Educating for Cosmopolitanism: Lessons from Cognitive Science and Literature M. Bracher, 2013-10-31 Drawing on developments in cognitive science Bracher formulates pedagogical strategies for teaching literature in ways that develop students cognitive capabilities for cosmopolitanism the pursuit of global equality and justice Several staple classroom texts such as Things Fall Apart provide detailed examples for teaching practices The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice Masood Ashraf Raja, Nick T. C. Lu, 2023-11-20 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice is a comprehensive and multi purpose collection on this important topic With contributors working in various fields the Companion provides in depth analyses of both the cumulative and emergent issues obstacles praxes propositions and theories of social justice The first section offers a historical overview of major developments and debates in the field while the following sections look in more detail at the key traditions and show how literature and theory can be applied as analytical tools to real world inequalities and the impact of doing so The contributors provide reviews of major theoretical traditions including Marxism feminism Critical Race Theory disability studies and queer studies They also share literary analyses of influential authors including W E B Du Bois Yang Kui Edwidge Danticat Octavia Butler and Rivers Solomon amongst others The final section considers future possibilities for theory and action of justice drawing specifically from theories and knowledges in decolonial Indigenous environmental and posthumanist studies This authoritative volume draws on the intersections between literary studies and social movements in order to provide scholars students and activists alike with a complete collection of the most up to date information on both canonical and emerging texts and case studies globally

Holocaust in Rovno: The Massacre at Sosenki Forest, November 1941 J. Burds, 2013-12-01 In November 1941 near the city of Rovno Ukraine German death squads murdered over 23 000 Jews in what has been described as the second Babi Yar This meticulous and methodologically innovative study reconstructs the events at Rovno and in the process exemplifies efforts to form a genuinely transnational history of the Holocaust The Black Indian in American Literature K.

Byars-Nichols, 2013-11-29 The first book length study of the figure of the black Indian in American Literature this project explores themes of nation culture and performativity Moving from the Post Independence period to the Contemporary era Byars Nichols re centers a marginalized group challenges stereotypes and conventional ways of thinking about race and culture Old Diplomacy Revisited: A Study in the Modern History of Diplomatic Transformations K.

Weisbrode, 2013-11-21 In historical terms the Old Diplomacy is not really that old many of its concepts and methods date to the mid nineteenth century while the practices of New Diplomacy emerged only a couple of generations later Moreover Diplomacy 2 0 and other variants of the post Cold War era do not depart significantly from their twentieth century predecessor their forms particularly in technology have changed but their substance has not In this succinct overview historian Kenneth Weisbrode reminds us that to understand diplomatic transformations and their relevance to international affairs is to see diplomacy as an entrepreneurial art and that like most arts it is adapted and re adapted with reference to earlier forms Diplomatic practice is always changing and always continuous Decentralization and Party Politics in the Dominican Republic C. Mitchell,2013-11-21 Recently in the Dominican Republic a pro municipal social alliance pressed for decentralization and politicians yielded seeking power in three party competition This study examines how electoral financial and administrative power has been dispersed and suggests innovative strategies to maintain decentralizing momentum

The Silent Revolution M. Bunz,2013-10-31 Critically engaging illustrative and with numerous examples The Silent Revolution delivers a philosophically informed introduction to current debates on digital technology and calls for a more active role of humans towards technology Multiple Interest Rate Analysis M. Osborne,2014-01-05 This book is an analysis of all possible interest rates Dual expressions are used to solve long standing puzzles eliminate anomalies and draw conclusions about best practice and sound policy advice in areas of economics and finance Topics include retail and corporate finance capital budgeting and investment appraisal bond risk management An on line model demonstrating ideas from the book is available in the Wolfram Demonstrations Project WDP by searching multiple interest rate analysis in the WDP search engine A computable document containing the model and the model s code are also available as free downloads from the site Dominant Divisions of Labor: Models of Production That Have Transformed the World of Work T.

Janoski,D. Lepadatu,2013-11-27 The past century of labor was definitively captured by theories like Fordism and Taylorism or scientific managment but how do we make sense of global production today This short book takes a panoramic view of the candidates for the most succinct theory of the 21st century division of labor including post Fordism flexible accumulation McDonaldization Waltonism Nikeification Gatesism and Siliconism shareholder value and lean production and Toyotism Authors Thomas Janoski and Darina Lepadatu argue that lean production in a somewhat expanded version presents three variations Toyotism the strongest form Nikeification a moderate form with off shored plants lacking teamwork and Waltonism the merchandising form that presses for off shoring While all three share strong elements of just in time JIT production and supply chain management they differ in how teamwork and long term philosophies are valued This critical review of dominant established theories serves to inform subsequent research on the contemporary international division of labor

Business Strategies for a Messy World V. Barabba,I. Mitroff,2013-11-22 Using current business examples and academic research Tools for Systematic Problem Solving educates managers and executives on how to systematically examine key assumptions to ensure survival and success for their organizations Politicians, Personal Image and the Construction of Political Identity C. Archetti,2014-01-07 Is the media obsession with image leading to a degeneration of politics Are politicians more concerned with their appearances than with policy substance Through the evidence provided by over 50 interviews with politicians across the UK and Italy local councillors MPs and MEPs this book provides a very different picture of the world of politics than the one we often cynically imagine By relying on extensive excerpts from frank and colorful conversations with the interviewees the analysis develops a new multidisciplinary model to understand the mediatization of politics and the way the personal image of elected representatives is constructed in the age of interconnectedness

