General Chapters A Guide For Facilitators Planners And Participants:

General Chapters: a Guide for Facilitators, Planners and Participants Dairne Mc Henry, 2014-02-24 This Guide offers practical information regarding general chapters of religious congregations It will be of interest not only to facilitators but also to congregational leadership teams and to those responsible for the planning and preparation of chapters It will be of interest also to those who take part in chapters as either participants or staff The Guide is both factual and creative Discernment is the underlying principle of the step by step instructions for the main stages of a chapter beginning with chapter preparation The Guide includes various processes and dynamics and a range of resources to promote effective participation by all members at a chapter Over many years the co authors have had wide experience of facilitation of general chapters in different parts of the world Through GLOIR an agency sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy and the Holy Union Sisters and devoted to providing education and training in leadership and group work they collaborated in giving workshops in East Africa for the training of general chapter facilitators This Guide contains material used in these Workshops As a result of this training there is now a pool of East African women religious available for general chapter facilitation In the interests of making the Guide available to as many readers as possible particularly on the African continent the co authors have waived their right to royalties However to offset the many pages used in photocopying materials during the training workshops readers of the Guide are invited to make a donation to a tree planting project of their choice or to one of the similar projects named at the front of the Guide

Spiritan Life and Mission Since Vatican II William Cleary, 2018-02-01 The Second Vatican Council 1962-65 called for the renewal of all religious institutes in the Catholic Church The Congregation of the Holy Spirit Spiritans responded initially under the leadership of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre Different interpretations of Vatican II caused divisions culminating in Lefebvre's departure from the congregation From this difficult starting point the Spiritans sought to redefine themselves in creative fidelity to their founding intention the spirit of Vatican II and the signs of the times Spiritan Life and Mission since Vatican II recounts this journey of renewal in three parts the Spiritan world before Vatican II and the election of Archbishop Lefebvre as superior general in 1962 the ad experimentum period culminating with a new rule of life in 1986 and the implementation of this new rule as interpreted through inter congregational discourse particularly the general chapters of 1992 1998 and 2004 The development of thinking on the church's mission and the congregation's rediscovery of the founding charisms of Claude Poullart des Places and Francis Libermann provide the parameters for this positive interpretation of the Spiritan journey of renewal Its evolution in the third millennium into a multicultural international missionary community of some three thousand members from over sixty countries in service of the Missio Dei bears testimony to this
