Cultivating Differences Symbolic Boundaries And The Making Of Inequality:

Cultivating Differences Michèle Lamont, Marcel Fournier, 1992-01-15 How are boundaries created between groups in society And what do these boundaries have to do with social inequality In this pioneering collection of original essays a group of leading scholars helps set the agenda for the sociology of culture by exploring the factors that push us to segregate and integrate and the institutional arrangements that shape classification systems Each examines the power of culture to shape our everyday lives as clearly as does economics and studies the dimensions along which boundaries are frequently drawn The essays cover four topic areas the institutionalization of cultural categories from morality to popular culture the exclusionary effects of high culture from musical tastes to the role of art museums the role of ethnicity and gender in shaping symbolic boundaries and the role of democracy in creating inclusion and exclusion The contributors are Jeffrey Alexander Nicola Beisel Randall Collins Diana Crane Paul DiMaggio Cynthia Fuchs Epstein Joseph Gusfield John R Hall David Halle Richard A Peterson Albert Simkus Alan Wolfe and Vera Zolberg

Diversity in Black Greek Letter Organizations Wendy Marie Laybourn, Devon R. Goss, 2018-04-17 Starting in the early twentieth century and still thriving in the contemporary era Black Greek letter organizations BGLOs provide social support networking opportunities and service for the Black community Although BGLOs have always been majority Black organizations there are small numbers of non Black individuals who choose to pledge their membership Diversity in Black Greek Letter Organizations Breaking the Line explores the experiences of these non Black members who have immersed themselves in organizations rich with Black history and culture Through in depth interviews with thirty four such members Wendy Marie Laybourn and Devon R Goss reveal how and why these individuals come to identify with organizations designed for the uplift of races other than their own For non Black BGLO members the association with a Black organization provides them the opportunity to consider the meaning of racial inequality and their own racial identities Although many non Black BGLO members recount challenges to their membership the participants in Diversity in Black Greek Letter Organizations ultimately find a sense of belonging with their Black brothers and sisters which Laybourn and Goss argue can provide an example of the challenges and promises of cross racial interactions as a whole

The Routledge Handbook to Sociology of Music Education Ruth Wright, Geir Johansen, Panagiotis A. Kanellopoulos, Patrick Schmidt, 2021-03-29 The Routledge Handbook to Sociology of Music Education is a comprehensive authoritative and state of the art review of current research in the field The opening introduction orients the reader to the field highlights recent developments and draws together concepts and research methods to be covered The chapters that follow are written by respected experienced experts on key issues in their area of specialisation From separate beginnings in the United States Europe and the United Kingdom in the mid twentieth century the field of the sociology of music education has and continues to experience rapid and global development It could be argued that this Handbook marks its coming of age The Handbook is dedicated to the exclusive and explicit application of sociological constructs and theories to issues such as globalisation immigration post colonialism inter generational musicking socialisation inclusion exclusion hegemony symbolic violence and popular culture Contexts range from formal compulsory schooling to non formal communal environments to informal music making and listening The Handbook is aimed at graduate students researchers and professionals but will also be a useful text for undergraduate students in music education and cultural studies

Feeding the Hustle Jesse Dart, 2022-01-14 In Feeding the Hustle Jesse Dart draws on ethnographic fieldwork to consider the ways in which free food has become ubiquitous and even compulsory within the tech industry Packed lunches have nearly disappeared as more companies provide free food with the stated objectives of attracting and retaining employees increasing productivity and creating a sense of community through commensality Dart

demonstrates how these food programs alter the relationship between employer and employee support a flexible type of workforce and reveal a commensality that is both exclusionary and inclusionary Social Stratification, Class, Race, and Gender in Sociological Perspective, Second Edition David Grusky, 2019-09-05 The volume offers essential reading for undergraduates who need an introduction to the field for graduate students who wish to broaden their understanding of stratification research and for advanced scholars who seek a basic reference guide Although most of the selections are middle range theoretical pieces suitable for introductory courses the anthology also includes advanced contributions on the cutting edge of research The editor outlines a modified study plan for undergraduate students requiring a basic introduction to the field Class, Culture and Belonging in Rural Childhoods Rose Butler, 2018-08-23 This book explores how rural children negotiate economic insecurity and difference Based on long term ethnographic research in rural Australia it shows that children draw on class based ideas of moral worth anchored in racialised and gendered understandings to negotiate financial hardship and insecurity Through close observations in the classroom school yard and the home and interviews with diverse young people their parents and teachers Class Culture and Belonging in Rural Childhoods takes us deep into children s everyday struggles and their efforts to manage insecurity and belonging within a polarised economic landscape This book offers compelling new analysis of children s experiences at a time of rapid and far reaching change in rural communities and the world at large This unique and engaging ethnography of rural Australia makes an important and timely contribution to wider understandings of how children navigate the precarious circumstances of the present Global Culture Diana Crane, Nobuko Kawashima, Ken'ichi Kawasaki, 2016-05-06 Culture no longer has borders With the advent of internet sites like Sothebys com and the increasing reality of globalization culture itself has gone global This collection focuses on questions involving national identity indigenous culture economic growth free trade cultural policy and global tourism Global Culture looks at all aspects of the arts including film art music theater television and museums Global Culture fleshes out how current cultural policies are working and forecasts what we can expect the future landscape of global culture to look like

