Levin, 2010-09-13 Gender Sexuality and Museums provides the only repository of key articles new essays and case studies for the important area of gender and sexuality in museums It is the first reader to focus on LGBT issues and museums and the first reader in nearly 15 years to collect articles which focus on women and museums At last students of museum studies women s studies LGBT studies and museum professionals have a single resource The book is organised into three thematic parts each with its own introduction Sections focus on women in museum work applications of feminist and LGBT theories to museum exhibitions exhibitions and collections pertaining to women and individuals who are LGBT The Case studies in a fourth part provide different perspectives to key topics such as memorials and memorializing modernism and museums and natural history collections The collection concludes with a bibliographic essay evaluating scholarship to date on gender and sexuality in museums Amy K Levin brings together outstanding articles published in the past as well as new essays The collection s scope is international with articles about US Canadian and European institutions Gender Sexuality and Museums A Routledge Reader is an essential resource for those studying gender and sexuality in the museum

The Queer Museum Erica Robenalt, 2024-04-09 The Queer Museum examines how relationships between institutions and LGBTQ communities function and how they help to define queer museum practice Analysing what it means to queer the museum in Western contexts the book builds upon and challenges texts about inclusionary activist museum practice and discusses the ways in which Othered communities are engaged with and represented Arguing that an institution s understanding of queerness is directly related to the kind and extent of change pursued by the museum the author clarifies that governance structures staff hierarchies funding and relationships to queer communities affect the way queering might be pursued The analysis looks critically at exhibitions and institutions and particularly forefronts the experiences of museum practitioners It argues that practical changes that positively affect museums long term relationships with marginalised communities are critical The book also considers the future of the museum by drawing on queer theories of utopia futurity failure and amateurism to complicate understandings of the queer museum and its relationship to people and objects The Queer Museum will be of interest to students and academics in museum and heritage studies art history and archival studies It will also be essential reading for museum and arts sector practitioners who seek to do and engage with this kind of work The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Museums, Equality and Social Justice Richard Sandell, Eithne Nightingale, 2013-05-20 The last two decades have seen concerns for equality diversity social justice and human rights move from the margins of museum thinking and practice to the core The arguments both moral and pragmatic for engaging diverse audiences creating the conditions for more equitable access to museum resources and opening up opportunities for participation now enjoy considerable consensus in many parts of the world A growing number of institutions are concerned to construct new narratives that represent a plurality of lived experiences histories and identities which aim to nurture support for more progressive ethically informed ways of seeing and to actively inform contemporary public debates on often contested rights related issues At the same time it would be misleading to suggest an even and uncontested transition from the museum as an organisation that has been widely understood to marginalise exclude and oppress to one which is wholly inclusive Moreover there are signs that momentum towards making museums more inclusive and equitable is slowing down or in some contexts reversing Museums Equality and Social Justice aims to reflect on and crucially to inform debates in museum research policy and practice at this critical time It brings together new research from academics and practitioners and insights from artists activists and commentators to explore the ways in which museums galleries and heritage organisations are engaging with the fast changing equalities terrain and the shifting politics of identity at global national and local levels and to investigate their potential to contribute to more equitable fair and just societies

Museums, Sexuality, and Gender Activism Joshua Adair, Amy Levin, 2020-01-23 Museums Sexuality and Gender Activism examines the role of exhibitionary institutions in representing LGBTQ people cisgender women and nonbinary individuals Considering recent gender and sexuality related developments through a critical lens the volume contributes significantly to the growing body of activist writing on this topic Building on Gender Sexuality and Museums and featuring work from established voices as well as newcomers this volume offers risky and exciting articles from around the world Chapters cover diverse topics including transgender representation erasure and activism two spirit people indigeneity and museums third genders gender and sexuality in heritage sites and historic homes temporary exhibitions on gender and sexuality museum representations of HIV AIDS interventions to increase queer visibility and inclusion in galleries LGBTQ staff alliances and museums gender ambiguity and the disruption of binaries Several chapters focus on areas outside the US and Europe while others explore central topics through the perspectives of racial and ethnic minorities Containing contributions that engage in sustained critique of current policies theory and practice Museums Sexuality and Gender Activism is essential reading for those studying museums women and gender sexuality culture history heritage art media and anthropology The book will also spark interest among museum practitioners public archivists and scholars researching related topics

