First Principles Of The Reformation:

First Principles of the Reformation Martin Luther, 2015-06-10 Martin Luther was a German friar priest and professor of theology who was a seminal figure in the Protestant Reformation Luther taught that salvation and subsequently eternity in heaven is not earned by good deeds but is received only as a free gift of God's grace through faith in Jesus Christ as redeemer from sin and subsequently eternity in hell His theology challenged the authority and office of the Pope by teaching that the Bible is the only source of divinely revealed knowledge from God and opposed sacerdotalism by considering all baptized Christians to be a holy priesthood Those who identify with these and all of Luther's wider teachings are called Lutherans even though Luther insisted on Christian as the only acceptable name for individuals who professed Christ Today Lutheranism constitutes a major branch of Protestantism and overall Christianity with some 80 million adherents

First Principles of the Reformation (95 Theses and Other Works) Martin Luther, C. A. Buchheim, Henry Wace, 2011-09-01 In 1517 Martin Luther challenged the Catholic Church and ultimately altered the course of European history when he nailed his 95 Theses on the Power and Efficacy of Indulgences on the door of Castle Church in Wittenberg Germany At the time Renaissance humanists were beginning to oppose the reign of the Church and the wealth it accrued from taxes and the sale of Indulgences to the people A monk and a scholar Luther intended to promote independent thinking with the translation of the Bible into the vernacular He wanted people to read the words and understand God in terms of their own experience Unsurprisingly he was ordered by the pope to print a retraction which he refused he was ultimately excommunicated and his action prompted the Protestant Reformation This edition contains Martin Luther's 95 Theses as well as the three other primary works of Martin Luther To the Christian Nobility of the German Nation Respecting the Reformation of the Christian Estate Concerning Christian Liberty and On the Babylonish Captivity of the Church