Challenging Global Gender Violence: The Global Clothesline Project S. Rose, 2016-02-09 Challenging Global Gender Violence provides a qualitative and comparative analysis of women's experiences of violence healing and action across cultures Gender violence is the most pervasive human rights violation affecting women and children across both the developed and developing world While the specific cultural contexts and acts of violence vary the feelings that women express about their experiences of abuse are strikingly similar So are the images colors and words they use to express those feelings Hearts bruised broken and torn black and red NO and No M's are frequently found on shirts contributed to the Global Clothesline Project While providing a theoretical analysis of trauma Susan D Rose grounds the discussion in the lived experiences and stories of women across cultures Featuring women's stories artwork and voices as they speak about their experiences of violence and healing this brief volume examines the relationship between gender inequality and gender violence the health impacts of gender violence and strategies being used to reduce violence against women Tycoons, Scorchers, and Outlaws T. Messer-Kruse, 2013-11-29 Tycoons Scorchers and Outlaws charts how auto racing was shaped by class tensions between the millionaires who invented it the public who resented their seizure of the public roads and the working class drivers who viewed the sport as a vocation not a leisured pursuit The Obamas and Mass Media Mia Moody-Ramirez, Jannette Dates, 2013-11-22 Using the cultural prism of race this book critically examines the image of African Americans in media of the twenty first century Further the authors assess the ways in which media focused on gender religion and politics in framing perceptions of the President and First Lady of the United States during the Obama administration Kierkegaard on Politics Barry Stocker, 2013-11-22 This investigation of Kierkegaard as a political thinker with regard to the Danish context and to his place in the history of political thought deals with the more direct discussion of politics in Kierkegaard and the ways in which political ideas are embedded in his literary aesthetic ethical philosophical and religious thought Western Aid at a Crossroads Øyvind Eggen, Kjell Roland, 2013-12-13 The new growth patterns and shifting wealth in the world economy fundamentally alter the basis for Western aid This book demonstrates how Western development aid has been transformed over time in particular in the 1990s when the West enjoyed world hegemony Western aid once a helping hand to other countries development strategies has increasingly been seen as a tool for large scale attempts to transform states societies and minds according to Western models The authors claim that this has made aid more complex and less useful to poor countries in their fight against poverty Emerging economies such as China have demonstrated that other paths to growth and poverty alleviation are available They are attractive partners in development offering collaboration without paternalism Most poor countries experience growth and are able to finance development with homegrown resources or in collaboration with non Western partners Having other options they may increasingly challenge and reject Western aid if it is accompanied with goals of transforming the recipients based on Western blueprints The authors claim that aid has a role in the fight against poverty in the future but only if Western donors are willing to adapt to the new world order leave paternalism behind and rethink their role in development Donors must change the way they relate to poor sovereign states redefine the meaning of development and reinvent aid to make it simpler and more manageable

Democratic Criticism Masood Ashraf Raja,2023-02-14 After the publication of Salman Rushdie s The Satanic Verses 1988 the poetics of incitement found in texts originating in the West containing themes and representations of Islam hurtful to Muslims became an accepted method of textual production in the West Production of such texts intensified after the attacks of 9 11 Democratic Criticism Poetics of Incitement and the Muslim Sacred by Masood Ashraf Raja urges a new mode of reading one that permits Western readers to transcend local reading practices in order to as best as one can read from the point of view of the Other Raja argues that the lack of understanding of Muslim responses to the poetics of incitement in the West is the result of a lack of cross cultural knowledge He claims metropolitan universities often do not teach the proper social historical and religious context required for effectively reading these texts with any form of cultural knowledge To remedy this Raja offers and theorizes democratic reading practices and new ways for students to engage with texts A genealogy of the Muslim Sacred is included thereby giving readers the history and specific knowledge that constitutes an average Muslim reader of these texts a subject who should be imagined and empathized with when those in the West read works of the poetics of incitement Democratic Criticism encourages Western readers to develop a deeper understanding of the meaning making processes of the Islamic world while at the same time encouraging the Muslim readers to read representations of the Islamic world with a more expansive understanding It will be a helpful tool in creating reading practices that allow both teachers and students of literature to transcend their mode of reading as universal and to read from the perspective of the Other and allow readers to engage meaningfully with these texts Students and scholars of world literature history and religious studies will find this book insightful and valuable Development Cooperation S.

Klingebiel,2013-12-01 The aims of and motives for development cooperation have changed significantly in recent times Besides pursuing short and longer term objectives in their own economic foreign policy and other interests donors usually have a recognisable and genuine interest in assisting countries in their processes of development Sustainable Knowledge

R. Frodeman,2013-12-02 Sustainable Knowledge rethinks the nature of interdisciplinary research and the place of philosophy and the humanities in society and offers a new account of what is at stake in talk about interdisciplinarity The Political Economy of the Egyptian Revolution R. Roccu,2013-11-22 While the 2011 Egyptian revolution has already become the subject of much debate the roots of the socio economic context which made the revolution possible have seldom been explored Roberto Roccu addresses this gap and in doing this provides the first detailed study of the deeper causes of the Egyptian revolution Relying on an innovative understanding of Antonio Gramsci s thought He argues that economic reforms implemented since the late 1980s provided the conditions for both the emergence of a capitalist oligarchy within the regime and an unprecedented rise in socio economic inequality in society at large These two processes substantially eroded any remnants of hegemony leaving the Mubarak regime ill equipped to face the global economic crisis By alienating sections of the ruling bloc while impoverishing vast strata of the population neoliberal reforms provided a necessary although by no means sufficient condition for the Egyptian revolution to occur