Feminist Critique and the Museum Kathy Sanford, Darlene E. Clover, Nancy Taber, Sarah Williamson, 2020-08-31 Thousands of diverse museums including art galleries and heritage sites exist around the world today and they draw millions of people audiences who come to view the exhibitions and artefacts and equally importantly to learn from them about the world and themselves This makes museums active public educators who imagine visualise represent and story the past and the present with the specific aim of creating knowledge Problematically the visuals and narratives used to inform visitors are never neutral Feminist cultural and adult education studies have shown that all too frequently they include epistemologies of mastery that reify the histories and deeds of great men Despite pressures from feminist scholars and professionals normative public museums continue to be rife with patriarchal ideologies that hide behind referential illusions of authority and impartiality to mask the many problematic ways gender is represented and interpreted the values imbued in those representations and interpretations and their complicity in the cancellation of women's stories in favour of conventional masculine historical accounts that shore up male superiority entitlement privilege and dominance Feminist Critique and the Museum Educating for a Critical Consciousness problematises museums as it illustrates ways they can become pedagogical spaces of possibility This edited volume showcases the imaginative social critique that can be found in feminist exhibitions and the role that women's museums around the world are attempting to play in terms of transforming our understandings of women gender and the potential of museums to create inclusive narratives

Gendering Place and Affect Alex Simpson, Ruth Simpson, Darren T. Baker, 2024-07-30 Drawing on affect theory and the key themes of attachment disruption and belonging this book examines the ways in which our placed surroundings whether urban design border management or organisations shape and form experiences of gender Bringing together key debates across the fields of sociology geography and organisation studies the book sets out new theoretical ground to examine and consolidate shared experiences of what it means to be in or out of place Contributors explore how our gendered selves encounter place and critically examine the way in which experiences of gender shape meanings and attachments as well as how place produces gendered modes of identity inclusion and belonging Emphasizing the intertwined dynamics of affect and being affected the book examines the gendering of place and the placing of gender

Fashion Curating Annamari Vänskä, Hazel Clark, 2017-12-28 As the practice of fashion curation extends into commercial galleries public and retail spaces and even to the individual self professional concepts of curating are undergoing rapid change Today everyone is seemingly able to curate but where does this leave the traditional understanding of curation as clothing collected and displayed in a museum This thought provoking volume explores the practice of fashion curating in the 21st century bridging the gap between methods of display and notions of the curatorial in fashion exhibitions commercial settings and the virtual world From fashion s earliest forays into the museum to creative collaborations between luxury fashion brands and artists this book challenges understandings of fashion curation by drawing on the palpably new spaces places and actors in today s curating scene Exploring poetic and performative museum displays in venues such as the V A Somerset House MoMu and the Royal Ontario Museum alongside the ways that brands such as Dior Chanel and Louis Vuitton have made use of the curatorial in their own commercial strategies Fashion Curating asks pressing questions about controversial funding and collaboration from the commercial fashion sector and the limitations of producing exhibitions that are at the same time critical and popular Bringing together approaches from fashion curators designers and world renowned academics curation is positioned as a critical practice that opens up new ways of conceptualizing and theorizing fashion challenging how we think and what we already know

Material Traces of War Stacey Barker, Krista Cooke, Molly McCullough, 2021-11-02 Material Traces of War Stories of Canadian Women and Conflict 1914 1945 looks at Canadian women s experiences of and contributions to the world wars through objects images and archival documents The book tells the stories of women who worked as civilians served in the military volunteered their time and grieved lost loved ones through thematically organized vignettes The authors place these personal narratives of individual woman and their related material culture in the wider context of the world wars while demonstrating that the experience of living through global conflict was as individual as a woman s particular circumstances Drawing from the collections of the Canadian War Museum the Canadian Museum of History and other public and private collections in Canada Material Traces of War brings largely unknown material culture collections to public view and draws attention to the untold stories of women and war