Emerging Sports as Social Movements Joshua Woods, 2021-07-28 This volume examines the rise of an emerging sport as a grassroots effort or new social movement arguing that the growth of non normative sports movements occurs through two social processes one driven primarily by product development commercialization and consumption and another that relies upon public resources and grassroots efforts Through the lens of disc golf informed by the author s experience both playing and researching the sport Joshua Woods here explores how non normative sports development depends on the consistency of insider culture and ideology as well as on how the movement navigates a broad field of market competition government regulation community characteristics public opinion traditional media social media and technological change Throughout the author probes why some sports grow faster than others examining cultural tendencies toward sport individual choices to participate and the various institutional forces at play Sociological Visions Kai Erikson, 1997 All of the essays are by authors whose sociological vision has had a profound impact on our culture Wealth, Whiteness, and the Matrix of Privilege Jessica Holden Sherwood,2012-07-10 Exclusive social clubs are traditionally an important site for the consolidation of upper class power Wealth Whiteness and the Matrix of Privilege shows that while the particulars of admission have changed these clubs remain socially significant incubators Having interviewed typically inaccessible members of exclusive clubs in the Northeast Jessica Holden Sherwood reports and analyzes what they have to say about who is in who is out and why The members talk frankly about their exclusiveness based on money and style but they are quick to point out that ethnically based exclusion is a thing of the past Club members also address the status of their women members which is at times distinctly second class The talk of country club members is shown to draw on elements in popular discourse And even if it s not their intention as club members exclude and account for their exclusion they contribute to reproducing class race and gender inequalities Cosmopolitanism in Practice Maria Rovisco,2016-05-13 What makes people cosmopolitan How is cosmopolitanism shaping everyday life experiences and the practices of ordinary people Making use of empirical research Cosmopolitanism in Practice examines the concrete settings in which individuals display cosmopolitan sensibilities and dispositions illustrating the ways in which cosmopolitan self transformations can be used as an analytical tool to explain a variety of identity outlooks and practices The manner in which both past and present cosmopolitanisms compete with meta narratives such as nationalism multiculturalism and religion is also investigated alongside the employment of cosmopolitan ideas in situations of tension and conflict With an international team of contributors including Ulrich Beck Steven Vertovec Rob Kroes and Natan Sznaider this book draws on a variety of intellectual disciplines and international contexts to show how people embrace and make use of cosmopolitan ideas and attitudes Interpreting Human Rights Rhiannon Morgan,Bryan Turner,2009-05-07 Written by an international group of leading social science scholars in the field of human rights this volume situates the study of human rights in an open interdisciplinary terrain Ranging over diverse topics and pathways in the theory and practice of human rights this volume will be an invaluable aid to those seeking to understand the complex meanings institutions and practices of human rights Maritime Professions ,2023-03-13 On a global scale more than 40 million people make their living working directly at sea as fishers seafarers in aquaculture or seabed mining or related occupations such as dockworkers shipbuilding logistics maritime administration secondary branches of shipping marine tourism and other maritime professions The study of maritime labour and occupations is still under represented in the social sciences and humanities With the present volume we attempt to fill this gap by representing recent research on maritime professions from a sociological perspective drawing on a wide variety of disciplinary approaches and subject matters Queer Carnival Amy L. Stone,2022-04-12 The importance of citywide festivals like Mardi Gras and Fiesta for the LGBTQ community Festivals like Mardi Gras and Fiesta have come to be annual events in which entire cities participate and LGBTQ people are a visible part of these celebrations In other words the party is on the party is queer and everyone is invited In Queer Carnival Amy Stone takes us inside these colorful eye catching and often raucous events highlighting their importance to queer life in America s urban South and Southwest Drawing on five years of research and over a hundred days at LGBTQ events in cities such as San Antonio Santa Fe Baton Rouge and Mobile Stone gives readers a front row seat to festivals carnivals and Mardi Gras celebrations vividly bringing these queer cultural spaces and the people that create and participate in them to life Stone shows how these events serve a larger fundamental purpose helping LGBTQ people to cultivate a sense of belonging in cities that may be otherwise hostile Queer Carnival provides an important new perspective on queer life in the South and Southwest showing us the ways that LGBTQ communities not only survive but thrive even in the most unexpected places

Voicing Dissent Violaine Roussel, Bleuwenn Lechaux, 2010-02-02 Voicing Dissent presents a unique and original series of interviews with American artists including Guerrilla Girls on Tour Tony Shalhoub Shepard Fairey Sean Astin and many others who have voiced their opposition to the war in Iraq Following Pierre Bourdieu s example these discussions are approached sociologically and provide a thorough analysis of the relationships between arts and politics as well as the limits and conditions of political speech and action These painters and graphic artists musicians actors playwrights theatre directors and filmmakers reveal their perceptions of politics war security and terrorism issues the Middle East their experiences with activism as well as their definition of the artist s role and their practice of citizenship Addressing the crucial questions for contemporary democracies such as artists function in society the crisis of political legitimacy and representation the rise of new modes of contestation and the limits to free public speech this book will be of interest to scholars in sociology politics and the arts

Stories of Identity among Black, Middle Class, Second Generation Caribbeans Yndia S. Lorick-Wilmot, 2017-08-29 This volume addresses how black middle class second generation Caribbean immigrants are often overlooked in contemporary discussions of race black economic mobility and immigrant communities in the US Based on rich ethnography Yndia S Lorick Wilmot draws attention to this persisting invisibility by exploring this generation s experiences in challenging structures of oppression as adult children of post 1965 Caribbean immigrants and as an important part of the African American middle class She recounts compelling stories from participants regarding their identity performances in public and private spaces including what it means to be black and making it in America as well as the race gender and class constraints they face as part of a larger transnational community
