina Karcher, 2018-07-11 This volume analyses and historicises the memory of 1968 understood as a marker of an emerging will for social change around the turn of that decade rather than as a particular calendar year focusing on cultural memory of the powerful signifier 68 and women's experience of revolutionary agency After an opening interrogation of the historical and contemporary significance of 1968 why does it still matter how and why is it remembered in the contexts of gender and geopolitics and what implications does it have for broader feminist understandings of women and revolutionary agency the contributors explore women's historical involvement in 1968 in different parts of the world and the different ways in which women's experience as victims and perpetrators of violence are remembered and understood This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of protest and violence in the fields of history politics and international relations sociology cultural studies and women's studies Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J.

Shepherd, 2014-07-17 Fully revised and updated this second edition of Gender Matters in Global Politics is a comprehensive textbook for advanced undergraduates studying feminism War Terrorism and political violence Land food and water International legal institutions Peacebuilding institutions and post conflict reconstruction Citizenship Art aesthetics and emotionality and New social media and global resistance This text enables students to develop a sophisticated understanding of the work that gender does in policies and practices of global politics Preventing Political Violence Against Civilians Aoibhín de Búrca, 2014-10-27 The increased targeting of civilians by militants raises serious and profound questions for policy makers Examining conflict in Northern Ireland Israel and Palestine this book focuses on ethno nationalist militant groups and formulates a model to constrain violence against civilians Representations of Peace and Conflict S.

Gibson, S. Mollan, 2016-01-18 This edited volume brings together a series of contributions exploring the socio cultural and psychological representation of peace and conflict It ventures into areas of the humanities and social sciences not typically foregrounded in Peace Studies such psychology sociology media studies cultural studies history and geography Disrupting Pathways to Genocide E. Murray, 2015-03-17 How does ideology in some states radicalise to such an extent as to become genocidal Can the causes of radicalisation be seen as internal or external Examining the ideological evolution in the Armenian genocide the Holocaust and during the break up of Yugoslavia Elisabeth Hope Murray seeks to answer these questions in this comparative work Gender and Political Violence Candice D. Ortobals, Lori M.

Poloni-Staudinger, 2018-03-09 This book examines the role of gender in political conflicts worldwide specifically the intersection between gender and terrorism Political violence has historically been viewed as a male domain with men considered the perpetrators of violence and power and women as victims without power Whereas men and masculinity are associated with war and aggression women and femininity conjure up socially constructed images of passivity and peace This distinction of men as aggressors and women as passive victims denies women their voice and agency This book investigates how women cope with and influence violent politics and is both a descriptive and analytical attempt to describe in what ways

women are present or absent in political contexts involving political violence and how they deal with gender assumptions express gender identities and frame their actions regarding political violence encountered in their lives The book looks to reach beyond the notion of women as victims of terrorism or genocide without agency and to recognize the gendered nature of political conflicts and how women respond to violence This book will be of interest to advanced undergraduate and graduate students in political science sociology cultural studies and gender studies academics in terrorism studies and gender studies government officials NGOs and professionals working in areas of violent conflict Youth in Conflict and Peacebuilding

A. Özerdem,S. Podder,2015-04-15 This study investigates the role of youth in peacebuilding and addresses the failure of states and existing research to recognise youths as political actors which can result in their contribution to peacebuilding being ignored Sexuality, Oppression and Human Rights

Júlia Tomás,Nico Eppele,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 The gradual demystification of sexuality leads to its slow departure from long date traditional honour codes This evolution in thought and in attitude allows one to observe new and not so new mentalities and behaviours Sexuality is indeed a social construct that can encompass physical and or symbolic domination and viciousness It concerns women and children as well as men It involves every culture every country and every population This anthology presents interdisciplinary studies with a human rights based approach from researchers and social workers around the world The essays discuss sexual violence and its social ramifications and violence against various sexualities It aims at elucidating not only contemporary historical and social facts related to sexual exploitation and sexual violence but also discourses that perpetuate sexual oppression Moreover it offers the reader insights into prevention methods and last but not least it presents individual and collective creative tools to combat sexual domination The Palgrave

Handbook of Disciplinary and Regional Approaches to Peace Oliver Richmond,Sandra Pogodda,Jasmin Ramovic,2016-03-15 In this handbook a diverse range of leading scholars consider the social cultural economic political and developmental underpinnings of peace This handbook is a much needed response to the failures of contemporary peacebuilding missions and narrow disciplinary debates both of which have outlined the need for more interdisciplinary work in International Relations and Peace and Conflict studies Scholars students and policymakers are often disillusioned with universalist and northern dominated approaches and a better understanding of the variations of peace and its building blocks across different regions is required Collectively these chapters promote a more differentiated notion of peace employing comparative analysis to explain how peace is debated and contested International Perspectives on Terrorist Victimisation J.

Argomaniz,O. Lynch,2015-01-15 Considering an under researched dimension of political violence this interdisciplinary collection provides an extensive examination of terrorist victimisation It explores how individual and public experiences of victimisation are constructed and how they are shaped by existing dynamics of violence Rwanda 1994

Barrie Collins,2014-08-26 Through a rigorous critique of the dominant narrative of the Rwandan genocide Collins provides an alternative argument to the debate situating the killings within a historically specific context and drawing out a dynamic interplay between national and international actors Policing Wars Caroline Holmqvist, 2016-06-15 Holmqvist presents an original account of the relationship between war and policing in the twenty first century This interdisciplinary study of contemporary Western strategic thinking reveals how why and with what consequences the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq became seen as policing wars

Female Narratives of Protest Nabanita Sengupta, Samrita Sengupta Sinha, 2023-12-01 This book explores the complex assemblage of biopolitics citizenship ethics and human rights concerns in South Asia focusing specifically on women poets writers and artists and their explorations on marginalisation violence and protest The book traces the origins varied historiographies and socio political consequences of women s protests and feminist discourses Bringing together narratives of the Landais from Afghanistan voices from Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Miya women poets writing from Assam and stories of Dalit and queer women across the region it analyses the diverse modes of women s protests and their ethical and humanitarian cartographies The volume highlights the reconfiguration of female voices of protest in contemporary literature and popular culture in South Asia and the formation of closely knit female communities of solidarity cooperation and collective political action The book will be of interest to students and researchers of gender studies literature cultural studies sociology minority and indigenous studies and South Asian studies

Genocide, Risk and Resilience B. Ingelaere, S. Parmentier, Barbara Segaert, Jacques Haers, 2013-11-13 This interdisciplinary volume aims to understand the linkages between the origins and aftermaths of genocide Exploring social dynamics and human behaviour this collection considers the interplay of various psychological political anthropological and historical factors at work in genocidal processes

The New Counter-insurgency Era in Critical Perspective Celeste Ward Gventer, M.L.R Smith, 2014-01-21 The notion of counter insurgency has become a dominant paradigm in American and British thinking about the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan This volume brings together international academics and practitioners to evaluate the broader theoretical and historical factors that underpin COIN providing a critical reappraisal of counter insurgency thinking

Violent Societies C. Steenkamp, 2014-10-15 This book investigates the relationships between political violence social violence and economic violence using examples from South Africa Northern Ireland Lebanon and Syria It examines the cultural impact of war and argues that a culture of violence can explain the high levels of violence which are frequently found in post war societies