A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage Sheila Watson, Amy Jane Barnes, Katy Bunning, 2018-10-08 Heritage s revival as a respected academic subject has in part resulted from an increased awareness and understanding of indigenous rights and non Western philosophies and practices and a growing respect for the intangible Heritage has thus far focused on management tourism and the traditionally heritage minded disciplines such as archaeology geography and social and cultural theory Widening the scope of international heritage studies A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage explores heritage through new areas of knowledge including emotion and affect the politics of dissent migration and intercultural and participatory dimensions of heritage Drawing on a range of disciplines and the best from established sources the book includes writing not typically recognised as heritage but which nevertheless makes a valuable contribution to the debate about what heritage is what it can do and how it works and for whom Including heritage perspectives from beyond the professional sphere the book serves as a reminder that heritage is not just an academic concern but a deeply felt and keenly valued public and private practice This blending of traditional topics and emerging trends established theory and concepts from other disciplines offers readers international views of the past and future of this growing field A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage offers a wider more current and more inclusive overview of issues and practices in heritage and its intersection with museums As such the book will be essential reading for postgraduate students of heritage and museum studies It will also be of great interest to academics practitioners and anyone else who is interested in how we conceptualise and use the past      Bodies of Evidence Jane Draycott, Emma-Jayne Graham, 2017-07-05 Dedicating objects to the divine was a central component of both Greek and Roman religion Some of the most conspicuous offerings were shaped like parts of the internal or external human body so called anatomical votives These archaeological artefacts capture the modern imagination recalling vividly the physical and fragile bodies of the past whilst posing interpretative challenges in the present This volume scrutinises this distinctive dedicatory phenomenon bringing together for the first time a range of methodologically diverse approaches which challenge traditional assumptions and simple categorisations The chapters presented here ask new questions about what constitutes an anatomical votive how they were used and manipulated in cultural cultic and curative contexts and the complex role of anatomical votives in negotiations between humans and gods the body and its disparate parts divine and medical healing ancient assemblages and modern collections and collectors In seeking to re contextualise and re conceptualise anatomical votives this volume uniquely juxtaposes the medical with the religious the social with the conceptual the idea of the body in fragments with the body whole and the museum with the sanctuary crossing the boundaries between studies of ancient religion medicine the body and the reception of antiquity      A Companion to Curation Brad Buckley, John Conomos, 2020-01-29 The definitive reference text on curation both inside and outside the museum A Companion to Curation is the first collection of its kind assembling the knowledge and experience of prominent curators artists art historians scholars and theorists in one comprehensive volume Part of the Blackwell Companion series this much needed book provides up to date information and valuable insights on the field of curatorial studies and curation in the visual arts Accessible and engaging chapters cover diverse contemporary methods of curation its origin and history current and emerging approaches within the profession and more This timely publication fills a significant gap in literature on the role of the curator the art and science of curating and the historical arc of the field from the 17th century to the present The Companion explores topics such as global developments in contemporary indigenous art Asian and Chinese art since the 1980s feminist and queer feminist curatorial practices and new curatorial strategies beyond the museum This unique volume Offers readers a wide range of perspectives on curating in both theory and practice Includes coverage of curation outside of the Eurocentric and Anglosphere art worlds Presents clear and comprehensible information valuable for specialists and novices alike Discusses the movements models people and politics of curating Provides guidance on curating in a globalized world Broad in scope and detailed in content A Companion to Curation is an essential text for professionals engaged in varied forms of curation teachers and students of museum studies and readers interested in the workings of the art world museums benefactors and curators      Museums, Moralities and Human Rights Richard Sandell, 2016-12-08 This book explores how museums galleries and heritage sites of all kinds through the narratives they construct and publicly present can shape the moral and political climate within which human rights are experienced Through a series of richly drawn cases which focus on gender diversity and same sex love and desire Richard Sandell examines the ways in which museums are implicated in the ongoing struggle for lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex human rights Museums Moralities and Human Rights brings together for the first time the perspectives not only of those who work in govern fund and visit museums but also those of rights activists and campaigners who at key moments in their struggle have turned their attention to museums to advance their cause Offering new insights into how human rights are continually fought for realised and refused this volume makes the case for museums of all kinds to take up an active mindful and purposive engagement with contemporary human rights concerns

Thank You for Dying for Our Country Chaim Noy, 2015-06-08 Combining ethnographic semiotic and performative approaches this book examines texts and accompanying acts of writing of national commemoration The commemorative visitor book is viewed as a mobilized stage a communication medium where visitors public performances are presented and where acts of participation are authored and composed The study contextualizes the visitor book within the material and ideological environment where it is positioned and where it functions The semiotics of commemoration are mirrored in the visitor book which functions as a participatory platform that becomes an extension of the commemorative spaces in the museum The study addresses tourists and visitors texts i e the commemorative entries in the book which are succinct dialogical utterances Through these public performances individuals and groups of visitors align and affiliate with a larger imagined national community Reading the entries allows a unique perspective on communication practices and processes and vividly illustrates such concepts as genre voice addressivity indexicality and the very acts of writing and reading The book s many entries tell stories of affirming but also resisting the narrative tenets of Zionist national identity and they illustrate the politics of gender and ethnicity in Israel society The book presents many ethnographic observations and interviews which were done both with the management of the site Ammunition Hill National Memorial Site and with the visitors themselves The observations shed light on processes and practices involved in writing and reading and on how visitors decide on what to write and how they collaborate on drafting their entries The interviews with the site s management also illuminate the commemoration projects and how museums and exhibitions are staged and managed

Emerging Technologies and Museums Theopisti Stylianou-Lambert,Alexandra Bounia,Antigone Heraclidou,2022-01-14 How can emerging technologies display reveal and negotiate difficult dissonant negative or undesirable heritage Emerging technologies in museums have the potential to reveal unheard or silenced stories challenge preconceptions encourage emotional responses introduce the unexpected and overall provide alternative experiences By examining varied theoretical approaches and case studies authors demonstrate how awkward contested and rarely discussed subjects and stories are treated or can be potentially treated in a museum setting with the use of the latest technology

Interpreting LGBT History at Museums and Historic Sites Susan Ferentinos,2014-12-16 LGBT individuals and families are increasingly visible in popular culture and local communities their struggles for equality appear regularly in news media If history museums and historic sites are to be inclusive and relevant they must begin incorporating this community into their interpretation Interpreting LGBT History at Museums and Historic Sites is straightforward accessible guidebook for museum and history professionals as they embark on such worthy efforts This book features An examination of queer history in the United States The rapid rate at which queer topics have entered the mainstream could conceivably give the impression that LGBT people have only quite recently begun to contribute to United States culture and this misconception ignores a rich history A brief overview of significant events in LGBT history highlights variant sexuality and gender in U S history from colonization to the first decades of the twenty first century Case studies on the inclusion and telling of LGBT history These chapters detail how major institutions such as the Chicago History Museum have brought this topic to light in their interpretation An extensive bibliography and reading list LGBT history is a fascinating story and the limited space in this volume can hardly do it justice These features are provided to guide readers to more detailed information about the contributions of LGBT people to U S history and culture This guide complements efforts to make museums and historic sites more inclusive so they may tell a richer story for all people

Sex Museums Jennifer Tyburczy,2016-01-11 Winner of the 29th annual Lambda Literary Award for LGBT Studies All museums are sex museums In Sex Museums Jennifer Tyburczy takes a hard look at the formation of Western sexuality particularly how categories of sexual normalcy and perversity are formed and asks what role museums have played in using display as a technique for disciplining sexuality Most museum exhibits she argues assume that white patriarchal heterosexuality and traditional structures of intimacy gender and race represent national sexual culture for their visitors Sex Museums illuminates the history of such heteronormativity at most museums and proposes alternative approaches for the future of public display projects while also offering the reader curatorial tactics what she calls queer curatorship for exhibiting diverse sexualities in the twenty first century Tyburczy shows museums to be sites of culture war theatrics where dramatic civic struggles over how sex relates to public space genealogies of taste and beauty and performances of sexual identity are staged Delving into the history of erotic artifacts she analyzes how museums have historically approached the collection and display of the material culture of sex which poses complex moral political and logistical dilemmas for the Western museum Sex Museums unpacks the history of the museum and its intersections with the history of sexuality to argue that the Western museum context from its inception to the present marks a pivotal site in the construction of modern sexual subjectivity
